Missing Marbles?!?

Like most Con Chairs, Mike is sure he must have lost his marbles to have agreed to the job. We at Narnia believe that many of these marbles have migrated to the Westin Seaport to check out Boskone 61. If you find a lone marble, bring it to Mike Kerpan (the con chair) and ask if he's gotten enough back to regain his ability to say no yet. A little bird told us he's giving out rewards to anyone who returns one of these lost marbles.....
