

Dear People,

I know form letters are a drag, but...

Enclosed is your reservation receipt for attendance at the IguanaCon Banquet and Harlan Ellison Roast. Hang on to it! Your ticket(s) will be with your registration packet at the convention. You will need to present your receipt at the time.

Groups--I need name lists two weeks before the convention, so please send in your lists by August 9 to allow for snail mail delivery. For this I pay taxes?

There are also a couple of menu changes ~~made~~. The first one is due to the chef's complexion problem. He turned pale at the thought of trying to serve edible veal scallopine "Marsala" to a thousand peopel. So, to accomodate him, and feed you well, the entree has been changed to Veal Cordon Bleu. And to a certain chairman's lack of knowledge about fine food, the eggplant parmesan was unfortunately listed in the Last Progress report as "egg parmesan." Sorry about that veggie lovers.

If you are not happy with the change in menu, or fear a reoccurrence of "fried Tribble," let us know, and we will refund your money.

Thanks for your reservation, see you there, and...enjoy.
