CORFLU NOVA

CALLING ALL FANZINE FANS! You know, it's been a while since there's been an east-coast Corflu, longer still since there was one in the Washington, DC area. It's time to do something about that...

CORFLU NOVA (as in NOrthern VA), aka Corflu 11, will be held May 20-22, 1994, just across the Potomac from Washington, DC, in Arlington, Virginia. The hotel is the Crystal Gateway Marriott, conveniently located for air travelers at the Crystal City Metro Station, one metrorail stop from Washington National Airport. If you're planning on driving, the street address is: 1700 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, VA 22202. Hotel rates are $79 single/double (tax not included); hotel parking is $5 per day. Make reservations by calling (703) 920-3230, and mention Corflu to get the convention room rate.

WHO ARE WE, ANYWAY? This seems a little late for a colophon, but Corflu Nova is being brought to you by the friendly triumvirate of Dick Lynch, Nicki Lynch, and Alexis Gilliland. And a cast of ones.

SO WHAT'S PLANNED? Well, Crystal City is a little too congested for a softball game, and we couldn't get a good rate on RFK Stadium. But we will have other usual features, including the Party Suite (hosted by Lee Uba), fanzine-related programming, rare fanzine auctions, and a not-a-huckster-room fanzine sales area. For completists, we'll also have a specially-designed Corflu 11 shirt and a Fanthology (year TBA) for sale. And this year there will be a special feature...

THE RETURN OF THE FAAN AWARDS. We've decided to revive the Fanzine Activity Achievement Awards (for the year 1993) at Corflu Nova. There will be three categories: Favorite Fanzine, Favorite Fan Artist, and Favorite Fan Writer. More on this in our next progress report...

MEMBERSHIP RATES for Corflu Nova are $10 supporting; $37 attending (advance); $42 attending (at the convention). Attending memberships include the traditional Sunday luncheon at the hotel. Please make checks payable to Alexis Gilliland.
