Survey

Please fill out the Balticon Survey using the QR code on posters on the wireframe kiosks. Your past survey responses helped BSFS earn $7,500 in grants during the pandemic. Thank you for your help.

Hear Authors Read

There is something magical about listening to authors read from their own work. The words are personal to them in a way no paid narrator can match. Take a chance on a new writer. Attend a reading from an unknown author.

Online Programming for Time Travelers

Balticon online programming will be available 30 days after the end of Balticon for all members. If you did not receive an email with your link, email registration@balticon.org.

Local Sports Scores

The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Boston Red Sox 12-8. They will play two more games today. The game for the Washington Nationals versus the Colorado Rockies was postponed.
