May involve a Personality Test. Hard to say. No prizes.

Greetings from the crew and Marine strike group of the USS Chinook. We will be receiving and commissioning our Nebula Class Variant II Starship on Saturday, April 3rd, at 4pm in the Maxi's Salon at Norwescon! We would be delighted if you would beam aboard and join us for the ceremony and celebration!

We have monthly crew meetings on the 3rd Saturday of the month.

OVERHEARD

"It's in the file 'bite-me-starfleet.txt'"

"It will pucker sphincters you didn't know you had."

"We're Security, not Safety!"

"You are the only man I know who complains his thing is too big."

"Have you gotten laid since last year?"

"No grab-ass in the line!"

"Oh, you mean tomorrow! We are totally tl;dr-ing it tomorrow."

The Singular Voice is the daily newsletter of Norwescon 33. The editors cannot be bribed as our needs and desires are beyond your imaginations, but news items, lulz, fish biscuits, and other treats may be left in submissions boxes at Information, Registration, and Office. Deadline for each day's issue is 10pm the night before. Oh, and just FYI: don't sign the billion-year contract. Who knew that shit was enforceable? I mean really.
