

WELCOME

The Faanish and Insurgent Scientific-fictional Association welcomes you to the 1965 EASTERCON which is being held on Friday and Saturday nights at the Hoew's Midtown Motor Inn. Room 232 is where the action takes place. Most likely there will be a gathering or party of some kind on Sunday afternoon, if you are interested this will be announced on Saturday evening.

The FISTFA is a completely informal club that meets every two weeks at the home of Mike McInerney, Apt 7, 326 E 13th, New York 10003. Phone GRue 3-8230. There are no rules, officers, dues, programs, or exclusions from FISTFA; anyone may attend the meetings.

Most of the finances and arrangements³¹ for the Eastercon have been handled by Mike McInerney and rich brown. I would like to take this space to thank rich publicly for service above and beyond the call of duty.

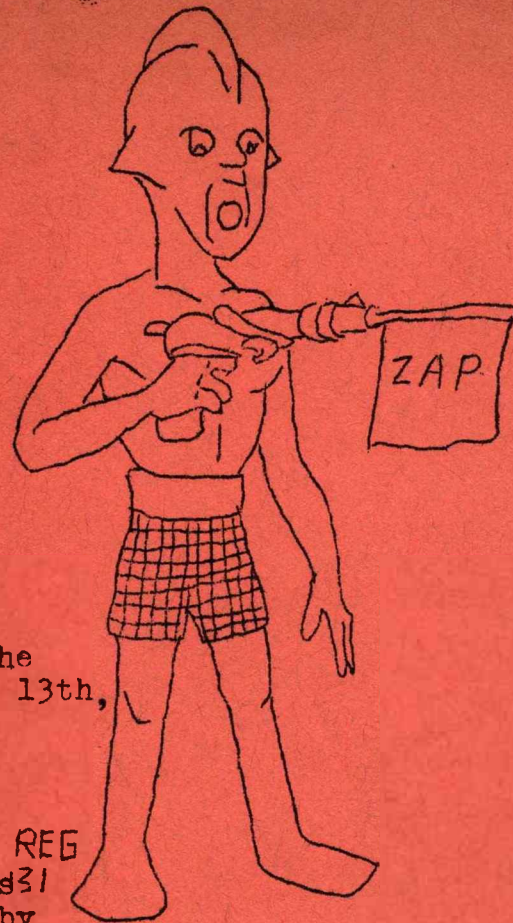

The next FISTFA meeting will be held on April 30, 1965. That is a Friday night and things get started around 8 PM. Things often don't break up until 8 AM. Come if you like to talk to or listen to the most active fanzine fans in the New York area. The accent is on faanishness, but everyone is welcome, and sometimes we even mention science fiction.

There is no admission fee for the EASTERCON, but if you wish to drink our booze we would like a 50¢ contribution to the Drink Fund. This 50¢ is your only charge per evening for unlimited refreshments. All proceeds of the Drink Fund will be used to buy extra liquor.

There will be an auction on Saturday night at 8:30. For details look at the back of this sheet. There will also be a raffle on Saturday night of a Malcolm Smith color cover from Other Worlds April 1952. This cover illustrates the story The Golden Guardsman by S. J. Byrne and is 20 in by 15 inches. Raffle tickets are 15¢ for one or 2 for 25¢.

We hope you enjoy yourselves, we know we will enjoy ourselves. The present plans are for this to be an annual event, and we look forward to seeing you every year. Don't forget the Lunacon at the Hotel Edison on Saturday at 1PM. Don't ignore the World's Fair which has now opened.

AUCTION !

8:30 PM

On Saturday night, at Loew's Midtown Motor Inn, Room 232, there will be an auction of material of interest to science fiction readers, collectors and fans. The Eastercon Committee wishes to thank the following kind people for donations of material: Ken Beale, Ted White, Andy Main, The Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction, rich brown, Terry Carr, Mike McInerney, and Jim Sanders. Thank you good people, without you the Eastercon could not exist.
