Baltimore Science Fiction Society

The Baltimore Science Fiction Society, Inc. is a 501(c)(3), non-profit, charitable, literary and educational organization, dedicated to the promotion of, and an appreciation for, science fiction, fantasy, horror, and speculative fiction literature. BSFS is run entirely by volunteers. We exist to promote the creation and appreciation of science fiction and fantasy cultural arts—primarily through literary art forms, but also embracing the many related graphical, musical, and theatrical creations inspired by SF. If you love science fiction and fantasy, then BSFS and our projects and programs are a new home for your mind, heart, and soul.

Visit the BSFS Building* for:

- The BSFS Book Club Meets 4th Saturday of each month at 7:30 pm.
- Spec Fic Critique Circle Writers critique participants' writing every 2nd and 4th Thursday at 6:30 pm.
- Speculative Poetry Workshop Meets 3rd Wednesday of each month at 7:00 pm.
- Author Events Throughout the year.
- Our Free Public Lending Library With over 17,000 titles.
- Film Nights Indie shorts & feature films on the 3rd Saturday of each month at 7:00 pm.

BSFS proudly sponsors Balticon, the Maryland Regional Science Fiction Convention, on Memorial Day Weekend in Baltimore each year. Check it out at balticon.org. BSFS also sponsors writing contests: one for Maryland students, one for Maryland adults, and one just for poetry. We also sponsor two literary awards, the Compton Crook Award and the Robert A. Heinlein Award.
