No. 1

ISSUE 1/2
SATURDAY JUNE 1 1991

I'm sorry to disappoint you all but this is not the real Nigel Rowe. Last night back at the laboratory we decided to give the public more of what they've been clamouring for, Nigel Rowe clones (pull the attached string for a delightful medley of farmyard impressions). Suffice to say all orders will be shipped in plain brown wrappers.

However, back in the real world FERRYCON is proceeding apace and we hope you are all enjoying yourselves. The couple in the room next to ours certainly are...! Sorry this edition is late, usual excuses, blah, blah, blah. Suffice to say it won't happen again, and if anyone knows of someone looking for a full-time position as a journalist then send them this way.

All news, party reports, con reports, gossip, innuendo, slander, and blatant lies will be gratefully accepted at the DAY office (room 88), as will updates to the next edition of 'WHO'S SLEEPING WITH WHOM IN NEW ZEALAND FANDOM'. This of course, replaces our earlier blockbuster 'WHO'S SLEPT WITH WHOM IN DUNEDIN FANDOM'. Although we've run out of room to further document the Tom Cardy connections.

- Nigel 'send in the clones' Rowe

ALAN STEWART - THIS WAS YOUR LIFE
(1991 FFANZ WINNER)

Despite reading SF for years, I only discovered fandom in 1985, and in the same year attended my first con - AUSSIECON II. I also joined the Melbourne SF club, then meeting above SPACE AGE BOOKS, and subsequently became secretary; a post I've held for the past four years.

Currently I am editor of ETHEL THE AARDVARK, the Ditmar award-winning MSFC clubzine, in addition to publishing YTTERRBIUM to ANZAPA. I have attended at least three cons a year since AUSSIECON, and helped organise CONJUNCTION '89 and DANSE MACABRE.

Basically I consider myself a general SF fan who reads books and fanzines, as well as watching any SF/horror TV shows or films.

After FORRYCON I will be travelling to Christchurch and Dunedin to meet up with other NZ fen, as part of my FFANZ trip. Thanks to all those who supported the last race (whether you voted for me or not).

FFANZ NOMINATIONS DUE BY MONDAY.

The Fan Fund of Australia and New Zealand (FFANZ) has existed since 1982 with the aim of encouraging fannish links between New Zealand and Australia by "assisting" Fan Fund race winners, to attend Natcons and various fannish activities in their neighbouring country.

FFANZ relies upon the generosity and goodwill of fans who are prepared to donate items for auctions, vote in the races and just spread the news about its activities.

Nominations are now open for the 1991 race - to select a New Zealand fan to travel to Australia next year. Have a chat to the current administrators - Alan Stewart (Australia) and Nigel Rowe (temporary NZ liaison); you'll see us around the con.

Alan Stewart, P.O. Box 222, World Trade Centre
Melbourne 3005. AUSTRALIA

Nigel Rowe, P.O. Box 27-432, Wellington.

FFANZ AUCTION

Sunday morning at 11a.m. Gothic room. Cash and checks only, NOTE: this will be run as a pay-as-you-go auction.

PARTY UPDATE. PARTY UPDATE. PARTY UPDATE. PARTY UPDATE.

Ragiest party on Friday night had to be in a room in the high eighties. Suffice it to say, someone whose name ends in X, won't be able to look a chocolate fish in the tail again. While over in the east wing a couple of innocent cucumbers won't be making it to the deli counter. So far the pool has been relatively unmolested, though apparently there's plans to make some waves tonite.

WHAT ARE THOSE STAINS ON THE CARPET (AND UP THE WALL, AND ON THE CEILING?)?

WHY WAS KERRIN JONES
SMILING THIS MORNING?

ISSUE 2
SUNDAY JUNE 2, 1991

Well hello out there all you young things. I'm Lutetia Lemming and this is HOT GOSS. If you think things have been quiet, then you are wrong, just listen to the loose lips of Lady Lemming.

Old, but still surprising to many of us is the relationship between Keith 'Secret Sheep' Smith and Jacqui Dunford (the amazing changing woman). Jacqui (con number 135) seems to have found her number 1 - Keith. Before the con I had assumed that teddy bears didn't do it, but now, well, you may have seen "Meet the Feebles"!

