Welcome!

Welcome to Denvention 3, the 66th World Science Fiction Convention! As you can see from the size of this “pocket program/quick reference” there is more than enough going on to keep everyone entertained.

We hope you find this Quick Reference helpful and easy to use. Bear in mind that, although it is accurate as we print it, there are bound to be last-minute changes — so be sure to check the daily newsletter at the convention for updates.

Important! Please remember that Denver is at a higher altitude than most people are used to. Be sure to drink plenty of water and use sun protection to counteract the effects of Denver’s higher altitude, extremely dry climate, and increased exposure to solar radiation.

Have a great con!

Getting Started

Note: The Colorado Convention Center will be fondly referred to as the “CCC” herein.

Registration

(CCC, D Lobby, street level)

Registration Schedule:

Wed: 10am - 7pm

Thurs thru Sat: 9am - 8pm

Sun: 9am - 1pm

Information Desk

(CCC, D Lobby, street level)

Don't know where to find that panel? Need a restaurant idea? Info about the trolley on the 16th Street Mall? Come by the Information Desk in the CCC, and our friendly volunteers will help you.

Information Desk Schedule:

Wed: 10am - 6pm

Thurs thru Saturday: 9am - 5pm

Sunday: 9 am - Noon

Handicapped Services

(CCC, D Lobby, street level)

Please come see us if you have any special needs at Denvention. If you have pre-booked a scooter, this is where you will pick it up. A few large-print copies of the Quick Reference will also be available here.

Schedule:

Wed: 10am-9pm	Sat: 10am-6pm
Thurs: 10am-6pm	Sun: 10am-2pm
Fri: 10am-6pm

Child Care

(Crowne Plaza Hotel, Elevation & Altitude Rooms)

Child care Services will be provided for children under the age of 12 by KiddieCorp at the Crowne Plaza Hotel. When you purchased a child's membership for $50, your child became eligible for 10 hours of child care throughout the convention. You can buy extra hours of child care from KiddieCorp for $12 an hour.

Child care Services are for children ages 6 months through 12 years old. Snacks and beverages will be provided. Meals must be supplied by parents. Medication will not be administered by KiddieCorp.

Child care services are available beginning at 9:30am and on some evenings for parents that would like to attend the Masquerade, Hugos, or some parties.

Priority is given to those children who have pre-registered for the services. Provided space is available, parents can register their child for child care on-site at the Childcare Registration station found right outside the Elevation Room.

Child Care Schedule:

Wed & Thurs: 9:30am-6pm
Fri & Sat: 9:30am-6pm & 6pm-midnight
Sun: 9:30am-6pm

Daily Newsletter

The Denvention 3 daily newsletter Necessity (the Mother of Denvention) will have lots of news, schedule and programming changes, etc. It will come out twice per day Wed-Sat and once on Sunday, plus special editions Friday night (Masquerade winners / Site Selection results) and Saturday night (Hugos).

Masquerade Registration

(CCC, Upper D Lobby)

You must register in order to participate in the Masquerade, so come on down! Rehearsals will be in the Wells Fargo Theater on Friday, as scheduled. The Masquerade Green Room opens for entrants on Friday at 5:30pm.

See "Masquerade" on page 20 for information about the Masquerade itself.

Schedule:

Wed: 2pm-8pm

Thurs: 10am-8pm

Fri: 9am-10am

Sat & Sun: closed

Voodoo & Party Boards

Voodoo Boards display the names of everyone registered for Denvention. Leave a message for someone by writing it on a card, filing it under their name in the index box, and sticking a pin next to their name on the board. The Voodoo and Party boards will be in Lobby D along the escalator to Hall D. There are also handy printed daily lists for parties available.

Volunteers Needed!

(CCC, Upper D Lobby)

Denvention 3 needs your help! WorldCons are really big and it takes a lot of people to keep it running. We need lots of volunteers for a wide variety of tasks: registration check-in, crowd management at various functions, helping to set up and tear down exhibits, displaying items at the Art Auction, newsletter distribution, food preparation for the Con Suite, running errands and basically performing all the functions that keep things moving smoothly at the convention.

You do not need a special skill, just a desire to help in the continuance of a proud tradition - the WorldCon. Meet new friends and connect with old ones! Learn a new skill or show yours off. So please join us!

Volunteer Desk Schedule:

Wed thru Sat - 9:00am - 6:00pm daily

Sun: 9am-5pm

Policies and Reminders

A Note on Drinking

Although some of us locals live at really high altitudes (like Colorado Springs), Denver is going to be a higher altitude than most Denvention 3 members are used to.

Here are few bits of advice to help you with the Denver's mile-high altitude:

- Avoid strenuous exercise on the first day of your visit to give your body time to adjust.
- Drinking alcohol or caffeine will likely affect you more strongly and more quickly than it normally does.
- The most effective way to deal with the higher altitude and very low humidity is to stay very well hydrated. Does this mean that you need to set aside a big chunk of your convention budget to buy bottled water? Not so! Colorado has some of the best water you've ever tasted coming right out of the city water taps. Our mountain reservoirs are filled with snow melt from the Rockies. So just keep a bottle filled from the taps in your hotel room or from water fountains at the CCC. There's a reason why Colorado is a prime site for so many breweries and micro-breweries. It's the water! And you can enjoy it for free.

Another Note on Drinking

No one under the age of 21 can be served alcohol. Please check IDs at parties.

Badges

Please wear your badge at all times. Many of the function rooms and events will have people checking badges at the door.

All children must wear badges - for details, see the "Children's Badges / Kids in Tow" on page 9.

Lost Badges

Your badge is your identification as a member of Denvention 3. If you lose your badge, please check with Registration to see if it has been turned in. If we must replace your badge, there will be a fee. If, after you have paid the fee, your badge is found, all of the fee except for a $5 badge replacement fee charge will be returned.

Changing Your Badge

If you would like a different name on your badge than the one you requested in your registration, there will be a $5 fee for the new badge. We will not be able to print new badges during peak registration periods.

Children's Badges / Kids in Tow

All children at Denvention 3 must have and wear a Denvention 3 badge, with their parents contact information on the back.

It is the parent or guardian's responsibility to monitor their child's activity and maintain a reasonable amount of control and supervision. Violation of this policy may be grounds for expulsion.

Young Fan programming is not child care. The people on the panel, doing the workshop, telling the stories, etc. will not be supervising your children, and will not keep them from leaving the room. If your children require supervision, then you should plan to attend the programming along with them. To attend Young Fan programming on his or her own, a child must have a child membership.

If you do not want to buy a child membership for your child, you still must register the child at registration and get a "Kid in Tow" badge. A child with a "Kid in Tow" badge must be with a parent or responsible adult at all times! The parents of any children with "Kid In Tow" badges found without supervision will be asked to join their children immediately, and both children and parents may be asked to leave the convention.

Smoking

There is no smoking in the CCC or in the Sheraton Hotel.

Weapons Policy

General

No edged, projectile-firing, or other weapon or replica can be carried in any part of the convention. The Committee reserves the right to decide what constitutes a weapon. Anyone found with a weapon, real or replica, will be given one opportunity to take the weapon to their room or vehicle. The Committee reserves the right to impound weapons for the duration of the convention if individuals do not have a place to store weapons. Failure to put away a weapon or to surrender a weapon for impoundment is grounds for revocation of membership without refund, and expulsion from the convention.

