

New Business -- Several ways were suggested for the club to raise money to replenish its treasury: 1. Auction at the DISCLAVE. 2. Raffle. 3. Anonymous offer has been made to pay the postage for the next few months of the JOURNAL. 4. Temporary requirement that Regular and Life members either pay their own postage or pick up their JOURNALS at the meetings.

Phil Bridges suggested that reduced membership rates for persons under 16 be abolished.

Don Miller will sell some magazines at the DISCLAVE and donate a percentage to WSFA. He stated that courtesy copies and an overrun of the JOURNAL are necessary, and that back issues should go up in value as the supply diminishes and more persons subscribe who are completists. He also noted that it is the subscriber's responsibility to inform him of his new address in case of a move -- he said that too many JOURNALS are being returned due to unreported CoA's, with increased costs to the club in paying the double return postage and then mailing them out again.

Announcements: Hugo Nomination deadline is May 1. There will be a poker game Sat. at Jay's. Alexis is donating four books for a raffle.

Meeting Adjourned: 9:55 p.m.