Alex Heatley (Married with children) seems to have swapped MACmaking for matchmaking. I hear that he is trying to create at least 2 situations of bigamy, teaming up Alan Robson with Roberta Litten. And what about the other half of each couple? I can't say about Alan's, but there are rumours of an untimely demise for Stephen Litten. But wait, late breaking news! Roberta may already have found a tie breaker. Last night, in a room in the high 70's she was found having a "private" party with an unnamed Lemming. This licentious couple were caught red handed gobbling chocolate in rather subdued lighting. Stephen had no comment.

And then there was Amanda. Nuff said.

Entries are still open for "Buns of the con". Nominees so far include: Thorin Roelants in his form fitting, body hugging Trek uniform. One of the Hotels management in Peter Hassles rubber suit. Tim Jones in his sexy sportswear, and Craig Mabon, winner of last night's wet T-shirt competition, also winner of the wet Y-front competition. Tell me, was the pool cold Craig, or are you normally that size?

Jruan Studd, sorry, Struan Judd, seems to have an urge to show us it all. Maybe we were lucky he held back at the last minute.

A big thank you to Lee Cross and Keith for the demonstration of mouth to mouth tonsillectomy. we really did enjoy it.

And then there was Amanda. More than enough said.

Here's a privacy tip for you all. If you want to have a passionate and intimate fondling session without being caught, don't do it in the Dominion Monarch room. OK Mary?

Understated quote of the day. Amanda: "I'm easy!"

Interesting quote of the day. Cath Clarke: "Bring a movie, bring some alcohol, I'll supply the food, then we'll do it!" Just what was she talking about Karen?

Speaking of Karen and her erstwhile husband Gordon. She should control the man better. Gordon was seen flaunting his nipples to all, then encouraging Gaynor to have a sexual encounter with his cummerbund! Inside out or outside in?

And another thing Karen, was it really a fair swap? A flash for a splash. It really was cold last night you know. Almost cold enough to freeze the balls off a Brazen Mabon.

Oh, Amanda? I hear she wants to change her name to escape from the malicious rumours. I have my doubts about the new name however. Takema Takema Smith. Gives it away somewhat!

Room 66. The middle of the night. Just what were Maree Sole and Harry Musgrove doing, rolling around on the floor? I dare not speculate.

Question: Why do they put couches in the foyers of hotels?

Answer: So Lemmings have a place to molest young, pissed women.

Now I thought the Lemming had eaten his fill at dinner, but I guess he hadn't - he was still gobbling away at 2:00 am. and, not giving anything away of course, but Gaynor and Pauline were very quiet last night. Could it be because you can't talk with your mouth full?

Another Question: What is the name of this Con! Forrycon, Furrycon .... or Fornicon!!

Find your own answer to that one.

Until next time, bye bye. And remember, Ms Lemming is watching!

MR MOON COMES TO TOWN

Mr Moon entertained convention attendees after the banquet. Your raoving reporter climbed over recumbent bodies in a room party at 3.25am. this morning and asked "what did you find memorable about Mr Moon's juggling this evening?":

"I was disappointed when I looked at my hands and found I had no ice pick in them."

"Judge Fish was innovative and I, Leon Trotsky, felt uncomfortable at certain aspects of the performance."

"James 'Deep Throat' Benson was incredibly brave to (almost) swallow fire. And he fitted the job description - big mouth, no brain."

"Excellent fluorescent show"

I liked the one-liner response to 'little boys shouldn't play with fire' - "that's why I'm doing it, not you."

"I got a free dessert."

"He took good sensible safety precautions."

"He juggled the ice axes really well."

"That man can shower and cascade so well - competent and entertaining."

And Tim Jones said, "I was quite comfortable with him on the floor, but not so comfortable when he was balanced on the trunk."

Thank you Mr Moon for a breathtaking performance, and to Peter Hassall for organising it.

AUCTION UPDATE no.314 (in a continuing series)

Grand total of all items sold was $7100 (335 lots). Highest selling items were the Kirk/Spock action figures at $185 (unmounted position). Also, the Star Wars Light Sabre turned out to be an electric toothbrush. Sorry about that chief.