Masquerade

The Masquerade Director must be informed in advance of any weapons being used as part of an entry and must approve all such uses. Weapons must be wrapped when being transported to and from the masquerade rehearsal and the masquerade proper. Costumers may have to demonstrate they understand the appropriate safe use of any weapons for their presentation. Refusal to do so can lead to disqualification if the unrehearsed use could endanger members of the convention, whether in the audience, backstage, or on stage.

Dealers

Weapons sold in the Dealers' Room must be wrapped by the dealer and taken away by the purchaser. They cannot be unwrapped until off-site or in a private room or private vehicle. Dealers must ensure customers are aware of this requirement.

Activities

Art Show (CCC, Exhibit Hall D)

More than 150 artists will display their talents at the Denvention 3 art show for you to admire, appreciate, and perhaps purchase. Artwork is sold using a combination of written bids and voice auction. You must register with the Art Show staff before bidding. On Saturday, the written bidding closes at 2:00 and the Art Auction is held from 4:30pm to 7pm. (See "Art Auction" on page 16 for details on how to buy art).

There will also be special Art Demos by attending artists on topics such as creating knotwork jewelry and chalk portraits. See the schedule posted at the Art Show for details.

Art Show Schedule: Wed: Noon-7pm
Thurs: 10am-7pm and 9pm-11pm
Fri: 10am-7pm
Sat: 10am - 2pm (Auction @ 4:30pm Sat.)
Sun: 10am-2pm Pickup & Pay for art
For a list of exhibiting artists, see "List of Artists" on page 163.

Art Show Tours

Come take a tour of the Art Show. Our docents are a great group of tour leaders: fans & pros, graphic artists, writers, critics.

Art Show tours are listed on the program schedule; there is also a schedule of the tours near the entrance to the Art Show.

Con Suite

(Sheraton, Majestic Ballroom)

Relax, chat, and get a snack at the Con Suite! There will be a cash bar available Wednesday thru Saturday in the lobby outside of the Con Suite. The Con Suite itself will have lots of soft drinks but is not serving alcohol.

On Thursday, there will be a lovely birthday party for everyone whose birthday is during (or reasonably close to) the con. Birthday cake and balloons at 8pm — come celebrate!

Con Suite Schedule:

Wed thru Saturday: 1pm-2am

Sun: 1pm to 10pm

Dealers' Room (CCC, Exhibit Hall D)

For fine fannish retail shopping therapy, we invite you to peruse the Dealers' Room. More than 80 dealers - over half of them purveyors of books, comics, & other publications - are eagerly awaiting your wallet you.

Dealers' Room Schedule:

Wed: Noon-6pm

Thurs thru Sat: 10am-6pm

Sun: 10am-2pm

For a list of attending dealers, see "List of Dealers" on page 165.

Filking (Sheraton and CCC)

We have a rich and varied filk program for you this year! There is a concert by Kathy Mar (our very Special Music Guest) and one featuring songs based on the works of our Guest of Honor Lois McMaster Bujold. There are also workshops on songwriting, playing various instruments, etc. If you don't know what filk is, or if this is your first convention, come to the Filk 101 panel on Thursday and learn all about it!

For the full schedule, see "Filking" on page 137.

Films (Sheraton & CCC)

Among other gems of the silver screen, come see all the 2008 Hugo nominees for film. Or come to "Heroes" day — the entire first season of "Heroes" will be shown from 9:00 am Thursday until the last episode is screened (about 2:30 am Friday), including the un-aired pilot! As a thank you to our friends from Nippon 2007, we will show selected Japanese movies, as will as "Tenchi Muyo! Ryo-Ohki". There is also something special for our Canadian friends.

For the full schedule, see "Films" on page 131.

Gaming (Sheraton, Tower Exhibit)

Denvention 3 will run RPGs, card games, board games, and LARPs in the Tower Exhibit Area at the Sheraton from Wednesday evening though Sunday afternoon.

For a complete schedule, see "Gaming" on page 140. If you would like to help with gaming, please sign up at the Volunteers' Desk.

Kaffeeklatsches & Readings

These are a great way to spend some quality time with your favorite authors, either in quiet discussion or listening to them read their work! Seating at Kaffeeklatsch will be limited! You can sign up for Kaffeeklatsch only on the day of that Kaffeeklatsch, starting at 9am. The sign-up sheets will be at the Information Desk in Lobby D of the CCC.

For the complete schedule, see "Kaffeeklatsches, Readings, & Signings" on page 142.

Rising Stars Program

See "Rising Stars" on page 153 of the "Index by Category/Theme" for the complete schedule of events aimed at aspiring or newly-published writers. The centerpiece is the Rising Stars reception hosted by Joe and Gay Haldeman on Thursday afternoon, where authors can present their new works, as well as network with readers, other new authors, editors, publishers, and convention-runners. Writing, editing, securing an agent, submitting a manuscript, and advice on how to work effectively with fans and conventions will be part of the programming.

Signings

After you've bought all those new books in the Dealers' Room, get them signed by the author! Autographing is in the CCC Exhibit Hall D. For the complete schedule, see "Kaffeeklatsches, Readings, & Signings" on page 142.

Strolling with the Stars

Take a gentle, one mile stroll with some of your favorite Authors, Artists & Editors in the fresh morning air! Meet at the Big Blue Bear in front of the CCC (14th St). The group will leave promptly at 9am and return before 10am. No sign-up is required. For a complete schedule, see "Strolling with the Stars" on page 147.

Technology of Reading Program

Fans love to read, and we're proud of it! To celebrate our inner bibliophiles, we have a full track of panels and roundtables on everything from medieval manuscripts to the latest eBook readers, as well as a bookbinding workshop. For the full schedule, see "Technology of Reading" on page 154 of the "Index by Category/Theme".

Wonders of 1958

We are in the golden-anniversary year of 1958, a golden year for science fiction. We're celebrating with five Classics of SF book discussions (led by John Hertz) on books published that year and still famous, often reprinted, worth re-reading or first reading now.

For a list of this program track, go to "Wonders of 1958" on page 155 of the "Index by Category/Theme". Next to each program item is the item's ID number - use it to find the item in the main program listing.

Yoga in the Morning

Start the day off with a relaxing class session in beginning yoga - for the early risers among us!

When/Where:

Thursday thru Saturday at 8:30am
Sheraton Hotel, Grand Ballroom

Young Fan Program

Denvention 3 has planned a series of program items, workshops, films, and presentations — including storyteller Bill Mayhew — of interest to our young members.

Important! The difference between children's programming and child care is that children's programming will not have controlled access. That means that children's program items are open to whomever wants to attend, and that anyone attending can enter or exit the session as desired. The people on the panel, doing the workshop, telling the stories, etc. will not be supervising your children, and will not keep them from leaving the room. If your children require supervision, then you should plan to attend children's programming along with them.

To attend children's programming on his or her own, your child will need a child membership and must be wearing a badge.

For a list of this program track, go to "Young Fan" on page 155 of the "Index by Category/Theme". Next to each program item is the item's ID number - use it to find the item in the main program listing.

