Dealer's Room Directory

The Dealer's or Hucksters' Room is located in University Hall which is one floor below the hotel lobby and next to the Art Show. There are about seventy-five dealers in the room. The hours the room is open are:

Friday	5 PM to 9 PM
Saturday	10 AM to 6 PM
Sunday	10 AM to 5 PM

Please don't eat or drink in the Huckster's Room (you dribble on it you bought it). There is no smoking allowed in the room. There is at least one dealer who sells food, but this is to be eaten after you leave the room.

Autographing is in the Dealer's Room again and many more sessions have been planned. Be sure to check the schedule by the autograph area and Information so you do not miss your favorite pro. The schedules will be updated as changes happen.

This Directory is the largest and most complete done for any Boskone to date. A lot of effort and some of your registration fee went into its production. It is my hope that you will save and use this directory after Boskone. Please write and let me know if the effort was worthwhile, or a directory this extensive is unlikely to be done next year.

Included here is first a listing of all dealers alphabetically with full addresses, next a map of the Dealer's Room, then a list of dealers by table location, and finally ads from some dealers and room for notes and autographs. I have asked every dealer to inform me of what type of merchandise they sell. I suggest that you go around to all the dealers noting which carry what you want at what price, and after going around to all of them go back to where you will get the best prices. This method has served me well at antiquarian book fairs.

I would like to thank all the dealers who were very cooperative in giving me information, Bob Eggleton for the cover, and Rich Ferree, to whom I gave more work than either he or I expected.

Kenneth Knabbe