If you haven't already done so, please come to room 88 and arrange to collect and pay for any purchases, unsold items, etc.

A big thank you to the following people who helped out with various parts of the auction - easily the biggest of any NZ SF Convention: Kerrin Jones, David Tulloch, Roger Nicholls, Richard Fields, Stephen Ede, Tim Jones, Murray MacLachlan, and an extra special thanks to Alan Stewart without whom none of the auction would have been possible. Thanks guys.

MASQUERADE WINNERS:

for MOST SUBTLE COSTUME: Brundfly (Peter Dodwell)

DEAD DOG PARTY A PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

The following is a statement from Gordon Heatt, who was to have given the talk on Four-Dimensional Frogs, Monday. For those awaiting a talk on temporal anomalies, Peter Hassall and I regret being unable to bring this to you as a formal convention programming item.

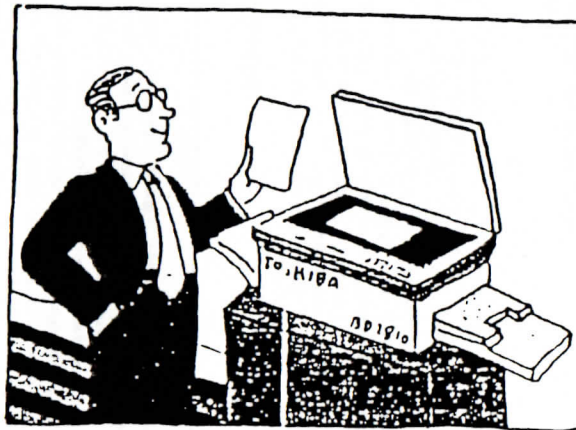

However, if you want to mull over the subject, then feel free to talk it over at the dead dog party:

8. pm. 42 Tiber Street, Island Bay.
Ph. 836-834 if you get lost. We'll tell you where to go.

