

DENVER 2008

The word 'DENVER' is written in large, bold, black letters. A gnome with a beard and a pointed hat is peeking out from behind the letter 'V'. Below 'DENVER', the year '2008' is written in the same large, bold, black font. On the left side, two gnomes are standing; one is holding the other up. On the right side, a gnome is peeking out from behind the letter '8'.

A bid to bring the 66th World Science Fiction Convention to Colorado
August 6th through August 10th, 2008

What is WorldCon? The World Science Fiction Convention is a huge gathering of fans who enjoy the many aspects of science fiction and fantasy: Literature, media, art, gaming, dealers, costuming, the Hugo awards, a chance to meet authors, artists, publishers, actors; and much more. The convention is held annually in cities around the world.

Why Denver? Located at the base of the Rocky Mountains, Denver is one of the most beautiful cities in America. It combines a love of the outdoors, with the sophistication and culture of a large city. The newly expanded Colorado Convention Center in the heart of downtown provides over 580,000 square feet of contiguous exhibit space, 100,000 square feet of conference rooms, plus additional large ballrooms and a 5,000 person lecture hall. There are over 5,300 hotel rooms within walking distance of the convention center, and an additional 1,100 rooms will be available at the headquarters hotel opening in the coming year.

Committee: President: Kent Bloom, Treasurer: Brian Morman, Secretary: Mary Morman, Jack Heneghan, Terry Adams, Karen Jordan, Keith McClune, Sheila McClune, Robin Monogue, Ted Monogue, Melissa Morman, and others. Competent, fiscally responsible, and outwardly focused.
