SEACON '79 BANQUET DETAILS

Tickets for the Banquet will cost £10.00, plus Value Added Tax. (Currently this is 8%, making the tickets £10.80, but there is a possibility that it may be raised to 10% or even 12½%, making the tickets £11.00 or £11.25.)

Do not send any money with your form.

When you return the form below, tickets will be reserved for you on a first-come first-served basis. You must collect and pay for the ticket at the convention, by 1 pm on Saturday 25 August. If your reservation form arrives after the available tickets have all been reserved your name will be put on a waiting list, and any tickets not collected by 1 pm on the Saturday will be made available to those on the waiting list.

The seating will be arranged in the form of a top table with sprigs. A seating plan will be posted at which you will be able to reserve your places. To try to eliminate double-booking, we will ask you to write your banquet ticket number on the plan with your name; otherwise your place reservation will not be valid.

Wines may be ordered on a cash basis up to 7.00 pm on Sunday. The hotel are preparing a list of recommended wines which you will receive with your ticket, though you will also be able to choose other wines.

Special dietetic and other requirements should be indicated on a separate sheet.

No acknowledgement of receipt of your reservation will be sent unless specifically requested.

Retain the top half of this form for future reference. Detach at the dotted line and return the bottom half with details to:
