The program will include a number of authors reading from their works. A schedule will be published in the newsletter and will be available at the information desk.

We will have a varied video program. We will have everything from Japanese animated science fiction to the Constellation masquerade. You can come to the video room in room 434, or turn your hotel TV to the designated channel. Schedules will be in the video room and in Helmut.

There will be a number of small discussion groups on a variety of topics including science, space, science fiction, and poetry. A schedule will be published in the newsletter and will be available at the information desk on the 2nd floor mezzanine.

We have space and time available for additional discussion groups. If you have a topic you'd like to discuss and would be willing to lead a discussion group, (no experience necessary), please sign up at the information desk. Here's a chance to get a topic that you're particularly interested in onto the program.

NEWSLETTER: For changes in the program schedule, announcements of parties, and other timely information, read Helmut, Speaking for Boskone, the somewhat-better-than-daily Boskone newsletter. Distribution points for Helmut will be at the information desk, in the Hucksters' Room, near the Main Program, and maybe other places. There will be a box at information where you can submit your own news items.

NEWSLETTER: For changes in the program schedule, announcements of parties, and other timely information, read Helmut, Speaking for Boskone, the somewhat-better-than-daily Boskone newsletter. Distribution points for Helmut will be at the Information Desk, in the Hucksters' Room, near the Main Program, and maybe other places.