Exhibits

Exhibit Hall (CCC, Exhibit Hall D)

This section of the convention center takes you down the fannish Memory Lane. There are photographs in the Fan Gallery and the Pro Gallery, as well as the following exhibits representing a diverse selection of skiffy, fannish, scientific, and historical interests:

- 25 Years of Clarion West
- What Happened Before? Denvention 1941 & 1981
- FANAC Fan History Exhibit
- History of Worldcons
- Hugo Award History
- Illustrators & Matte Artists, I.A.T.S.E. Local 790
- "Inspired by..." (Costume Exhibit)
- MileHiCon: 40 Years
- "New Questions for an Old Friend" (NASA)
- Nippon 2007: Worldcon in Japan
- Rotsler Award Exhibit (for long-term achievement in fanzine art)

- Exhibit of Rick Sternbach's Art
- Technology of Reading: From Clay Tablets to e-Books

Exhibit Hall Schedule:

Wed: Noon-7pm Sat: 10am-7pm
Thurs: 10am-10:30pm Sun: 10am-2pm
Fri: 10am-7pm

Fan Tables (CCC, Korbelt Lobby)

Fan tables are an opportunity to meet other fans and introduce them to your convention bid, SF convention, club, or other fannish organization. The Korbelt Ballroom is on your right and half a level down as you walk from the blue bear toward Information, Registration, and the Wells Fargo Theater.

Schedule:

Wed: Noon-6pm Sun. 10am-3pm
Thurs thru Sat: 10am-6pm

Fan Flyer Tables (CCC, Korbelt Lobby)

This is the place for you to put flyers advertising your club, party, bid, etc. These are usually sorted by region.

Fanzine Lounge (CCC Hall D Lobby)

Fanzines have been around since the dawn of time...or at least since the 1930s. And since these fine products of fertile minds have been produced, people have been putting together locations where the producers, the admirers and the friends of said products can sit, chat, read and enjoy each other's company. And so, Denvention is proud to present our Fanzine Lounge. Come and thrill to a selection of zines both recent and from Ye Olden Tymes while sitting and chatting and enjoying good company. You can even help put together a zine that we'll be doing on-site!

Fanzine Lounge Schedule:

Wed: 12 Noon to 6pm
Thurs. thru Sat.: 10am to 6pm
Sun: 10am to 3pm

2010 Worldcon Site Selection (CCC Korbel Lobby)

Sites for future World Science Fiction Conventions are selected through a bidding process. Fan groups from different geographic regions compete for the privilege to host a future Worldcon. These sites are selected two years in advance. This year, the members of Denvention 3 will vote for the location of the 2010 Worldcon.

You must be a supporting or attending member of Denvention 3 to be eligible to vote. Plus, a voting fee is required. However, this voting fee becomes a supporting membership for the winning Worldcon bid. Supporting members may convert to full attending members of the new Worldcon by paying a membership conversion fee. Voting in the Worldcon site selection process is the lowest cost route to buying a Worldcon attending membership. Remember, voting closes on Friday at 6pm!

Special Events

Art Auction

Come to the auction and bid on the gorgeous pieces you've been admiring in the Art Show! Bidding ends on Saturday at 2pm, and the Auction starts at 4:30pm. Below is an explanation of bidding on art, by Bruce M. Miller & Cheryl Sundseth. Going... going... Sold!

How to Buy Art

In order to bid, you must register at the art show and get a bidder number. This mainly consists of us checking that we have your correct contact information.

Your bid, either written or at auction, is an agreement to buy the piece for that price. Bids are final - you don't get to change your mind and take them back.

Pieces in the Print Shop are simply sold for the price marked on them. You can take them with you immediately.

Pieces in the Art Show that have "NFS" on their bid sheets are Not For Sale.

Pieces for sale in the Art Show may have two prices, Minimum Bid and Quick Sale. Pieces with a quick-sale price can be bought outright for that price if no one else has bid on the piece (but we ask you to leave it on display until the auction, so others can see it and envy you). If there is no quick-sale price on the bid sheet, you cannot buy it via quick-sale.

Quick Sale is pre-emptive. A piece with a written bid can no longer be sold by quick-sale. Just as Quick Sale prevents other bids, other bids prevent quick sale. A quick-sale price is usually more than the minimum bid, but may be less than the piece would sell for at the auction. To buy via quick-sale, bring the bid-sheet to the Art Show desk and pay for the piece.

If you'd rather try to pay less than the quick-sale price, or if you cannot buy the piece by quick-sale (no quick-sale price or someone has already bid on it), bidding follows the rules below:

- Your bid, written or voice, is a promise to buy the piece at the bid price. All bids are final. Bids must be whole dollar amounts. Just fill in your badge number, name, and the amount you are offering.

- The first bid on a piece must be at least the minimum bid, but may be more. Each following bid must be a whole dollar amount greater than the previous bid.
- If there are less than 5 written bids on a piece, it goes to the highest bidder at that price. Five or more written bids send a piece to the voice auction. If there are no voice bids at the auction, the piece goes to the highest written bid.
- If you cannot attend the auction but want to bid for a piece, ask the Art Show staff to proxy bid for you. We can also pack work you bought, or even ship it for you (but you pay postage).

Pieces you buy may be picked up after the auction. If you need to pick up your art before this, or cannot pick up your art before the 2:00pm Sunday deadline, please see the Art Show staff.

When/Where:

Saturday from 4:30pm - 7pm
CCC - Korbel 2A

Blood Drive (Sheraton, Tower Court D)

Denvention is honored to host the Robert A. Heinlein Memorial Blood Drive, sponsored by the Heinlein Society. Having a rare blood type himself (AB+), Robert Heinlein was a frequent donor and a supporter of the National Rare Blood Club.

Bonfils Blood Center will be at Worldcon on Friday collecting blood donations. We hope you will take a brief break from your other convention activities and come join us in saving lives (and have some cookies and juice while you're at it). Each donor will receive a cloisonné pin that was designed by Mr. Heinlein for the first Worldcon blood drive in Kansas City as our way of saying, "Thank you for helping."

When/Where:

Friday from 10am - 3:30pm
Sheraton, Tower Court D

Chesley Art Award

Everyone is welcome to the annual Chesley Award presentation. The awards are given out by the Association of Science Fiction & Fantasy Artists, Inc., for works published during the previous year. The award is named after famed artist Chesley Bonestell.

When/Where:

Thursday, 7:30pm
CCC - Korbel 3A

Critter Crunch

Sponsored by the Denver Mad Scientist Club, the Critter Crunch is the longest-running robot fighting contest in the world, featuring the finest in mechanical mayhem - yearly since 1986!

When/Where:

Friday from 2pm-7pm
Sheraton Grand Ballroom

Dowager Duchess of Denver's Ball

Following long-standing fannish tradition, Denvention 3 will host a Regency Ball on Saturday afternoon. Our dance mistress, Susan de Guardiola, will teach several country dances, some waltzes, a quadrille, and few other bits and pieces of period dance. We encourage you to come, whether dressed in your 18th or 19th century best, your hall costume, or t-shirts and jeans.

When/Where:

Saturday from 2:30 to 5:30

When/Where:

Wednesday at 5:30

CCC Korbel 2BC/3BC

Silent Auction

Denvention 3 will offer slightly used equipment and supplies for sale via silent auction. The auctioned items will include PCs, printers, etc. and will be available for pickup Sunday after closing ceremonies. A Silent Auction Notebook with a description of the available items and Bid Sheets will be at a central site at the convention. The Auction closes at 10pm Saturday evening; results will be in the Sunday Newsletter.

Square Dance on Ganymede

Allemande left and do-si-do! Join us for a square dance with live music!

When/Where:

Thursday at 8:30pm

Sheraton Grand Ballroom

Stargate-14 Boot Camp

The Stargate Boot Camp will be held all day Saturday. After the successful completion of the Boot Camp, which includes SG training and a mission, the recruits will graduate and become honorary SG-14 members.

