

QUOI DE NEUF

The 29th Annual British Filk Convention

3rd – 5th February, 2017

The Best Western Hotel, Marks Tey, Colchester

Welcome to PR2 for Quoi de Neuf!

Quoi de Neuf will be the 29th annual U.K. Filk Convention.

Cold winds howl down from the north, leaching the last warmth bequeathed by the summer sun. Snow is forecast for the hills, and frost glitters upon the pavements. The winter constellations in all their glory dominate the night skies.

The turning of the year – whether the solstice, or a nearby date – has always been the time to gather with family and friends from near and far.

Now is the time to put the old year to rest, and look forward to the new one. To plan new beginnings, and coax new growth from barren soil. To trade songs and stories. To look forward.

Outside the nights slowly, slowly grow shorter and winter's fingers are pried from the earth. This can only mean that the 2017 U.K. Filkcon will soon be upon us (and that we're probably going to get snow again).

Come along to Mark's Tey in February to answer the question...

... what's new?

Programme

We are now in the process of putting the programme together. There will, of course, be entertaining sets and interesting workshops from our Guests of Honour Cecilia Eng and Jackie Mitchell, and we have a number of other items lined up. If you have asked for a slot, you should have already heard from us; if not, please get in touch as soon as possible.

The Tech equipment is there to help you sound as good as possible. The techies can use it to best effect if they know what you want, and it will help them a lot if they know this well in advance so they can bring the right equipment. If you will be moving around (or changing instruments) during your item then a set-list is greatly appreciated.

There will, of course, be the usual Main Concert at which anybody is welcome to sign up for one or two songs, as well as open circles through the evenings and into the night.

Themed concert

In addition to the main concert, we will have a Themed Concert. This time, we are looking for songs on the theme of "What's new?" Of course, this theme could be interpreted in many ways... and there may even be a small prize for the most "creative" interpretation.

In a break with tradition, this will be a very lightly (if at all) teched "sign up on the night" event, leading in to the Friday evening open filk circle.

Hotel booking

If you are getting this PR by email, it should also say if we have received a hotel booking for you and, if so, for what. (If you are getting this by post, it will be on the envelope).

If you haven't made a hotel booking through the convention and want to do so then please contact Miki as soon as possible.

Cream teas on Friday

The hotel offers afternoon teas between noon and 4pm, though they must be pre-ordered. At the time of writing these are £11.50 per person (but prices may change before the convention). If you would like to order afternoon tea for the Friday afternoon, please contact the hotel directly; details are at:

<http://www.marksteyhotel.co.uk/eat-drink/afternoon-tea>

Volunteering

Any filk con relies on the good offices of volunteers to keep everything running... if not smoothly, then at least in the same direction. This includes holding down Registration, helping set up the room, and running Tech. If you are willing and able to help, please let us know.

The Filk Fund

The cost of the flights for our overseas guest is once again being paid for by the Filk Fund. We will be having an auction at the convention to raise funds so that this can continue into the future.
