Capclave 007

The science fiction convention where reading is not extinct

Author GoH: Jeffrey Ford   Editor GoH: Ellen Datlow
October 12-14, 2007   Rockville Hilton

1750 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852 $119 for single, double, $129 for triple/quad and $159 for a suite.

Capclave, the Washington, DC literary convention, offers a relaxed atmosphere in which notable authors, editors, artists, and fans will explore the creation and enjoyment of fantasy and science fiction, this year with a special look at the neo-pulp revival. Capclave focuses on short stories but also gives lots of attention to novels, movies, and TV. Capclave also features writer & reviewer workshops.

NEW HOTEL. Capclave will be held at the Rockville Hilton Executive Meeting Center (formerly the Rockville Doubletree). Phone: 301-468-1100.

We are right off 495 and next to the Twinbrook metro station, close to tons of food and shopping. Free weekend parking at the Metro.

Past Capclaves have hosted discussions with authors and fans; readings by authors; a dealer's room with books, magazines, artwork, crafts, and other science fiction and fantasy related items; exhibits by artists; space science presentations from NASA; a hospitality suite; room parties; interesting conversations with other fans and professionals; and a relaxed atmosphere for visiting old friends and meeting new friends. Our small size means greater opportunities to talk with our guests.

Confirmed participants include: Brenda Clough, Kathryn Cramer, Michael Dirda, Scott Edelman, David Hartwell, John G. Hemry, Jane Jewell, Yoji Kondo, L. Jagi Lamplighter, Ed Lerner, Nancy Moore, George Scithers, Bud Sparhawk, Steve Stiles, Sean Wallace, Lawrence Watt-Evans, and John Wright.
