

THE SOUTHERN CON

AUG. 6, 7 & 8

The third annual DEEP SOUTH CONVENTION for science fiction fans will be held in Birmingham, Alabama. The convention will take place in the Downtowner Motor Inn on the weekend of August 6th, 7th, and 8th. All science fiction and fantasy fans are invited to attend.

The Con membership fee will be $2.00. It is payable upon registration or in advance to the Con chairman, Al Andrews. The fee will be refunded to those people paying in advance and not able to attend. Any of the Trufen wishing to pay in Confederate money should apply to the Chairman for conversion rates between real money and that of the USA.

The Downtowner Motor Inn is a modern motel in downtown Birmingham. It has a swimming pool and a bar/restaurant. Free parking is available. The rates are reasonable: $8.00 one occupant/double bed/room; $10.50 two occupants/same; $12.50/two occupants/two double beds. A reservation card is being sent with most of these announcements. If you plan on attending, PLEASE use the card; it will be needed to account for the conference room.

NOTE: If you send the card in and don't attend, be sure to cancel your own reservations. These cards constitute a guaranteed reservation and as such are billable despite non-attendance.

Anyone wishing to attend and not receiving a card should write to Al Andrews (address below).

The program is being scheduled by Larry Montgomery and Lamar Hollingsworth. It will include sf films, an FRB slide show and discussion, and a possible panel discussion. Buying/selling/trading of fannish items will take place.
