

CONCAVE 25

February 27-29, 2004 Horse Cave, KY
Guest of Honor: Deb Geisler

Great Ghu! Is it really possible that Concave, Kentucky's longest running science fiction relaxacon has been around for a quarter century? It must be because the nice people at the Hampton Inn of Horse Cave have agreed to let us have the run of their hotel for the weekend, including the comfy lobby/consuite, warm indoor pool, even warmer hot tub, ~~exercise room~~ filk room, handicapped accessibility, lots of room parties and creative parking! The hotel is located off I-65 at Exit 58. Due to the continuing popularity of Concave we must regretfully continue the room lottery. See the back of this flier for an entry form. You must send in a lottery form by December 10 to be in the running for accommodations at The Hampton Inn!

In addition to the Hampton Inn, the Exit 58 area includes The Budget Host Inn overflow hotel within walking distance of the main hotel, 24-hour restaurants and convenience stores, and a shopping center. With the demise of The Bookstore Café we may not have a banquet again this year or we may spring a surprise. You can still check out the downtown Horse Cave attractions such as the American Cave Museum and Hidden River Cave Tour, or you might just want to browse around the Dollar General Store and soak in rural Kentucky living at its finest!

WHAT IS CONCAVE?

Concave is a relaxed weekend of socializing between science fiction fans of all ages. It features a round-the-clock fully stocked consuite, an art show and auction, huxter room, and gaming rooms. Our goal is to continue the fannish traditions of bringing together a diverse group of people, connected through an interest in SF and all its trappings, stand back, and see what happens. We try to introduce new generations to the family of SF fandom while honoring some of the people who have contributed greatly to this lively sub-culture. Concave is not an event to attend for panel discussions, workshops, and meeting SF writers and artists, but it is a great way to meet others who share your interest in the fantastic!
