Deadline

All ballots must be received prior to Friday March 17 2018, 11:59 PM PDT. Please mail as early as possible to ensure that your ballot will be counted. Paper ballots should be mailed to:

Retro Hugo Nominations c/o Dave McCarty
2020 N California Ave, Suite 299
Chicago, IL 60647, USA.

Taping the ballot shut is permissible in USA domestic mail; however we recommend mailing your ballot in an envelope. Ballots mailed outside the USA must be in an envelope.

How to Nominate by Mail or Online

Please fill in the eligibility section on the previous page. Do not forget to sign the ballot – we will not count unsigned ballots.

- You may nominate up to five persons or works in each category. However, you are permitted (and even encouraged) to make fewer nominations or none at all if you are not familiar with the works that fall into that category. The nominations are equally weighted: the order in which you list them has no effect on the outcome.
- “No Award” will appear automatically in every single category on the final ballot – there is no need to include that choice on the nomination form.
- If your nominee is not well known, please provide a source where his or her 1942 work in that category may be found. This information makes identifying the work you intend to nominate easier for us.
- Please type or print clearly. We cannot count illegible ballots.
- Please note that items may be relocated to a different category by the Hugo Awards Administrator if they are within 20% of the category boundary (such as in the case of the written fiction and dramatic presentation categories).
- Online nominations will be available via the Worldcon 76 website: www.worldcon76.org

. You will need your membership number and PIN, which is printed on your mailing label, to nominate via the web. You may email hugopin@worldcon76.org to request a PIN.

The final Retro Hugo Ballot containing the nominees in each category that received the most nominations will be distributed by Worldcon 76 in April 2018. Only members of Worldcon 76 (including those who join after December 31, 2017) will be eligible to vote on the final ballot. If you have questions, please email hugoadmin@worldcon76.org.

Eligibility

Works published in 1942 for the first time anywhere or for the first time in English are eligible for the 1943 Retro Hugo Awards being awarded.

Books are considered to have been published on the publication date, which usually appears with the copyright information on the back of the title page. If there is no stated publication date, the copyright date will be used instead. A dated periodical is considered to have been published on the cover date, regardless of when it was placed on sale or copyrighted. Serialized stories or dramatic presentations are eligible in the year in which the last instalment appears.

Extended Eligibility for non-US published works: per section 3.4.2 of the WSFS Constitution, works originally published outside the United States prior to 1942 but first published in the United States in 1942 are eligible for the 1943 Hugo Awards unless they have already appeared on a Hugo Award final ballot.

Other eligibility rules are included with the specific categories. The full rules for the Hugo Awards are contained in the WSFS constitution available at www.wsfs.org/rules-of-the-world-science-fiction-society/.

Exclusions

The Worldcon 76 Committee has irrevocably delegated all Hugo administration authority to a subcommittee. Therefore, only Dave McCarty, Deb Geisler, John Pomeranz, Kevin Standlee, and Kevin Roche are ineligible for the 2018 Hugo Awards.

Reproduction

Reproduction and distribution of this ballot is permitted and encouraged, provided that it is reproduced verbatim (including voting instructions), with no additional material other than the name of the person or publication responsible for the reproduction.