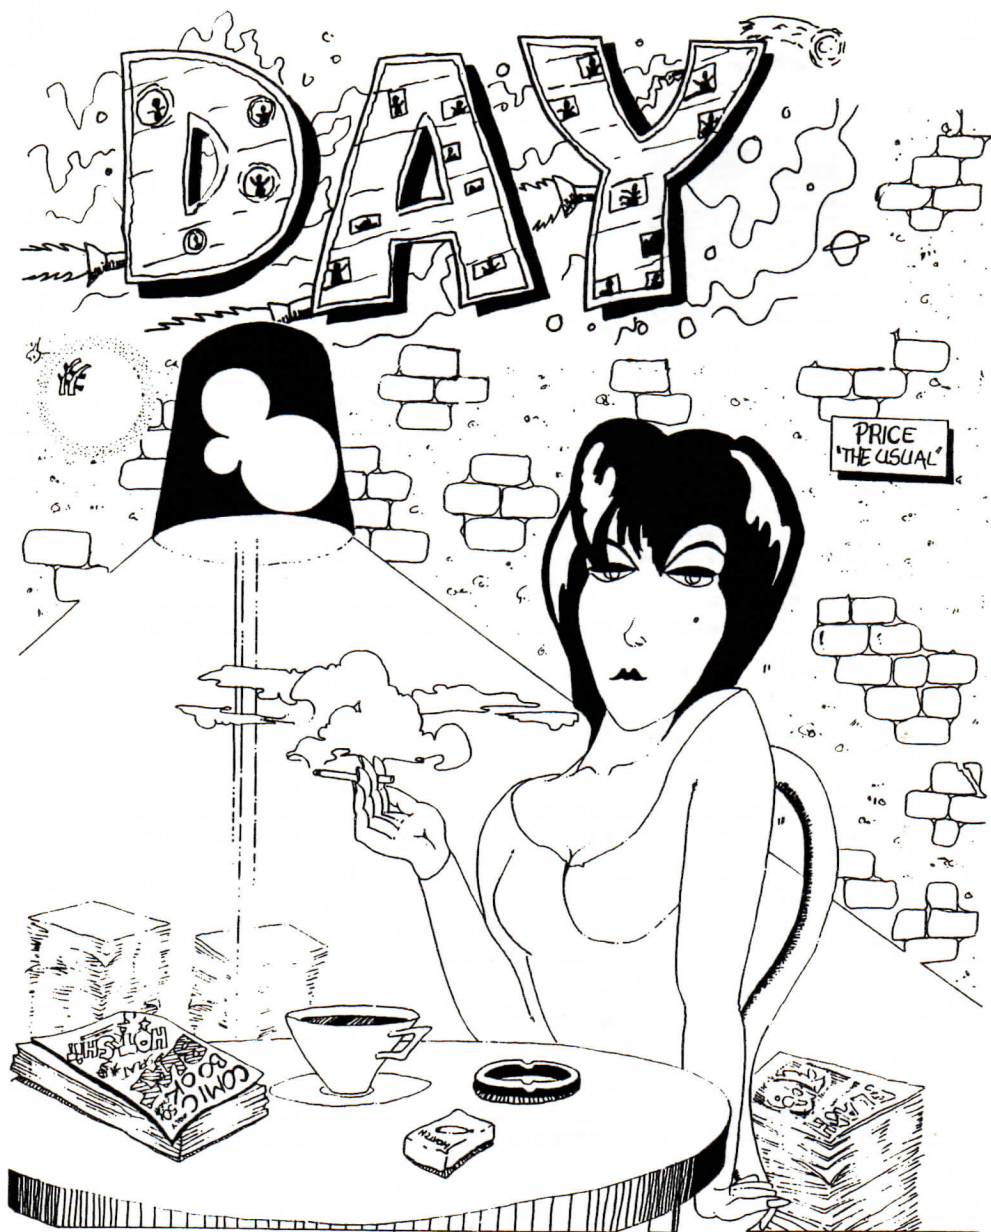

P.s. I know ssubject is spelt wrong in line 1 of para 2. I wanted it that way.

DON'T WORRY, THERE'LL BE ANOTHER DAY TOMORROW (ba.boom!)
LATE BREAKING NEWS AND GOSSIP TO ROOM 88.

DAY 3
MONDAY JUNE 3, 1991

Well it's all over. Hard to believe really, especially considering all the work that went into FERRYCON over the last year, and it's now all over. "Peter, slow down, you can relax now..." Personally the highlights for me included meeting 4E and Peter Jackson, counting the auction takings (lots of dosh!!), consuming vast amounts of alcohol and drugs to stay awake, and typing/copying DAY right through the small hours. DAY TWO was actually started at 2.45am. Monday and finished at 6.35am.

"What's that? What programme items did I enjoy the most?" -- "Programme? You mean there was a programme! Well I certainly didn't get to go to any of that. Except perhaps the auction..."

See you at the next con?

- Nigel W. Rowe

OUT TO LAUNCH WITH FERRY

Kim Salmonson was the person lucky enough to win lunch with Ferry; while Helen van der Werf won the Weaveworld book. Congratulations to both!

FFANZ NEWS

The FFANZ auction raised $187; many thanks to all those who participated, especially those who donated items.

Brian Howell has relinquished the NZ administratorship owing to pressure from work commitments. At a meeting of ex-FFANZ administrators and the current Australian administrator, it was decided to appoint Nigel Rowe and Lyn McConchie as interim NZ administrators.

Expect a newsletter to be published shortly. At the close of Foryrycon, two people have been nominated for the 1991/92 race from NZ to Australia. They are, Rex Thompson (Dunedin) and Linnette Horne (Wellington). Ballot forms will be available at the end of June, and voting will be open until October 31st, 1991.

RANDOM GOSSIP

Guisseppi Verdi is the well-known Italian translation of the name of Wellington fan, Jo Green. This Saturday, Jo marries Evan McCarthy, but will she change her name and lose the record royalties?

STOP THE PRESSES!!!

There is now [officially] no Wellington branch of NASF. It's dissolved, Jim. Nominations are now open for any Wellington based group to use the name upon application to NASF National. Historians note: the last meeting was in 1989.

THANKS TO MICHAEL PETERS (THE OLD BOOK CELLAR) FOR VERY GENEROUSLY DONATING SEVERAL ITEMS TO FERRYCON FOR FUNDRAISING.

