The L.A.con IV Cross-Worlds Puzzle

There is a saying that all knowledge is contained in fandom. This crossword puzzle covers a wide range of areas. Primarily the clues and answers are science fiction and fantasy oriented, but anything goes...so don't be afraid to ask a fellow attendee if they know an answer! Anime fans know stuff that readerfen do not; media fans don't always play video games; not all artists are scientists. So if you see someone fiddling with this, say, "Hello!" and share what you know!

There's always a prize... This time the prize is a slick cloisonné pin with a smart-looking Latin phrase. This is proof that you are a Trivia Master and that you Got Connections To People Who Know Things.

GOOD LUCK!
