

OMPAggress 4

Here we are finally with our fourth progress report, late due to the generosity of my employers, who, in their wisdom, sent me to Margate for two weeks and put everything behind by that amount. As a result this PR will not be all it might be, for which my apologies.

TAFF

We are very pleased to announce that Len and June Moffatt will be attending OMPAcon. Not knowing them myself but persuaded by numerous marvelous reports I am greatly looking forward to meeting them. Easily the most popular of the TAFF candidates so far as this country is concerned, they are fans of long standing and great industry.

Want to meet people - MAN OUR REGISTRATION DESK. OMPAcon needs you.

BANQUET

Banquet tickets will be on sale until noon on Friday 20th April but not a moment after - don't leave getting yours too late.

AUCTION

Material for the auction is building up but more is always welcome. Send your donations to Mike and Pat Meara, 61, Borrowwash Rd., Spondon, Derby: or bring it along to the con.

HOTEL

A double piece of good news here; first costs are down - the cost, per person per night for bed and breakfast will only be £3.52, cheaper than for the past two years. The second thing it's nice to be able to say is that we can still fit people into the hotel, though only in twin rooms. I stress this latter fact, please don't write asking for singles or doubles, we haven't any left. A number of people have written asking that their bookings be extended back to cover the Thursday night; there is no problem to doing this but please note that at this late date we shall not be able to confirm them. The hotel will cover this since they will confirm all room bookings in the near future, perhaps even before this reaches you.

The con committee would like to thank all who came to Chessmancon, and all who helped behind the scenes in making it a highly enjoyable weekend: even for those of us who ran it! The only sour note after the event is that a number of bad cheques were passed and two top publishers haven't even bothered to answer our requests for them to pay for ads.

WATCH FOR THE "DOC" WEIR AWARD....it's coming YOUR way.

Er - that is - well, by the law of averages, YOU probably won't win it THIS year. But your best friend might. Or else somebody else's best friend. And YOU can help. Just think about the people you'd like to see win it. Then cast your ballot at Bristol - and lo and behold, there's the winner!

That's the main thing for now. Think who you'd like to see win it. Then at Easter, vote for the worthiest individual you can think of.

CONVENTION SPEECHES

All convention speeches are copyright as are all discussions and panels. The copyright in the speeches belongs to the speaker, all other rights belong to the convention.

Anyone wishing to transcribe a speech or panel MUST have prior permission, which is only obtainable through the convention committee.

If a fanzine editor is interested in publishing verbatim from the convention, it would help all round if he could contact the ConCom in advance, so that any arrangements can be finalised. Please get in touch with Gerald Bishop who will be responsible for liason with the speakers in this line.

CHEQUES

The Convention regrets that it cannot cash or accept personal cheques after this date (12/4/73).