GARY PERKINS, WE LOVE YOU!

My apologies to Gary for inadvertently leaving his name out of the thank you notice in DAY TWO regarding those wonderful people who had helped with the auction. Gary -single-handedly - wrote up the large auction number cards (all 200 of them). Thanks Gary, hope the writers cramp soon clears.

T-SHIRTS

Around the con you may have seen a screenprinted t-shirt displayed, showing "Attack of the 50 Foot Woman". These are available at a cost of $40 from, Curio Jo, 66 New North Road, Eden Terrace. AUCKLAND. Please state size required.

YES, WE EVEN RECEIVE LETTERS

Dear Nigel, [Thanks for your enquiry on the use of] Pan Australasian dollars was nominated as currency for MILLENNIUM FALL-CON. This is one of the results of the fall of the A.L.P. in 1997, when the remnants of the Ozzie Labourites joined New (NZ) Labour to form the Australasian Labour Political League (ALPL, normally referred to as Allpal).

When this now viable party took both Australian Federal and New Zealand parliaments by landslides, they simultaneously enacted legislation to combine both countries into one. Needless-to-say the mandates and voting platforms said nothing about this.

Unfortunately the copy of the electronic book that was misposted to me did not include data on the currency conversion rates or the currency adjustment on combining $Aust and $NZ. Hence my reluctance to name rates for attendees. I look forward to receiving any more misdelivered electronic books.

--- Strawberry

(Acting Pilot, MILLENNIUM FALL-CON)

OVERHEARD IN PASSING, CONVERSATIONAL SNIPPETS

From the NASF non-AGM; "Committee membership nominations have been limited to 35. Total nationwide membership has shrunk to 35."

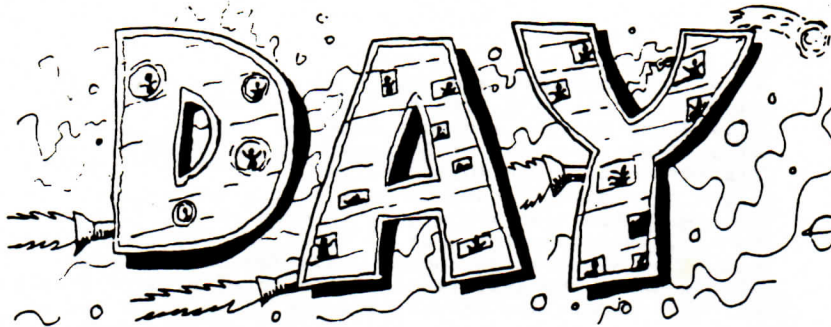

Ice axe in Mr Moon show - Nicholas Smeaton; "Just like the NASF AGM".

Jackie Dunford, "I'm the mad nun,"
Mr Moon, "and none madder I'm sure."

Mr Moon, "Dropped balls are a sign of maturity."

Mr Moon to Gordon Hieatt; "Sitting there looking like a prick with ears..."

"I just want to know when I'm getting my husband back."

DAY 4 (LASTDAY), sometime in June 1991

LAST WORDS FROM FORRYCON

Forrycon is 'over'. Was it all worth it? In a word, yes. But...

If I had really wanted to be smart I'd have just spent all the personal money I've put into Forrycon on a return ticket to Los Angeles. And all the holidays I took to organise Forrycon could have been spent looking at Forry's collection and the other sights. For, although I've been to L.A. (once, three years ago), I missed seeing Forry's amazing house and collection as he was overseas at the time (in Europe and England for conventions).

But I wanted other fans in New Zealand to meet this ultra nice writer, editor, and collector plus let those who had little or no chance of getting to LA have a chance to see at least some of the incredible artifacts from his collection.

The more I think about it, the more it seems a con organiser has to be certifiably crazy. Lana Brown is doubly crazy for wanting to organise a third con! And if you're not crazy to start with, you will be by the time the con is 'over'!

Why do I keep putting 'over' in quotes? Because, contrary to appearances, Forrycon is not yet finished. There are still accounts to balance, lost property to post back to owners, T-shirts and videos to sell, etc. One slight difficulty is that I got carried away with ensuring attendees got value for their memberships.

