Dammit

Contrary to errant reports, drugs (over-the-counter or otherwise) ARE NOT available in the Norwescon Office. Please accept our apologies for that misinformation. However, the hotel gift shop does carry a selection of OTC medications in individual-dosages packages, should such be needed.

IT'S A PERFECT MATCH ON MATCH GAME SF

Game Show Serves Up Matchromony – Live!

Match Game contestant Ron Dougherty astounded audience member and sweetheart Yvonne Reide with a surprise marriage proposal on the Match Game SF set Friday evening.

Ron, the first contestant, arranged with host Kevin Standlee and the Match Game crew to have a special first-round question allowing him to fill in the blank with his proposal to Ms. Reide.

We're pretty sure she said "yes."

OVERHEARD

At the Monster Mash:
"If my Great Grandma could see me, she'd slap me!" "Why, is she a Mennonite?" "No, she just really liked elephants."

"LIFER" CABAL EXPOSED along with its platform of doom!

Confidential sources alert Dirty. Little. SECRETS. to a secret cabal of unimpeachable "lifetime" members of Norwescon!

The secret platform reportedly consists of reduced hotel parking, mandatory shoe registration, all-meat hospitality, children in cages, service animals as volunteer snacks, all-talk-radio dances, and intentional cross-programming of all top-rated panels. DO YOU KNOW MORE? TELL US YOUR SECRETS!
