Midwestcons of Yesteryear

Midwestcon 59 – The Relaxacon
Doubletree Guest Suites, Cincinnati
June 26 – 29, 2008

Letter from the Editor

Welcome back to Cincinnati, and to the Doubletree Guest Suites. Please take a minute to peruse the program book.

The menu book and restaurant guide have been revised again. We have several new entries this year (including one that is a microbrewery!).

This year, rather than using a drop box in the Consuite for comments, we are asking our members to talk to the staff or club members about recent Midwestcons – what has worked well, what needs improvement? What direction would you like to see Midwestcon go? Larger, smaller, a banquet, more or fewer planned activities? Thanks, and enjoy relaxing with the Cincinnati Fantasy Group.

CINCINNATI

A Tribute to Dr Mary Martin Patterson

By Deborah Oakes

Last August, the CFG lost a long time member with the death of Doctor Mary Martin Patterson. Mary was also a member First Fandom. Many of the younger members of fandom did not know her well, but she was an extraordinary woman. I was privileged to call her a friend for 20 years.

Mary was a gifted and dedicated doctor – a professional woman and a leader in her field in an era when that was uncommon for a woman. She was one of the first generation of plastic surgeons, and specialized in treating trauma and in reconstructive surgery.

Ironically, I first met Mary professionally. I was referred to her to have a cyst removed. I walked into her office, sat down and found myself looking at a science fiction calendar. I asked if she liked science fiction? We talked and soon realized we were both members of the Cincinnati Fantasy Group. I had joined only a few months before, and had not yet met everyone. We also discovered we lived only minutes apart. It was the start of a rich friendship.

Mary and her husband, Pat, were active in fandom in the 60s and 70s, attending conventions and even winning the Worldcon masquerade in 1966 for their “Snake Mother” costume. She was friends with many of the deans of science fiction, corresponding with Robert Heinlein, Isaac Asimov, Hal Clement and others. Nor were her contacts limited to the science fiction community. One year she traveled to Huntsville, Alabama for a professional meeting.

Upon arrival at the hotel, she checked in and was told where the dinner was being held. When she walked into the dining room she found out she was at the wrong hotel and the wrong meeting! She had dinner with that group anyway – after all, what science fiction fan would turn down the chance to have dinner with Wernher Von Braun and his staff?!

Mary didn't make many CFG meetings while she was still working full time as a physician, but she would hold the CFG Christmas party each year in mid-December. After she lost her husband, Pat, she would often attend conventions with me, including Worldcons in Philadelphia, Chicago and Toronto. Chicago turned into its own legend. I had to be there 2 days early, and she elected to drive herself. Her directional sense proved unequal to dealing with multiple Wacker Drives, particularly after being misled by a bad AAA triptik. Unable to find the hotel, she elected to park the car in a nice, attended lot and take a cab. Smart idea, yes? Just remember to take the parking lot ticket with you if you try this, don't leave it in the car! To my amusement and her chagrin, it took us 90 minutes in a cab to find her car on the Monday after Worldcon. She was happy to leave the driving to the rest of us in Toronto!

Mary no longer traveled long distances the last few years, but she enjoyed Midwestcon. She had a chance to talk to old friends and she loved to play Wizard and Mahjong with us. We'll miss her sadly this year. Wherever she is now, I'm sure her indomitable spirit lives on.