For a complete schedule, see "Stargate-14 Boot Camp" on page 147.

Summerfair!

Join us early Wednesday evening immediately following the Opening Ceremony for an Imperial Summerfair Reception in Vorbarr Sultana! We'll have music, dancing, and more fun things to do. Start the convention in style and meet our special guests, including Lois McMaster Bujold, whose wonderful books provided the inspiration for this event.

Mingle with the galactic elite in your best Betan sarong, Komarran trousers, or your own version of interplanetary chic. Well-behaved off-world mercenary and military members are welcome; please have your legal representative research the laws against dueling. Imp Sec WILL be watching!

When/Where:

Wednesday at approximately 6:15, immediately following opening ceremonies
CCC Korbel 2BC/3BC

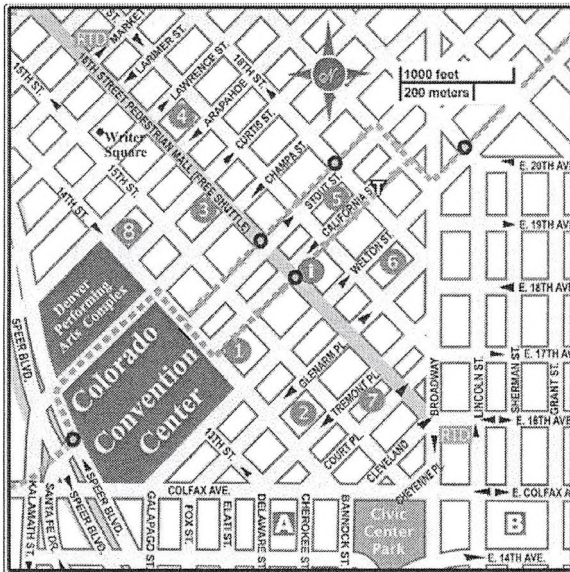

WSFS Business Meeting

All Attending members of Denvention 3 are entitled to attend the Business Meeting and help decide on changes in the rules for the WorldCon site and Hugo Awards selections. See the Souvenir Program Book for the WSFS Constitution, Standing Rules for the Business Meeting, and Business Passed On from last year's WorldCon.

When/Where:

Using the Program Guide

This Quick Reference is designed to give you all the information you need about the events and program items at Denvention.

You should also have daily Program Grids on separate sheets as part of your registration packet. Once you have used the Quick Reference to choose the program items you like, you can mark them on the Program Grid - which is much easier to carry around with you!

The daily program item section of the Quick Reference contains the listings for every program item and event at the con (unless I missed one, of course). This includes events, reading, signings, kaffeeklatsch, etc.

Following the daily program section are separate sections listing the film, anime filking, gaming, reading, signing, and kaffeeklatsch schedules.

We've also included separate sections listing the special program item categories: Young Fan, Rising Stars, Stroll with the Stars, etc.

Using the Index Lists

Each program item starts with an item ID number, title, and location. The program items are listed sequentially by the ID number.

You can use the ID number to locate items in the "Index by Category/Theme" on page 148 (which lists the program by theme) and the "Index by Authors & Experts" on page 156 (which lists the program by participant).

A Note About the Small Text

In order to keep this guide to a reasonable size (smaller than a breadbox) we had to use a small text in the program listings. If the text is too small for you to read comfortably, a limited number of copies in a larger format and type size will be available at the Handicapped Services and Information Desks.

Room Locations

Most of the panels are held in the CCC. Most of the films, filk, and all the gaming are at the Sheraton. Virtually all the readings are at the Hyatt. Below is a summary:

Note:

WEDNESDAY11:30 AM*1 How to enjoy your first convention

CCC - Room 502

What is there to see and do at Worldcon? A new fan's introduction to the convention.

(m) Gay Haldeman, Rusty Hevelin

2 Heinlein - Short Fiction

CCC - Room 503

In the beginning, there were short stories. Some of them were classics. Most of the early works of Robert A Heinlein were published in magazines.

(m) Bonnie Kunzel, David Silver, Graham Sleight, Joseph Major, Pamela Somers

3 Reading Tolkien in the early years

CCC - Room 504

What was it like to read Tolkien's Lord of the Rings trilogy as it came out? Did people actually read Tolkien in hardback, before the Ballantine or even Ace paperbacks? Our panel discusses early Tolkien enthusiasts and the fandom that grew out of their interest in this most famous book of the 20th century.

Bruce Leonard, David Louis Edelman, Ed Meskys, Edward Willett, (m) Jo Walton, Susan Fichtelberg

4 Has the internet destroyed Ham radio?

CCC - Room 505

Ham radio operators are still plentiful and busy - but has their role changed in the internet age?

Henry Stratmann, James Bryant, (m) Kevin Standlee, Lisa Hayes Standlee

5 Giant Monster Movies - where's Mothra when you really need her?

CCC - Room 507

Do you remember Saturday afternoons at the local theatre watching a double feature of Mothra and Godzilla? Or did you first watch these classic movies on TV or even on Netflix? Our panel of movie enthusiasts will discuss the monster classics and tell us about their favorites.

Bob Eggleton, (m) Frank Wu, Joshua Bilmes, Mark Leeper

6 The Electronic Storyteller's Bowl

CCC - Korbel 1C

In previous centuries, storytellers would set out a bowl, start a story — and when their listeners were hooked, they'd stop until someone put money in the bowl. No editors, no publishers, no bookstores, just a storyteller and an audience, and the money depended on keeping the listeners interested. Now a few authors have been trying the same stunt on the web, with surprising results.

Don Sakers, Lawrence Watt-Evans, Phil Foglio, Sharon Lee, (m) Steve Miller

7 How to write a good query letter

CCC - Korbel 1D

Paper or electronic, you still have to do it right. What's needed in that query letter, and what's too much information?

(m) Kristin Nelson, Lizzy Shannon, Michael Carroll

8 Launch Pad: Astronomy for Writers

CCC - Korbel 4AB

Launch Pad is a week-long crash course in modern astronomy for writers founded by Mike Brotherton and held each summer at the University of Wyoming. NASA foots the bill with the goal of increasing the quality and quantity of astronomy reaching the public. Come hear instructors and participants discuss the experience.

David Levine, Deanna Hoak, Mary Robinette Kowal, (m) Michael Brotherton, Samantha Henderson

9 Writers as Readers

CCC - Korbel 4CD

Some SF&F writers are avid readers, starting before they became writers. Some don't read the stuff much.

A discussion of what writers read, why they read, and how it influences what they write — if it does.

Connie Willis, George RR Martin, Lois McMaster Bujold, Louise Marley, (m) Mary Morman

1:00 PM

10 Trends in book collecting: Who's hot, who's not, & what does the future look like?

CCC - Room 502

Don't you wish that you had kept that first edition hardcover of Stranger in a Strange Land in pristine condition instead of taking it with you to the swimming pool? Our panel of book collectors will discuss how to make an educated guess as to what current books are going to be worth more in the future, and what volumes in your library might be worth more than you think.

Bradford Lyau, Mark Olson, Tom Whitmore, (m) William Priester

11 Science Fiction as a Tool for Social Change

CCC - Room 503

How can science fiction change how we look at our society and ourselves? Has this already occurred?

(m) John Barnes, Lancer Kind, Laurel Anne Hill, Randy Smith

12 Artificial Intelligence: Why would sentient computers want to talk to us?

CCC - Room 504

AI has been a major theme in science fiction over the years. But if computers reached a level of sentience, would they really want to have anything to do with their puny little carbon-based creators?

