

EERIECON 8 VIDEOS

Once again, EERIECON is proud to present some of the finest motion pictures ever made! Unfortunately, there are also some two dozen others.

Once again, we offer a homage followed by Anime. With so much of our Anime, and late night fare, being recent; we tried to show more of the older material at other times. After all, these are what the video side of the genre is based upon. If you want some really older stuff, there are even a few silent films in the extra boxes.

In a reverse "Cinderella" tale, Kauderer-san and Kujawa-san take over the video room at Midnight, Sunday morning for all-day Anime. If you are not familiar with it, Anime is a stylized Japanese type of animation far different from "The Flintstones" or "Loony Tunes". While some are okay for children, most are not! As most Anime are unrated, we've shown the suggested age levels given by the distributors; still you might find some teen-rated videos to be a bit more violent or sexual than the American ratings.

Once again, we try to present features that you wouldn't see on television or in most video stores. Alas, that often means things you would not want on TV. Further, we have gone mostly to professional DVD to give you the best image and sound possible. Whether these are things you'd want to see and hear clearly is another matter entirely.

Once again, the more adult stuff will be shown only late at night. However, the truly childish can show up at any time! We don't show any explicit films, and please don't bring any into the video room.

Once again, we offer our Never Ending Search For The Worst Film Ever Made! Last year's nominee, "Rockabilly Vampires" never made it to the screen as the audience voted it off the island (in favor of more "Doctor Who"). So this year we'll present a double feature! When former Eeriecon Guest of Honor, Octavia Butler passed away; her obituary had the story of her leaving a very badly written movie and saying to herself "I can write better than that!" And she did! So our first Worst will be that outstandingly bad film: "Devil Girl From Mars!"

Once again, in addition to the carefully crafted, delicately balanced, fine assemblage of scheduled videos; there are several dozen other genre films available if con-goers should vote a film off the island. Majority rules, please. WARNING, any changes to the Anime portion of the schedule may result in certain teenage girls donning their Mobile Battle Suits and ridding the Earth of your sorry carcass.
