

ELECTION EDITION

PHANTASY PRESS

COMPLETE RETURNS

Vol. 9, No. 5

Whole #38 (Postmailed)

Sept. 16, 1962

F.M. & E. BUSBY WIN FAPA TOP SPOT

BOX SCORE

for President

FM & E Busby.....28
Lee Jacobs.....14

for Vice-President

W.Gregg Calkins.....32
Ted White.....10

for Secretary-Treasurer

William H. Evans.....28
Bruce E. Pelz.....14

for Official Editor

Richard H. Eney.....24
Ed Cox.....18

Summary:

Total votes cast were 42, compared to 49 last year. 22 voted the first week, 5 in the second, six in the third and nine ballots were received in the final week.

There were no write-in votes.

One ballot (Bennett) arrived too late to count.

There were six votes received from members outside the U. S.

CALKINS SWAMPS WHITE; EVANS & ENEY PULL
COME FROM BEHIND DRIVES TO WIN

Lawton, Okla. (Sept. 15th) The month-long FAPA election ended to-day and Official Teller Dan McPhail announced that the 1962-63 administration will be headed by F.M. and Elinor Busby, who defeated Lee Jacobs by a vote of 28 to 14.

The others elected are:

Vice-President: W. Gregg Calkins
Sec'y-Treasurer: Wm. H. Evans
Official Editor: Richard H. Eney

McPhail announced that 42 members cast votes, and one ballot arrived after the deadline. Over half of the ballots, 22, were cast the first week.

In the key race, Lee Jacobs led the first three days as a result of "block" voting by Californians, which had jumped him four votes ahead. However, by the end of the week, the popular editors of Sercon's Bane and Salud had built up a 13-9 lead, which was increased to 17-10 at midpoint. The third week showed no change but the final week brought an eight to one deluge & victory for the Seattle couple.

The race for Veep was no race at all as Gregg Calkins won a landslide 32-10 victory over Ted White. White, who had polled 24 votes in 1957 to become president, was left at the post as his ex-Marine rival rocketed ahead. The first week he trailed by 14 votes, and this

PHANTASY PRESS

Issued as a quarterly publication for the Fantasy Amateur Press Ass'n. from 1806 Dearborn, Lawton, Oklahoma.

This is a special edition containing official election results.

Daniel McPhail
Editor

Issue #38

Sept. 16, 1962

Special Notice

Rusty Hevelin has asked that we print his current address in this issue, saying the Secretary has failed his pleas for noting a roster change the last three mailings. It is:

James Hevelin,
Galway, New York

PROGRESS OF THE ELECTION

The following chart shows the week-by-week vote totals cast for each candidate in the recent election.

name	1st Week	2nd	3rd	4th	Total
Busby	13	4	3	8	28
Jacobs	9	1	3	1	14
Calkins	18	3	6	5	32
White	4	2	0	4	10
Evans	14	5	1	8	28
Pelz	8	0	5	1	14
Cox	13	1	4	0	18
Eney	9	4	2	9	24

General Comment by McPhail

This is Sunday, Sept. 23rd as I wind up this election "extra". This morning I had a call from Lee Jacobs wanting to know the outcome of the balloting. To Lee and all of you, I want to apologize for keeping you in suspense. As I told Lee, I have been ill the past week & while I had the first stencil started, I had been unable to complete it.

Dispite limited space left, I'll try to get in a few items that may be of interest. First, who voted? Anderson, Ballard, Bennett, Boggs, Brown, Burbee, Busby, Calkins (assuming the unsigned ballot from Monticello Utah is from him), Carr, Bradley, Caugh-

BUSBIES WIN FAPA ELECTION

Continued from Page 1

rose to 22 as Calkins poured on the coals in the home stretch.

Bruce Pelz hustled into an 8-2 lead on the first day, in his bid against veteran Bill Evans for the post of Secretary-Treasurer, but the latter moved ahead at weeks end, 14-8. A Pelz rally in the 3rd week cut the lead to seven, but a surge of votes for his Maryland opponent at the end settled the issue in Evans' favor.

A real Donnybrook developed in the fight for Official Editor, which saw Ed Cox, former vice-president (1955-56) face Dick Eney, an OE in two former administrations. Cox proved the strongest candidate of the west coast slate, as he led all the way until the final five days of the contest. However, at no time did he have more than a three vote advantage & the tide turned dramatically the last week when the Virginian blanked him by garnering all the nine votes cast. Cox was out front, 13-9 the initial week, held a thin 14-13 margin at mid-point, and had edged that up to 18-15 the third week.

ran, Clarke, Coulson, Cox, Economou, Ellik, Eney, Evans, Gallion, Grennell, Harness, Hevelin, Hoffman, Jacobs, Kidd, Knight, Leman, Linard, McDaniel, McPhail, Martinez, Morse, Parker, Pelz, Raeburn, Rotsler, Shaw, Silverberg, Sneary, Trimble, Tucker, Versins and Warner.

One of the candidates for office did not vote. Ten of the ballots were sent by airmail. All but one of the 14 California members voted, and all of those votes arrived in one envelope. 19 were mailed in long envelopes, 14 in short & one ballot was mailed sans envelope.

I appreciate & enjoyed the little messages that many of you sent me. Jean Linard sent regards & a funny sketch (2 a French butter stain), Dean Grennell added his fingerprint, Bruce Pelz mailed ballots of our two Tulsa boys from Clinton, a small western Okla. town; nice "wish you were here at the con" notes from Buz John Trimble, Evans, Ballard and Phyllis Economou (I wish I could have been there) and a "Hello, There" from Ron & Cecil Bennett. And it was especially nice to hear from Lee Jacobs. Sorry to be late this