(m) Dan Hoyt, Dani Kollin, Eytan Kollin, Tom Galloway, Warren Hammond

13 What Happened to Novels under 300 pages?

CCC - Room 505

Most of Heinlein's early novels wouldn't even make it to press in the 21st century, and Tolkien's "trilogy" might well have come out as one volume! Why does the modern market demand longer and longer books, and how is this effecting SF storytelling?

(m) Liz Gorinsky, Mark Graham, Milt Stevens

14 Has there ever been a good movie adaptation of an SF book?

CCC - Room 507

From War of the Worlds to the adventures of Harry Potter, some people love the movie adaptations and some hate them. What makes the movement from page to screen worth watching? What literary devices have to be cut or changed for the transition to the silver screen? Are there any really good movie adaptations out there?

Chris Roberson, Craig Miller, (m) Matthew Rotundo

15 Treasure Hunt Orientation

CCC - Korbel 1A

Throughout Denvention, kids will be able to hunt for "treasure" and get rewards at youth programming. They can start their Treasure Hunt on Wednesday at 1:00pm.

Amy Sterling Casil

16 Great Expectations. Panelists read & discuss favorite story openings

CCC - Korbel 1C

What makes an opening good? What should it cover? How long should it be? What does it tell the reader about the rest of the story? Can an opening be a cheat? James Patrick Kelly, James Van Pelt, (m) Steven Silver

17 Schmoozing 101

CCC - Korbel 1D

The art of small talk - it doesn't come naturally to everyone. Pick up some tips on how to introduce yourself, make small talk, and connect with others in both your professional and personal lives.

Ginjer Buchanan, John Scalzi, (m) Mary Robinette Kowal, Michael Kabongo

18 Creating Star Trek: a Rick Sternbach slide show

CCC - Korbel 4AB

A presentation by our Artist Guest of Honor on creating the art of Star Trek.

19 Programmable Matter

CCC - Korbel 4CD

Historically, the properties of matter are determined at the time of manufacture, through careful mixing and processing. But now we find ourselves at the dawn of a new age, where substances exist whose optical, electrical, magnetic and even mechanical properties can be adjusted at the flip of a bit. Ten years after the Programmable Matter concept was first proposed, nanostructured materials with tunable properties are finding their way into early commercial applications.

24 2008: The Year in SF

CCC - Room 502

The year's not over yet, but our panelists already have some striking suggestions about what's best and most interesting in the world of SF for 2008.

Charles Brown, David Hartwell, Jonathan Strahan

25 Timeless Stars: Zenna Henderson

CCC - Room 503

Zenna Henderson's "People" found a place in the minds and hearts of many fans as the Southwestern schoolteacher published her gentle stories year after year in The Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction. Is her legacy still appealing to the modern reader?

Mary Morman, (m) Priscilla Olson

26 Introduction to the WSFS Business Meeting

CCC - Room 504

What is the WSFS business meeting all about? Who can attend and who can vote? What kind of issues does WSFS vote on anyway? Join us for an introduction to recreational parliamentarianism.

(m) Don Eastlake, Kevin Standlee, Pat McMurray

27 Using Real Science in Science Fiction

CCC - Room 505

What exactly is the difference between science fiction and fantasy? If a book has spaceships and ray guns - but no scientific basis for them - is it still SF? Do science fiction authors really need to know hard science?

Bill Higgins, (m) Geoffrey Landis, Stephen Baxter

28 Food & Where to Find it: a walk thru the Denvention Restaurant Guide

CCC - Room 507

Friendly native guides take you through the downtown Denver restaurant scene, and other places of interest.

(m) Melissa Morman, Sheila McClune

29 Wonders of 1958: James Blish's A Case of Conscience and The Triumph of Time

CCC - Korbel 1B

Some call Conscience Blish's finest book. Is it science fiction? Is it a story? Is its best moment when the Pope says "What did you do about it?" In the same year came the last of the four Cities in Flight novels. Is it a success standing alone? How does Time compare to Conscience?

(m) John Hertz

30 What makes a writer?

CCC - Korbel 1C

What are the characteristics of a successful writer? Our panelists discuss whether people are born to be writers, make themselves writers, or have writing thrust upon them.

Craig Miller, Cynthia Felice, David Gerrold, (m) Ken Scholes

31 Libertarian Futurist Society Awards

CCC - Korbel 1D

Presentation of the Prometheus Awards for libertarian science fiction novels, which are given out annually by the Libertarian Futurist Society.

F.C. Moulton, Harry Turtledove, Jo Walton

32 Wizards of the Coast Presentation

CCC - Korbel 4AB

A presentation by Wizards of the Coast, publishers of games based on fantasy and science fiction themes, best known for the Pokémon and Magic: The Gathering card games.

Erin Evans

33 Cover Art in the Internet Age

CCC - Korbel 4CD

"Don't judge a book by its cover." How does this maxim work in the internet age when books are sold online (with small images of the cover) or even more so in e-books.

CCC - Room 502

A retrospective on a writer who shaped science fiction and space opera from the early days of the genre, but whose work is largely unknown to many modern readers.

Ben Yalow, Michael J. Walsh, (m) Tony Lewis42 Building Spaceships

CCC - Room 503

Most spaceships these days seem to be built by Industrial Light and Magic. Who'll build the real ones? Where will they build them, and what will they look like? And, of course, who's going to pay for it?

Frank Wu, (m) Henry Spencer, John Douglass

43 I don't have to know anything, I can just look it up on Google

CCC - Room 504

Memorization, mnemonics, even spelling may be things of the past! 21st century society counts on immediate personal computer access to answer any question we have - from driving directions to Latin declensions. How does this effect our society? Are there hidden pitfalls to trusting everything to the internet?

(m) Dan Hoyt, Genevieve Dazzo, Rosemary Hahn

44 Robert Heinlein's GoH Speech from the 1941 WorldCon

CCC - Room 505

Connie Willis takes us back to the first Denvention in 1941 as she reads Robert Heinlein's Guest of Honor speech from the third World Science Fiction Convention.

45 Kip Russell's Slip Stick - The Slide Rule in life and science fiction

CCC - Room 507

Time was when every serious student of math or science carried a slide rule and performed complex calculations at lightning speed. The panelists will display a variety of fancy slip sticks and explain their use, and the scientific calculations that depended on them before the computer age.

(m) Courtney Willis, Mark Olson

73 About SF Teacher Training Program

Sheraton - 2nd Level, Tower Court C

This one-day workshop focuses on the benefits and background of science fiction, including its literary, cultural, and historical significance, and how attendees can incorporate it in their classes. The day is organized around four questions: "Why should I teach science fiction?", "What science fiction should I teach?", "How do I teach science fiction?", and "What resources are available for teaching science fiction?". Participation in the workshop is available free to all Denvention members on a space available basis.

Nathaniel Williams, James Van Pelt

10:00 AM

74 Writers reading from their juvenilia

CCC - Room 501

Jane Austen began writing at the age of eleven, and kept volumes of her juvenile writing throughout her life. Some science fiction writers began writing at an equally early age, and (with only minor amounts of blackmail) have agreed to let fans have a listen to some of their earliest work.

Connie Willis, (m) Edward Willett, Joshua Palmatier, Sarah Hoyt

75 Does Science Fiction Matter? How does it impact the world & our future?

CCC - Room 502

Is science fiction just an odd escapist habit, or does it really have meaning in defining the future of humankind? Are you embarrassed to be caught reading it, or proud to flash your covers at other subway passengers?

