

Capclave 2008

Where Reading Is Not Extinct (And Satire Alive and Well)

October 17 - 19, 2008
Rockville Hilton, Rockville, MD

Writer GoH: James Morrow

Supreme Satirist

Critic GoH: Michael Dirda

Champion Critic

Capclave, the Washington, D.C. area science fiction literary convention, offers a relaxed atmosphere in which notable authors, editors, critics, artists, and fans explore the creation and enjoyment of fantasy and science fiction. Capclave focuses on short stories, but also gives lots of attention to novels, movies, and TV. Because we're small, we're friendly and fun, not frantic.

Past Capclaves have hosted discussions with authors and fans; readings; a dealer's room with books, magazines, artwork, crafts, and other science fiction and fantasy related items; the WSFA small press award; workshops on writing, reviewing, reading; science presentations; a hospitality suite; room parties; interesting conversations with fans and professionals; and a relaxed atmosphere for visiting old friends and making new ones.

Our hotel is the same as in 2007, steps away from the Metro and right on 355 near tons of food and shopping.

All this for just $40 through the end of May 2008.

$50 June through September 2008

$60 from October 1, 2008

Send to: Capclave 2008 Registration

c/o Barry Newton

PO Box 53

Ashton MD 20861

Visit us online at www.capclave.org

Capclave is a production of the Washington Science Fiction Association