THIRSTY? THEN BENARE!

Want liquor during Sat, Sunday & Monday? Then read this important info: Many fans are already acquainted with the fact that there are certain restrictions to selling liquor in the Phila. area. So we will attempt to give you the facts in case you're confused.

Liquor stores in the hotel area will be open until 9 p.m. on Saturday evening. They will then be closed for the duration of the Con. Liquor stores that are on the outskirts of the hotel area close at 7. If you wish to go to a tavern you will have to get there before 12 p.m. Saturday as there is a curfew at that time. Bars will re-open at 7. Monday morning. If you are in dire straits in regard to liquor on Sunday the Hotel will gladly furnish you with as many bottles as you debottle than the state liquor store's retail price. On Monday the fan can get his liquor at the normal price in . Camden, N.J. by taking any bus at Market St. to the aforementioned city, and getting off at the first stop after crossing the bridge. Coming back the fan should be a bit careful in showing . bottles, because of a law against transporting liquor from one state to another. It is not requested that he buy a whole case because it.'s. a little difficult to hide in his vest pocket or her garter, as the "case" may be. And