(m) Jeff Fennel, Paul Cornell

76 Reading Heinlein as a Juvenile

CCC - Room 503

The Heinlein juveniles were the first taste of science fiction for many fans. And many young readers went on to read his more involved adult novels while still very young themselves. What was it like for readers to read Heinlein during their formative years, and how did it influence their attitude towards SF?

Elizabeth Moon, Henry Stratmann, (m) Jorge Espinosa, Pati Nagle, Robert Hoyt, Sibylle Hechtel

77 Hadley Rille Books Presentation

CCC - Room 504

Eric T. Reynolds, Lawrence M. Schoen

78 The Future of Mental Health: Defining it & Deciding how to Implement it

CCC - Room 505

Will insanity be allowed in the world of the future? What defines sanity, anyway, and who gets to say what to do about it? Our panel examines the standards of mental health and the positive and negative points of establishing a litmus test for sanity.

Adam Stemple, (m) Helen Montgomery, Steven Barnes, Uncle River

79 Short Fiction: On it's way out or a way to break into the market?

CCC - Room 506

Does anyone read short stories anymore? The increase in original anthology collections, coupled with both the internet and paper magazine market would tend to say yes. But many fans tell us they just don't read short fiction anymore. What's the real story?

(m) David Levine, Ellen Datlow, James Patrick Kelly, Lisa Mantchev, Sheila Williams

80 The responsibility of the artist

CCC - Room 507

Do artists have any responsibility to our culture and society? As fan/speculative artists are we fulfilling that responsibility or are we just self indulgent Bohemians?

(m) Barry Short, Delphyne Woods, Jim Humble, Loren Damewood, Susan Williams

81 Science for non-scientists: Researching hard science

CCC - Room 602

How do non-scientists keep things straight in their novels? How scientifically accurate does science fiction have to be? For those who want to keep on the straight and narrow, our panel will suggest how to do your research.

Charles Walther, Genevieve Dazzo, (m) Gerald Nordley, MM Buckner

82 Clarion West: 25 Years of Fantastic Stories

CCC - Room 604

This summer Clarion West held it's twenty-fifth consecutive workshop. Alumni, students, and instructors return to the oral tradition as they regale us with stories of inspiration, perspiration, and humor at Clarion West. What has the workshop experience meant to them, both as writers and individuals? How has this intensive six-week workshop influenced the field over the last 25 years? Audience participation encouraged!

David Hartwell, Diane Dieter, (m) Leslie Howle

83 Chronological Dissonance: Modern Archetypes & Morals in a Historical Setting

CCC - Korbel 1B

Nothing is more off putting to the reader than a glaring anachronism in a time travel or alternate history setting. But surely this can extend to attitudes and beliefs as well as language, settings, and mechanical devices. How does the author keep his characters from acting like anachronisms themselves?

Haley Elizabeth Garwood, Laura Frankos, Patricia Wrede, (m) Walter Hunt

84 How to Enjoy Your 1st Convention

CCC - Korbel 1C

What is there to see and do at Worldcon? A new fan's introduction to the convention.

(m) Grant Kruger, John Hertz, Jon Singer

85 Rising Stars 101

CCC - Korbel 1D

Don't ask what the con will do for you, ask what you can do for the con! Avoid the dreaded "Wall of Books" on panels. Fan-run SF conventions aren't like your typical commercial media cons. Learn the differences, and how aspiring writers can make themselves welcome and unique guests.

Gay Haldeman, Joe Haldeman

86 WSFS Business Meeting

CCC - Korbel 2A

This is the preliminary WSFS Business meeting, where reports are received and the agenda for the main business meeting(s) is set.

Don Eastlake

87 Hugo Nominee Film: Stardust

CCC - Korbel 2BC/3BC

88 Why didn't SF predict the internet?

CCC - Korbel 3A

Travel to the moon and Mars, starships, time travel, nuclear winter, alien invasion - SF has imagined them all. But the internet? Not so much! Our panel will talk about why this recent but life-changing scientific development didn't make it into the pages of most SF novels, and will laud the few that did foretell the future of the Web.

Ashley Grayson, David Louis Edelman, (m) Warren Hammond, William Priester

89 Ask Dr. Science

CCC - Korbel 4AB

Dr. Science will conduct experiments and explain his specialized, esoteric knowledge in a way that keeps everyone amused.

Courtney Willis

90 The Return to the Moon

CCC - Korbel 4CD

It's been decades since man walked on the moon! Why did our governments stop Lunar exploration, and why hasn't private industry filled in where the Apollo missions left off? Will mankind return to the moon?

Darlene Marshall, (m) Dave Howell, Jetse de Vries, Traci Castleberry

102 An Introduction to F&SF Costuming

CCC - Room 502

Masquerade Balls have been part of the history of science fiction since the earliest conventions and over the years those balls have developed into the current Masquerade costume contest that we know today. Masquerade costumes, hall costumes, Regency dance costumes - this panel will introduce you to a variety of SF costuming options.

Carole Parker, John Barnes, Pierre Pettinger, Roberta Rogow, (m) Sandra Pettinger

103 Fan Funds Past, Present, & Future

CCC - Room 503

A review of TAFF, DUFF, GUFF, and D30 stuff.

Chris Garcia, (m) Guy Lillian, Steve Francis, Sue Francis

104 Science Fiction & Religion: How readers and writers mix the two

CCC - Room 504

Religion and science fiction can be an uneasy mix. Readers can sometimes read the story through their own preconceptions - how does the writer handle this? Can you successfully make religion the foundation of a story?

(m) Alexis Glynn Latner, Daryl Gregory, Janice Gelb, Samantha Henderson

105 Creating a Mythos

CCC - Room 505

What we can learn from Cthulhu, Buffy, Minneapolis in '73, and other imaginary worlds. The panelists and audience will use what they discover to create a new Mythos.

Elaine Isaak, Julia Phillips, LE Modesitt

106 The Agent Behind the Curtain: Making Famous Authors

CCC - Room 506

Writers create the stories, but agents bring them to fruition with a publisher. Our panel of agents discuss what they look for, how they get things published, and tell stories of both success and failure.

Eleanor Wood, (m) Joshua Bilmes, Kristin Nelson,
Lucienne Diver, Michael Kabongo

107 The world in miniature: F&SF model building

CCC - Room 507

Part of the magic that let's us display science fiction on the screen is the model building that makes miniature towns, spaceships, and battlefields come alive. How does it work, and who's making it happen?

(m) Christian McGuire, John Douglass, Rick Sternbach

108 Into the Mouths of Characters: Food as a Basis for World Building

CCC - Room 602

What goes into creating believable dining and nutrition? How that influences the behavior of characters and the development of plot?

111 Depicting Christianity in F&SF

CCC - Korbel 1B

Without knocking the reader over the head with Christian allegory as C. S. Lewis did in his Narnia tales, many F&SF writers successfully draw from Christian archetypes to add depth and vision to their work. Is this becoming more difficult in an increasingly secular world?

Ben Jeapes, (m) Randy Smith, Ronald Oakes

112 Books that Haven't Yet Been Made into Films but Might Be

CCC - Korbel 1C

A favorite pastime on many fan listservs is to "cast" characters from an author's books and discuss techniques for turning favorite writings into film. Our panel explores what we might see on the silver screen in the next generation.