Unfortunately when all the bills came in, some items cost more than budgeted for. The sad end result is that Forrycon is still about $900 in the red. That money is coming out of my pocket. Both for my sake and that of our charity Greenpeace it would be nice to turn that loss into a small profit!

To that end, Forrycon T-shirts are still available for a short time and Hamish Rose has edited all the video footage shot before, during and after the con into an excellent souvenir tape that runs one hour and forty minutes. There will also be a sale of some items that missed the Auction and some material from my collection at a general meeting of SF fans at Nigel Rowe's flat (see separate notice for full details).

One sour note to Forrycon was that a few decided that they were too high and mighty to need to pay like other fans. To my eternal regret, I never had tight security checks on memberships and at least ten people free-loaded. With the assistance of the hotel manager I kicked out four people who crashed the con. I've since had a phone conversation with a female fan who considered that it was more important for her to pay for an overseas holiday than for the con events she attended!

It would be real nice to get membership money from any attendees who didn't pay at the time. Anybody that was a free-loader has essentially stolen $45 from my wallet. If any members reading this know of anyone that free-loaded, I'd be grateful if you would mention that I'm less than impressed with them. Even when Forrycon gets in the black, free-loaders are cheating all the paying members as well as the con organiser and charity.

What angers me most is that many of the free-loaders had jobs when I personally know of fans who were unemployed (or students) that didn't come to Forrycon purely because they couldn't afford to. Others saved money over a long period to attend. For employed people to free-load is a real slap in the face to other fans less well off.

But enough grumping. On the positive side I've had good feedback from a number of people regarding Forrycon. It appears that people had a really good time overall. I'm glad fans - both neos and old hands - enjoyed themselves. I'm sure Forry left New Zealand with a good impression of fandom in our little neck of the woods.

And remember. If you're ever in Los Angeles with a spare day or two up your sleeve, just dial MOON-FAN and Mr Sci-Fi will be only too glad to let you view his collection (provided he's in town and not junketing around the globe travelling to some con or other!).

I hope to see many of you at DISCONTINUITY (Easter, Auckland) where I'll be fan Guest of Honour - and promise I'll be able to talk without saying "Walk with me!" as I stride down hallways. I will also be open to all offers to buy me a drink of my choice.

- A slowly winding down con organiser named Peter.

CONVENTION ACCOUNTS

These are not yet finalised as there is still expenditure on printing and mailing this DAY, and expected income from T-shirt and video sales.

When these are available they will be passed on to DISCONTINUITY and SHAKEYCON convention organisers to publish in their progress reports if they wish. Any interested party not on their mailing lists will be able to get their own copy by writing to Peter.

Sunday 21st July 1991, 2pm.

Autographed FAMOUS MONSTERS mags, Posters, Con Videos, fun inflatable toys, con T-shirts, autographed photos of Peter Hassall... for sale.

ALSO: This will be the first informal meeting of Wellington fans since FORRYCON. Much interest has been expressed in making this a regular event (that is, an informal, fun, informal and FUN! gathering.)

FORRYCON T-SHIRTS ARE STILL AVAILABLE FOR A LIMITED TIME!

Lana Brown's excellent artwork design as seen on the cover of the Forrycon Convention Book is available as a T-shirt design (black on white shirts only). These cost $20 each (includes postage) and are available in the following sizes: Medium, Large, Extra Large. Please state size required when ordering!

We must receive orders by July 26th at the absolute latest as the small screenprinter who did these for us needs to reuse the screen by that date. Don't miss out on your only chance to get one!

FORRYCON FUN VIDEO!!!

After many sleepless nights of editing, Hamish Rose and Peter Hassall take great pleasure in presenting the Forrycon video. For a mere $20 (includes postage and packaging) you can see the following (and more!):

- * Forry having lunch in Psycho's lunch-bar.
- * Peter Hassall smashing bottles over his head.
- * The Forrycon Opening Ceremony.
- * Convention highlights including Masquerade; Banquet.
- * Nigel and Hamish dividing up the con Auction money.
- * Peter Jackson filming Forry's cameo for new movie.
