

2 CONVERGENCE 2

Timetable of Lunchtime and Dinnertime Fan Film Screenings

	Saturday	Sunday	Monday
Lunchtime	Hitch (9 min) The Making of Hitch (12 min) The Dalek Tapes (11min) Riverdaleks (2 min) Get a Life (13 min) Attack of the Killer Con Bags (5 min)	Anti-fan (20min) Anti-fan Strikes Back (20 min) GhostBastards (12 min)	City on the Edge of the Yarra (18min) Star Trek VII – Voyage to Ratings Frontier / Star Trek: The Plastic Generation (9 min) Assorted Swancon openings and launches (35 min)
Dinnertime	No screening	Computer Boy (50 min)

Welcome to the ConVergence Fan Film screenings. We have attempted to provide a variety of Fan Films spanning some 30 years of fandom in Australia. Some of these films have only had a limited screening, others are well known. Please be aware that the production and transfer qualities vary a great deal but it is worth persevering....

(Many thanks to all the people who spent hours searching their video collections)

Details of the Fan Films

Hitch (9 min) 2002

Hitch-hiking will never be the same...

The Making of Hitch (12 min) 2002

A not-too-serious look at the genius behind Hitch.

The Dalek Tapes (11 min) 1995

It is widely known that in 1966, Dalek creator Terry Nation attempted to launch an all-new series based around his mechanical creations. What is not so widely known is that in 1968 the project entered recording, resulting in a television series so provocative, so daring and so radical for it's time that the British Broadcasting Corporation buried it deep within it's vaults and destroyed all records of it's existence until now. With the aid of painstakingly written notes by the original series producer, Albert Q, the Psychic Circus has rescored and remastered these original television productions for their first public viewing, nearly thirty years after they were completed.

Riverdaleks (2 min) 1998

You too, will believe Daleks can Riverdance

Get a Life - An Analysis of Fandom (13 min) 1994

What are these strange beasts called "fans"? Is it possible to communicate with them? And what of the elusive Committee member? Filmed during Constantinople, Melbourne, 1994.

Attack of the Killer Con Bags (5 min) 1992

Join the crew of Star Trek: The Next Generation in their early days at the Academy. See them battle with their deadliest enemy yet!

Anti-Fan (20 min) 1972

Anti-fan threatens to eliminate the 'Australia in 75' Worldcon bid committee. One by one the committee are eliminated... can he be stopped in time?

Anti-fan Strikes Back (20 min) 1980

Will the Anti-fan stop at nothing in his bid to seek revenge? Are the 'Australia in 83' committee safe from his evil deeds?

GhostBastards (12 min) 1993

Igor, Peter, Ray and Winston are The Ghostbastards, dedicated to busting all evil ghosts they encounter. Winston is sent off to visit a customer of their "Dial-A-Dag" service sideline; not realising, Ripley, has lured him there to warn of a supernatural ghost invasion.

Computer Boy (50 min)

If you have not seen The Matrix, do not watch this as it will make no sense... However, if you have seen The Matrix, you should probably do the same....

City on the Edge of the Yarra (18 min) 1980

When Kirk travels through the Guardian of Forever he loses his phaser. In an attempt to locate the missing phaser, Kirk and Spock arrive on Earth and find themselves at a "Star Trek" convention.

Star Trek VII - The Voyage to Ratings Frontier / Star Trek: The Plastic Generation (9 mins) 1994

Kirk goes to visit his successors... and
The Enterprise crew deal with an alien on the bridge

Assorted Swancon openings and launches (35 min) 1997-2001

A collection of opening and launch videos from Swancon 23, 25 and 26

Please Enjoy!