Christopher Becker, (m) Daniel Kimmel, David Gerrold

113 Good Data: Difficult, Dangerous, & Expensive

CCC - Korbel 1D

Richard Dutcher, (m) Tom Whitmore, William Priester

114 History & Alternate History

CCC - Korbel 3A

Some authors write about the way things really happened, and others write about how they might have happened differently. At times, it can be hard to differentiate between the two! How much historical training do authors need to believably change the web of events?

Harry Turtledove, John Maddox Roberts, (m) John Strickland, Steven Silver, Walter Hunt

115 Global Warming - or Maybe Not?

CCC - Korbel 4AB

What is global warming - a scientific fact or a political scam? And if the world is getting warmer, what can we expect to happen? Our panel discusses the science behind the issues.

Courtney Willis, James Killius, (m) Michael Brotherton

116 Trends in new SF: Where are we going and why?

131 The Limits of Empire: How big can a galactic empire really be?

CCC - Room 503

Even if you posit FTL transportation, you still have problems of scale in running a galactic empire. Who's going to write the rules and run the bureaucracy? And what happens when it comes to enforcement? Our panel will posit "How big is too big?"

Jacqueline Lichtenberg, (m) Mary Kay Kare, Mike Resnick

132 SLOF: We Know What You Read

CCC - Room 504

Librarians often know what books their readers enjoy. A feel for what's popular helps in allocating decreasing library budgets. But now government agencies also want in on who's reading what books - and can request that information without court order. What are libraries and librarians doing to support privacy, and what price are they paying not to reveal readers' records?

Bonnie Kunzel, (m) Diana Herald, Misty Massey, Rosemary Hahn

133 What makes SF work? Characters, Society, or Technology

CCC - Room 505

Panelists talk about the primary elements of a SF story, and try to decide which are most important to our genre. What makes SF different from other stories? Does it have to include social or technical speculation to be SF?

J. Alan Erwine, Ken Scholes, Larry Niven, (m) Shanna Swendsen

10:00 AM262 History of Cataloging, from Alexandria to WebCat

CCC - Room 501

It's not enough for libraries to HAVE the books, they have to know what they have and how to find it. This presentation takes a look at how librarians through the ages have solved those problems, and what inventive methods librarians of the future may use.

(m) Fred Lerner, Helen Gbala, Rosemary Hahn

263 SF fans who write in other genres

CCC - Room 502

Why would someone who grew up reading Cherryh and Niven and LeGuin decide to make a living writing romance or westerns or detective novels? Authors who were fans before they were writers tell about the lure of crossover fiction.

Christine Merrill, (m) Darlene Marshall, Kat Richardson, Nancy Atherton, Susan Krinard

264 SF as a forum for questioning social norms

CCC - Room 503

As a part of society, we tend to take it at face value, like a fish in water. But science fiction helps us step outside and take a look from a new perspective. Look at how it has been and could be done -- and what can and should be done with the results...

David Coe, Ian McDonald, (m) James Morrow Nancy Kress, Pat Cadigan, Robert Reed

265 Heroes with Disabilities

CCC - Room 504

Do readers invest themselves more in characters who deal with disabilities? Is it easier to identify with human weakness and foibles than with mighty-thewed barbarians? Must the hero's disabling weakness be a physical one?

Ed Meskys, (m) Lee Martindale, Margaret Bonham, Margaret McBride

266 Traveling for the Long Term: Generation Ships

CCC - Room 505

Without FTL drives, a trip to even the nearest stars might be a matter of generations. Should mankind attempt to colonize the planets of other star systems? Who would take the voyage, and what would it be like to live on a generation ship?

Frank Wu, (m) Howard Hendrix, James Killius, Stephen Baxter

267 The Use of Horses in Fantasy and SF: Doing it Right

CCC - Room 506

The horse plays a major role in fantasy. How realistic do you want your particular horse to be, or how fantastic? What true details of horse-craft can make your story more believable? What mistakes should you avoid?

Beth Meacham, Karen Miller, (m) PC Hodgell, Tanya Huff

268 SF Magazine publication & market share

Carol Hightshoe, Eric Flint, Graham Sleight, Jed Hartman, (m) Melanie Fletcher

401 Win Tom Whitmore's Books

CCC - Room 502

You've watched "Win Ben Stein's Money" now participate in that thrilling fannish game show "Win Tom Whitmore's Books"!

(m) Tom Galloway, Tom Whitmore

402 Do younger fans still read Heinlein? Are the juveniles dated?

CCC - Room 503

Many people feel that Heinlein's young adult novels (many written for Boy's Life) are his best works. But 50 or more years after they were written, has 21st century technology passed these stories by? Or are they still as interesting to young people today as they were when they were first published?

Bill Patterson, Eleanor Wood, Geo Rule, (m) Herb Gilliland, Sarah Hoyt

403 The snake that swallowed his tail: Plotting Time Travel novels

CCC - Room 504

How knowing your history can keep you from getting caught in a time warp - or wiping out civilization as we know it.

Connie Willis, Dani Kollin, Eytan Kollin, (m) Jana Oliver, SM Stirling

404 No swords, no horses: Fantasy without the Usual Tropes

CCC - Room 505

Fantasy used to mean castles and horses and swashbuckling sword fights. No more! Many modern fantasy authors are combining fantasy elements with modern society full of cars, computers, and convenience stores.

Glen Cook, Liz Scheier, Michael Swanwick, Patrick Rothfuss

405 After the day job goes: writing full time to pay the mortgage

Recursively Romanticizing the Renaissance

(m) Cat Rambo, Ed Meskys, Linda Robinett

410 Privacy: what is it, should we have it, do we deserve it?

CCC - Korbel 1C

Is it fair to say that the only privacy left is the anonymity of numbers? Those in charge can look at anything, but there's not enough time in the day to look at everything. Why have we given up our privacy, and what have we gained in return? Is there any way to go back, and would we want to?

Brad Templeton, David Brin, (m) Ian McDonald, Laura Majerus, Mary Turzillo

411 Dealing with publishers, Large and Small

CCC - Korbel 1D

Is it easier for authors to work with a large publisher or a small one? How to improve your relationship and maximize your results with either.

Podcasting, the distribution of music and other programming over the Internet, has been growing in leaps and bounds. Balticon posted podcasts of their GoH Speech, there is a Harry Potter podcast with news and interviews, and there are thousands of podcast music channels for hundreds of music genres (even filk and SCA music!) It is a new frontier with its own unique pleasures and pitfalls -- but can it pay your mortgage?

525 Bookbinding Workshop (3hours)

CCC - Room 507

The first half hour of this 3 hour item will be a brief discourse about the art of making books to which all are welcome. The workshop (limited to 20 people, sign up at Information in Lobby D) will then begin. Discover the joy of making your own book with this hands-on workshop. You will sew pages, make the cover, and case the book block into it's cover. Your completed binding will be a usable and treasured keepsake! All materials will be provided. The workshop will be lead by Nancy Missbach, proprietress of Tangerine Book Arts.

Nancy Missbach

526 The Bad Guy in the White Hat: Changing Images of Heroes and Villains

CCC - Room 602

Sometimes it's hard to tell the hero from the villain in new SF stories. Sometimes the hero is a villain. Panelists discuss how we view the characters in stories and how that is different from earlier, perhaps simpler, times.

(m) James Morrow, John Moore, Mario Acevedo, Rob Gates

527 Getting to the Top: Mountains in Fact and Fiction

CCC - Room 604

In science fiction mountains can represent barriers, challenges, refuge, or even devices for catapulting ships into space. Our panel of writers and climbers discuss the realities as well as the myths.

