

ANZAPACON 1

October 13-15 1978

SECOND PROGRESS REPORT

Not much to report, actually. No one has come up with lists of auction material (other than me), but I am sure that there'll be plenty more: if you want to sell old mailings, this is probably your best opportunity. Meanwhile, I propose to flog:

a pile of selected copies of ETHERLINE, a '73 ALIEN CRITIC, Roy Tackett's edition of Jack Speer's FANTASY FICTION DECIMAL CLASSIFICATION, Eric Lindsay's dummy for the cover of the first GEGENSCHWEIN, Paul Steven's WAITING FOR PAUL JS fanzine of 1974 (for no extra charge I will add the missing words - censored by PJS - from my cartoon on the last page), an Isaac Asimov autograph (courtesy Mervyn Barrett), SCYTHROP 25, A SAPSazine from mailing 24, a genuine Bruce Harper fanzine, a MOTA, BEARDMUTTERINGS 2, set of AUSTRALIAN SCIENCE FICTION MONTHLY (complete with references to COMORG), AWRY 1, a couple of ASFRs, SFR 40, COR SERPENTIS from eight years ago, a Gerrand-Foyster fanzine, CHUNDER for February 1973, a couple of SOMERSET GAZETTES, and one copy of that rare item, THE WEDDING! Probably more, now that I think about it. Like the AFPA duplicator.

ATTENDEES

The current list runs (family names only for the golden oldies) Bangsund, Bangsund, Bray, Circosta, Darling, Darling, Edmonds, Brown, Foyster, Gillespie, Hirsh, Lawrence, Ortlieb, Rowley, Stevens, Styles, Joiner, Arnott, Middlemiss, Swift, Dillon, Mason, McPharlin, Grigg, Sue Pagram, Campbell, Tang, Johnson, Binns, Carey Handfield, Leigh & Helen Hyde, Lee Harding, Irene Pagram, Leanne Frahm, Peter Toluzzi, Paul Stokes, and Stephen Bates!

If you know of any others, please advise, as seating could be a problem. Encourage people who have nothing to do with ANZAPA to stay away: not because there is anything inherently wrong with them, but rather that the numbers get out of hand easily.

PROGRAM

There is a change. Mervyn Binns has postponed the opening of the ART Gallery at Space Age Books. But on the Friday evening at Space Age, Merv Binns will be having a welcome back party for Paul Stevens, and ANZAPACON people are invited. O/wise, come down to 3a/19 Marine Parade, St Kilda.

The only other item to be added is the possibility of heavy ping-pong involvement by pingpongers, if they so desire.

Don't forget to bring 60 copies of your contribution, and a few uncut stencils might help out in producing a one-shot. A typewriter or two wouldn't go astray, either.

ACCOMMODATION

3a/19 Marine Parade is about full up. If you haven't made accommodation arrangements yet, make sure you arrive with sleeping bag and (preferably also with airbed) - someone is sure to have spare floor space....

See you all on either the 13th or 14th of October. You can ring John Foyster on 534 1605 after hours or 63 6859 in business hours. Leigh Edmonds is 387 4642 after hours.
