PARTY NEWS!

CAROLE PARKER reports: "None of the parties on Friday night had real food, so I suggest you eat dinner first. Keeping in mind that the basic party fare includes soda, beer, chips and possibly fruit and veggie plates, I have listed what makes each party unique.

"Con Suite: Rooms 323-327. It's the con suite.

"Amigocon. Low-priced memberships for their convention and a VERY nice host.

"Cleveland in '94. Fondue and filk books.

"Orlando in '92. Nice alcoholic punch and a t-shirt that collectors will want.

"San Francisco in '93. A talkative Mary Mason.

"Winnipeg in '94. Come find out about their Worldcon bid.

"Chicago in '91. Picasso 'Party Animal' t-shirts.

"Room 2137. Room party with lots of beer. A potential problem: I didn't see anyone checking I.D. and it looked like some minors may have been served beer.

"Nolacon's party is on Sunday only!"

WESTERCON 42 (1989, Los Angeles) will be selling memberships somewhere in the Civic Plaza on Saturday and Sunday from 11:00am to 5:00pm, as well as at a party (co-hosted by Westercon 41 (1988, Phoenix) in Room 334 (Hyatt) after the Masquerade.

MYTHADVENTURES Party, Panel to Merge: The MythAdventures Fan Club meeting, which was re-scheduled for 11pm Saturday in Phoenix A (Hyatt) has been MERGED with the MythAdventures Fan Club party in Hyatt 357 at 9pm Saturday. Myth-fits (old, new, and yet-to-be) are invited to attend and partake of the "Pervish Brew" and other delights. Don't Myth Out! (Kevin Standlee, President MAFC)

HAIL LACKEY! DAW Books and Off Centaur Publications will be hosting a party on Sunday from 3pm to 7pm in rooms 311-312 (Hyatt) to celebrate the publication of Mercedes 'Misty' Lackey's new book, Arrow's Flight (second in the Heralds of Valdemar series) as well as her new tape of songs, "Heralds, Harpers and Havoc."

ALCOHOL & PARTIES. A number of people have been taking alcoholic beverages out of parties. The Hyatt has been very cooperative with all the parties, but we — and they — would prefer it if open alcohol was not removed from parties, or off the patio deck. We all thank you for your cooperation.

UPS AND DOWNS. Thanks to all the "Elevator Party Hosts" last night for making things go much more smoothly in moving people between those party floors.

1990 NASFiC Vote Tally

To no one's surprise, San Diego will host the 1990 North American Science Fiction Convention. The results of the balloting were as follows: San Diego, 155; None of the Above, 9; No Preference, 8; Write-in, 11 (Saskatoon, 4; Bisbee, 2; Los Angeles, 3 (SCIFI, Keith Williams, Unspecified); Zagreb, 1; San Clemente Island, 1); Blank/spoiled/etc., 1. There were 184 votes. For more information about the convention, check at their table in the Civic Plaza lobby. They'll be selling memberships there later in the convention.

Staff & Volunteer News

There will be a general meeting in the volunteer office (Remington A, Hyatt) at 10:00 am Saturday and Sunday. If you are a volunteer or a staff member with light or unassigned hours, please plan to attend both meetings.

If for any reason you are unable to attend the Saturday meeting, please stop by the Volunteer office as early as you can on Saturday, so we can arrange your schedule.

We have run out of ribbons. Starting today, you will need to leave your Staff or Volunteer ribbon at the Staff/Gopher lounge when you visit there. When you report to the Volunteer office in the Hyatt for an assignment, we'll give you a ribbon or tag then. Anyone without a scheduled work time will need to sign up at the Plaza and Hyatt. Do not be alarmed if a Volunteers Committee person walks up and asks for your ribbon while you are lounging, wandering, etc.

We always need more volunteers! If you'd like to help, stop by the Volunteer office (Hyatt or Civic Plaza). Thank you for helping us help you to enjoy yourself at the NASFiC.

—Ken Lemons, Volunteers dept. head

Bad News... The edict by hotel management that hot food cannot be prepared in convention rooms meant that the 25 gallons of soup-makings for the gopher hole had to be given away. As a result, sandwich-makings and our budget have been almost exhausted. Therefore, the gopher-hole and pro lounge will be putting out meat and cheese only part of the day. Peanut-butter and jelly will continue to be served at all times. Sorry, folks.

Handicapped Access

I'm sure you've noticed by now that a lot of people at this con are rolling along. There are probably more people on wheels here than at any con to date.

But we have "A Problem". Crossing from the Hyatt to the Plaza is hazardous to wheels. The regular ramp up from the street has been closed down, thanks to the destruction work. That's left us with a short ramp that's got the same angle as the stairs, far too steep for wheels to safely climb. Even Robert Adams threatening them with a lawsuit wasn't enough to open the portals.

So we need help. HELP! Any time you're crossing and see wheels trying to get up that flaming ramp, help them. All it needs is a little shove to aid the vehicle's power. It'll help everyone a lot. Also — open doors and hold elevators for us, please! Thanks a lot to everyone who's done it and thanks in advance to the rest of you.

Prickly Post

"You can cut colons in half for more periods. Also, semi-colons, but then you end up with a comma glut." — An admirer

"If you look at the inside cover of the Program Booklet, you'll realize the committee has managed to copyright this convention." — Anon.
