

NOVACON 3

PR 2

Hello again fans. Welcome to yet more of Novacon 3.

Your ever faithful committee has been hard at it since PR 1 thinking up brilliant ideas to keep you all happy at our little convention.

And we're delighted to be able to announce the arrival of the first ever award for the best British fanzine.

THE NOVA !!!

You can nominate your favourite zine, or even your own zine, for this fantastic award. Each of the nominated zines will then be considered by the judges, and the editor of the best zine will be presented at the con. All you need to do is to send your nominations, including the name of the zine, and its editor to:

Gillon Field, 109, Windsor Road, Halesowen, Worcestershire.

She'll see it gets to the judges. And they are no less than:

Ken Bulmer    Jim Linwood    Phil Rogers    Tony Walshe

All the gumph is on the accompanying sheet. Remember the sooner you send the nomination the better.

We've got lots of other great supprises in store for you. We'll be telling you about them in the next PR's. If there's anything you really want to see at Novacon 3 remember we are still open to suggestions.

Come back next PR for more exiting adventures of the intrepid committee in their fight against boredom. (and at only 50p the lot!)

So as your chairman sinks slowly in the west, say BIBI till next time., same fanpage, same fancon, ~~same~~ more faninfo.
