

MEALS WITH AUTHORS

Although Denvention II will not have a banquet, we will have at least two meal functions during the convention. At each of these meals, there will be an author seated at every table. In addition to the meals listed below, we are working on a less expensive option which, if it can be arranged, will be announced in Progress Report #5.

OPTION 1: Friday morning breakfast in the Hilton. Menu: Juice, scrambled eggs, sausage, roll and beverage.
$10.00.

OPTION 2: Saturday night dinner at the Buckhorn Exchange Restaurant.
Menu: Bean soup, baked potato, coffee, tea or milk and choice of one of the following:
A. 8oz. Tenderloin Steak
B. Trout
C. Game Plate with Quail and Buffalo
$20.00.

If you would like to attend either or both of these meals, please fill out the following form and enclose a check or money order for the cost of the meal. Your reservation will not be held if a deposit for the full price is not received. A very limited number of seat will be available for these meals, so please make your reservation early.
