Tell Us What You Think

The Norwescon 36 (2013) guide has a feedback module. You can rate panels and answer some questions about how things went for you at the convention this year.

If you used the guide, please visit it one last time and submit your feedback. The module will be deactivated on May 1st.

Philip K. Dick Award Presented

The Philip K. Dick Award for distinguished science fiction published in paperback original format in the United States in the 2012 award year was presented at Norwescon 36(2013) on Friday, March 29th at 7pm in Grand Ballroom 2 to Bryan Slattery for LOST EVERYTHING. The special citation went to LOVE STAR by Andri Snaer Magnason. More information about this annual award can be found at www.philipkdickaward.org

Northwest College of Art & Design Scholarship

The recipient of this year's scholarship is Leanne Dunn. This is Leanne's second year of participating in the scholarship process and is also her second win. Norwescon congratulates Leanne and hopes that she has a bright and successful

Leanne and hopes that she has a bright and successful future. Kelsa Dill and Michael Young also presented outstanding work as part of this contest and received great praise. Thank you all for taking part in this year's event.

Norwescon36 Art Show Awards

Norwescon was graced with an amazing crop of artists this year. As usual, two separate sets of awards were presented the Judges' Awards and the People's Choice awards. Norwescon would like to thank this year's panel of judges including Betty Bigely and Don Lucky for their generous time and knowledge in helping judge this year's show. A complete listing of this years awards is available here.

Norwescon is a science, science fiction and fantasy convention that takes place on Easter Weekend each year. We are an all-volunteer organization and always have room for more dedicated volunteers. Without members, though, there would be no reason to hold a convention; thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Norwescon Publications Team
