

THYLACON 2005

44th National Australian SF Convention Hobart, Tasmania, June 10-13th 2005

The 44th National Science Fiction Convention will be held in Tasmania in June 2005. The theme of Thylacon 2005 is 'a walk on the wild side,' and the wild and woolly committee of this ferocious event are very excited to announce that hot new writer Marianne de Pierres will be our Australian Guest of Honour.

Thylacon 2005 will have a provocative and thought-provoking programme of panels on diverse topics from science fiction and fantasy as well as book launches, art shows, trading market, gaming programme, film nights, award presentations and a masquerade ball. It will provide a convivial venue for writers, readers, professionals and fans to mingle and exchange ideas.

Please join us and Marianne for Thylacon 2005, to explore the wild side of science fiction, horror and fantasy.

For regular updates of Thylacon news, join our public emailing list at <http://www.thylacon.com/maillist.html>

The Committee may be contacted at the following:
