Speaking for BOSKONE 49

Number 2, Saturday, February 18, 2012

The Photo Booth is available FOR FREE at the top of the escalators, across from Registration. Have your picture taken holding an alien penguin, or sitting next to Shakespeare, or sporting a steampunk moustache! Hours are Saturday from 11 am to 6 pm, and Sunday from 11 am to 2 pm, approximately. Boskone members are welcome to utilize their own cameras if preferred. Silliness is encouraged, but no one wishing a photo will be turned away. The conchair is rumored to be in line for a photo session. Crystal Huff is running this area and can be bribed, if the Concom wishes to see the results!

Unofficial Registration count for Friday: 95 full, 12 student, 12 college, 4 staff rate, 1 pre-reg rate, 15 Friday only, 3 Saturday, 1 Sunday, 2 Boskone 50. (This does not include online sales that came in today.)

Boskone will be hosting a Magic the Gathering tournament with $1000 in cash prizes starting at 10am on Sunday. The cost to enter is $20 for Boskone members, payable at Boskone Registration. We expect that a lot of people will be coming in just for the tournament on Sunday morning, so we urge any of you who plan to enter the tournament to please pay the tournament fee in advance on Saturday afternoon when Registration won't be quite so busy. There is an upper limit of 180 players, so by reserving in advance you won't have to wait in line and you'll be sure to get a seat. The tournament is a sealed deck tournament featuring Innistrad and Dark Ascension. For more information, see the flyer at Registration.

Hotel restaurant extended hours: Sauciety will be open for breakfast and will serve lunch until 2:30PM. The Birch Bar will open at noon.

The Wolfgang Puck Cafe at the ICA will give a 15% discount to Boskone members who display their badge. You do not have to pay the ICA entrance fee to get into the cafe.

Vermont is rightly nicknamed the Green Mountain State for its lovely landscape. But the Emergency Room at the Mount Ascutney Hospital and Health Center in Windsor, VT has recently reported to the CDC a new and troubling epidemic: patients turning green. Is it envy or something more sinister? Come and find out at the Artifactual Game Show, Burroughs, 8:00PM Saturday.

Tunnel in the Sky and Other Tales of Teen

Survival: Griffin, Sun. at 12:00: For the kids to have adventures, lose the parents. In the title story, Robert A. Heinlein uses teleportation: what other ways work to get the kids out of town? Once on their own, should our teens kiss or start killing something? How much adversity before readers get scared or depressed? Besides Heinlein's, what are the classics in this line? Who has written it well recently? What's done differently today?
