"The Longest Night"

Announcing Norwescon's New Antiracism Statement, Code of Conduct, and Harassment Policy

At Norwescon we believe in periodically reexamining policies which are important to the convention. This year's executive team appointed a committee to review Norwescon's harassment policy, adopted in 2013. After several months engaged in meetings and sensitivity review, we are pleased to announce the new policy in advance of our virtual convention.

The policy has expanded to include an antiracism statement, code of conduct, and harassment policy. The committee's work also included amending the convention's mission statement to be congruent with the new policies. Norwescon is excited to more explicitly recognize the role it plays in uplifting marginalized voices in our community and to declare that we are an antiracist organization.

You may view the new policy here.

If you have questions or feedback for us, please write to the revision committee at safe@nnewscon.org.

Support our friends at OffWorld as they empty out their warehouse!

Our friends at OffWorld Designs - whom you've likely seen in the hotel lobby at Norwescon - have announced that they are retiring!

While we're sad to see them go, we're happy to have worked with them for many years now. They're holding a 50% off sale to clear out their warehouse, and we encourage everyone to go see what kind of good geeky t-shirts you can find!