648 Mini Black Holes and the Politics of Fear

CCC - Korbel 4CD

Some people are apparently pushing the notion that the Large Hadron Collider at CERN in Europe could create a nano black hole, which the alarmists posit might escape and start eating the Earth. Physics rejects this notion for a variety of reasons, but the fear propaganda put out offers an opportunity to comment on claims of "Frankenscience," unintended consequences, the politics of fear, and how it plays into fiction, whether there's a basis for it or not.

David Friedman, (m) Gerald Nordley, Jared Dashoff

649 Crime and Detection in the world to come

CCC - Korbel 4E

Modern forensic science has given us a wide variety of ways to identify criminals. Will the next century bring even more methods, devices, and pharmacology? Will the detective give way to the scientist? Will any vestige of privacy remain?

654 Holy Holographic eBooks! Ideas for next gen reading technologies

CCC - Room 501

What will the eBook reader of the future look like? Will it be built into your cell phone, your home or your head? Will it be dependent on lighting conditions or will book readers tell you the story?

Dani Kollin, Eytan Kollin, (m) James Bryant, Robert J. Sawyer

655 The Coming Thing - what's next and newest in SF

CCC - Room 502

Panelists discuss what is next up in the SF pipeline. What new crazy ideas and approaches should we be looking for? What's going to be popular next year, and after that?

Charles Stross, (m) Daniel Abraham, Lou Anders

656 Heinlein - The Hugo Years

CCC - Room 503

During the decade between 1956 and 1967, Heinlein won four Hugo awards for best novel. This pinnacle came in the middle of his career. Some people say this is his best work while others prefer his earlier or later work.

Bill Patterson, Bradford Lyau, (m) Robert Buettner, Tom Trumpinski, Toni Weisskopf

657 Uplift: What are we doing now, what does the future hold?

CCC - Room 504

Would you agree that humans are the only sentient race on earth? Good question! Our panel will discuss sentience, uplift, and the obligations that go along with being a primary planetary species.

(m) Brad Templeton, David Boop, David Brin, Judy Lazar, Ronnie Seagren

658 Gripe Session - Sunday

CCC - Room 505

Not pleased with something that happened at the con? Have a suggestion for a better way to run things? Come to the gripe session and air your views. Constructive comments appreciated.

(m) Jack Heneghan, Kent Bloom, Rene Walling, Robbie Bourget

659 Writers Married to Each Other

CCC - Room 506

Well, lots of writers are married, but what happens when two writers are married to each other? Do they write in tandem or separately, and who fixes the meals and does the dishes?

Alan Lickiss, Kevin Anderson, (m) Rebecca Lickiss, Rebecca Moesta, Sharon Lee, Steve Miller

660 Producing a 'zine on Mimeo: a workshop and demo

CCC - Room 507

Cheryl Morgan and Colin Hinz will be demonstrating how to use a mimeograph along with assorted tools such as mimeo scopes and techniques such as illo tracing. In addition, there will be variety of papers from Fibertone gold to inkjet white to compare production results on. As a special bonus, the panel will be putting together a one-shot zine with contributions from well-known fanzine fen to give out to the audience.

Cheryl Morgan, Colin Hinz

661 Wonders of 1958: Robert Heinlein's Methuselah's Children

CCC - Room 602

By painting portraits Heinlein repeatedly asks the next question. What if your life span was two hundred years? What if you didn't care? If you are hunted, should you run? Where should you go? Here too is the first and perhaps best of Lazarus Long. Extra credit: compare the carefully rewritten 1941 version in the July-September Astounding.

(m) John Hertz

662 Ian and Betty Ballantine

CCC - Room 604

Ian and Betty Ballantine were pioneering American publishers who founded and published the innovative paperback line of Ballantine Books, one of the earliest publishers of original SF books. Ballantine published Arthur C. Clarke and Frederik Pohl in the '50s, Anne McCaffrey and Larry Niven in the '60s, the first "authorized" edition of J.R.R. Tolkien's works, and the Adult Fantasy line of classics in the '70s, among many others. Ian & Betty Ballantine won two World Fantasy Awards and Betty received a special SFWA President's Award in 2002. Listen to our panel discuss this remarkable couple and their achievements!

Beth Meacham, David Hartwell, Tom Whitmore

663 The Law Of The Future Is Not What It Used To Be

CCC - Korbel 1B

Law has progressed over the last 150 years. Lawmakers claimed to be less tolerant of torture or slavery, civil rights had been enlarged, creative artists had real copyright in their work; are we still progressing?

Gary Feldbaum, John Pomeranz, (m) Ken Smookler, Laura Majerus, Raymond Cyrus

664 The possibilities of time travel - physics, not fiction

CCC - Korbel 1C

Time travel and alternate history novels are some of the hottest items on the market, but are they mere fantasy? Is time travel possible, and if so, how might we manage it? Our panel of scientists will discuss the physics of time travel.

David Friedman, Jeff Carlson, (m) Todd Brun

665 How Writers Fit into the Publishing Business

CCC - Korbel 1D

Writers are a necessity for publishing (we're pretty sure), but how do they fit into the structure and processes of the publishing industry? Or should they make the rules and let publishing woo them?

(m) Dean Wesley Smith, Kristine Kathryn Rusch

666 The Many Faces of Robert Asprin

CCC - Korbel 2A

Robert Asprin was an author, filker, storyteller, early SCA member, Dorsai Irregular, and many other personas. His recent death was a shock to many of us. We will remember him, and celebrate his life and contributions.

670 The Epic Journey: Life vs. Fiction

CCC - Korbel 4E

Both F&SF often feature "the journey" or "the journey-quest" as the armature of the novel. But how do those fictionalized journeys compare to real travel - either by modern conveyance or by foot? These panelists have all made major journeys and can comment on the details and dilemmas that writers often miss.

Filking

Besides the concerts, workshops, etc., you will see Filk Theme Circles on the schedule. Filk Theme Circles have designated performers who will sing several rounds of songs on the title topic. They will then invite others in the circle to share their songs on that topic. The circles are scheduled for 90 minutes, but if it is the last one of the evening it will morph into open filk.

There will be two types of open filk:

- Chaos: filkers sing in random order, usually following a theme, making sure that everyone gets a turn to sing who wants one.
- Bardic: filkers play, pick or pass in order around the circle or using variations such as poker chip bardic or buckyball bardic. Come to Filk 101 for further details.

Discrete personal recording will be allowed at filk programming unless a filker specifically requests not to be recorded. Discrete means that no one is likely to trip over your equipment and that you are quiet during concerts.

Stargate-14 Boot Camp

The Denver-based Stargate Team – SG-14 – invites you to participate in the Stargate Boot Camp during Denvention 3. The Team Specialists will teach everything you always wanted to know about Stargate, but were afraid to ask... we are experts in our fields. We are looking for fearless explorers, with a taste for adventure and ready to discover new cultures and civilizations. All we ask is an open mind and a steady arm.

Saturday Morning – 1000 to 1130 hours

Recruits will attend six intensive but fun training sessions, full of props, costumes, wacky characters, interesting information, & visual aids.

Saturday Afternoon – 1300 to 1630 hours

Recruits will be sent on a mission (a scavenger hunt) to test their knowledge and courage, and put into practice everything they have learned.

An award ceremony will reward those who excelled. The best teams will get special Stargate Boot Camp merchandise prices. Everyone who finishes the training & mission will be recognized.
