INDEX TO THE SCIENCE FICTION MAGAZINES: 1961

Compiled and edited by Al Lewis. Published by Ron Ellik and John Trimble. Invaluable assistance and advice from Ed Wood. Additional copies 50¢ each from Al Lewis, 1825 Greenfield Ave., Los Angeles 25, California. LASFSrexed March 1962. First printing.

This index is divided into three parts: a table of contents listing, an author listing, and a title listing. The entries are arranged alphabetically within each section, except that articles are not considered.

THE CONTENTS LISTING: This is a combination of elements used in Bill Evans's and Bob Peterson's magazine index of c.1949 with those used by Ed Wood in his annual listings for 1951-52-53. For instance in the AMAZING STORIES listing:

March 1961 (364)	(Leo Summers)	Vol. 3, No. 3
*A Dusk of Idols	James Blish	NV Summers	6

The first element indicates the specific issue, followed by the whole number of that issue. Then comes the cover artist, and the volume numbering. In the second line, an asterisk indicates the cover story (a # would indicate a back cover story), followed by the story title and author, and the length (NV= novelle). Interior illustrations by Summers, and the story begins on page 6. Departments are indicated at the head of each magazine listing, although some departments (Ley's and Asimov's science departments; Campbell's and Carnell's editorials) are also listed under their individual titles. Issue, page, and volume numbering follow the individual practice of the English and American publishers; thus American publishers include covers in estimating page count, the English do not. American reprint editions of the three Nova Publications bear the same issue number and are printed from the same interior plates, but carry a different dating and price. SF and SFA are dated in the lower margin of the contents page.

THE AUTHOR LISTING: Author and Title listings generally follow the conventions used in Don Day's INDEX TO THE SCIENCE FICTION MAGAZINES 1926-1950 and are designed to be used as a supplement to the still forthcoming second volume of that work, which will cover the years 1951-1960. Some modifications have been made: both here and above sources of reprint stories are indicated, and the sources of earlier stories in a series are listed. The present work is also intended to be complete in itself. In a typical listing:

BANNISTER, MANLY
Magnanthropus	N2pt FAN Sep 26 Oct 42

The author's name is indicated in capitals, with each story listed in lower case. "N2pt" means a novel in two parts, running in FANTASTIC, page 26 of the September issue, and page 42 of the October issue.

THE TITLE LISTING: Also follows the conventions used in Day's Index, but is less complete than the Author listing in that series and sequels are not listed, and reprint information is sometimes shortened. The style is similar to that of the author listing, except that author and title are reversed.

A list of abbreviations will be found inside the back cover.
