GAMING

All of the scheduled games sessions have LIMITED ATTENDANCE. Sign-up sheets will be posted in the Ross Island room. Additional scheduled gaming may occur. Please check the bulletin board in the Ross Island Room. If you are interested in running any games and need assistance, please contact Andrew Nisbet. The gaming rooms will be closed 4 A.M. to 7 A.M. Any games still running at 4 A.M. must shut down or be moved to your own hotel room(s).

Open Gaming: Bring your own game or play one of ours. Copies of Illuminati, Cosmic Encounters, Dungeons!, Car Wars, Dragonriders of Pern, Toon, The Legend of Robin Hood, and Triplanetary are available for gaming in the Ross Island Room. These games are NOT to be removed from the Ross Island Room, and violation of this rule may result in loss of your membership.

Workshops: If you've never played a Role Playing Game, or have never played one of these Role Playing Games, come to a workshop and build a character. Or come to the Friday noon introduction to role playing session and meet the gamers. Then come to the game(s) and play your heart out.

No Smoking will be allowed at the scheduled games sessions without the Game Master's approval.

FRIDAY

Noon: ROLE PLAYING: HARMLESS PASTIME OR SATANIC CULT? (Do you know where your children are?) - An introduction to role playing and role players. If you've never played a role playing game and would be interested in playing one at the convention, drop by and talk to us. We promise not to bite!

4 P.M. CHAMPIONS WORKSHOP: Superhero role playing. Look! Up in the sky! (1 hour)

6 P.M. STALKING THE NIGHT FANTASTIC WORKSHOP: Hunt the paranormal horrors of modern society (remember the Nightstalker TV series?). (1 hour)

8 P.M. BUSHIDO WORKSHOP: Japanese fantasy role playing. Be a samurai, ninja, etc. (1 hour)

9 P.M. BUSHIDO: Characters must be built at the 8 P.M. workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (5 hours +) Prize provided by Endgames.

9 P.M. EXCURSION INTO THE BIZARRE: Characters must be built at the 6 P.M. workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (2 hours +)

9 P.M. CHAMPIONS: Characters must be built at the 4 P.M. workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (4 hours +) Prize provided by the Military Corner.

SATURDAY

9 A.M. STAR FLEET BATTLE TOURNAMENT: 1st session of 4. No novice Star Fleet Battles players. Single elimination. (2 hours) Prize provided by The Military Corner.

10 A.M. PARANOIA WORKSHOP: Be happy! Please report promptly to the cloning labs. Refusing the computer's guidance is treasonous. (1 hour)

11:30 A.M. STAR FLEET BATTLES TOURNAMENT: 2nd session of 4. See 9 A.M. for requirements. (2 hours)

Noon: PARANOIA: Your clone family, with ignorance, suspicion, and handy laser, seeks obscure menaces for the omniscient computer. You must attend the 10 A.M. workshop or risk clone evaluation. (3 hours) Your service will be rewarded by the computer. Prize provided by The Military Corner.

Noon: IDIOTS & IMBECILES: Bring ANY character. Maximum of 8 players at a time, otherwise come and go as you please. (12 hours) Prize provided by Endgames.

2 P.M. STAR FLEET BATTLES TOURNAMENT: 3rd session of 4. See Saturday 9 A.M. for requirements. (2 hours)

4 P.M. STALKING THE NIGHT FANTASTIC: Characters must have been built at the Friday 6 P.M. workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (3 hours)

4:30 P.M. STAR FLEET BATTLES TOURNAMENT: 3rd session of 4.
See Saturday 9 A.M. for requirements. (2 hours)

5 P.M. I.C.E. (Rolemaster) WORKSHOP: Fantasy role playing
(1 hour)

6 P.M. I.C.E. (Rolemaster): Characters must be built at the 5 P.M. workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (6 hours) Prize provided by Endgames.

8 P.M. DAREDEVILS 1930'S pulp roleplaying. No novice
Daredevils players. Characters must be approved by the Game
Master. (6 hours) Prize provided by the Military Corner.

SUNDAY

11 A.M. CHILL WORKSHOP: Role playing among supernatural phenomena. (1 hour)

11 A.M. TWILIGHT 2000: Characters will be provided by the Game Master. Novices welcome (5 hours) Prize provided by Endgames.

Noon: CHILL. Characters must be built at the 11 A.M.
workshop or have the Game Master's approval. (3 hours)

RESTAURANT & VISITORS' GUIDE

This lists almost every place to eat in a 20-block square centered on the hotel (see map). There are a few listings outside that square (with no grid coordinates listed), favorites that I think fans will like. PORTLAND IS FULL OF WONDERFUL PLACES TO EAT. If nothing here appeals, I recommend anything in Willamette Week's annual Restaurant Guide, just out. There's a copy or two in Hospitality and maybe at Registration.

Where Mon-Thurs hours are different from the weekend, they're omitted.

BLD refers to Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner. Minors are OK unless specified.

Prices listed are per the menu; beverage/dessert/tip are extra.

[Visa, Mastercard, checks -- are listed only when known]

Menu: one is included in the binder of menus in the Hospitality suite -- have a look.

: I think it's special.

WW: Willamette Week had something to say about it.

MAX: you can get there easily with Light Rail (see below).

About addresses: All addresses listed are NE unless noted. (Burnside and the Willamette River are the dividing lines between quadrants. N. Portland is between NE and the river; downtown is inner SW).

Saturday Market SW 1st under the Burnside Bridge

Sa 10-5, Sun 11-4:30

Booths spring up from the asphalt each weekend to offer all kinds of handcrafted goods. Food, too, from BBQ ribs to veggie tempura. The Skidmore Fountain and New Market Theater buildings next door are historic outside, little shops inside.

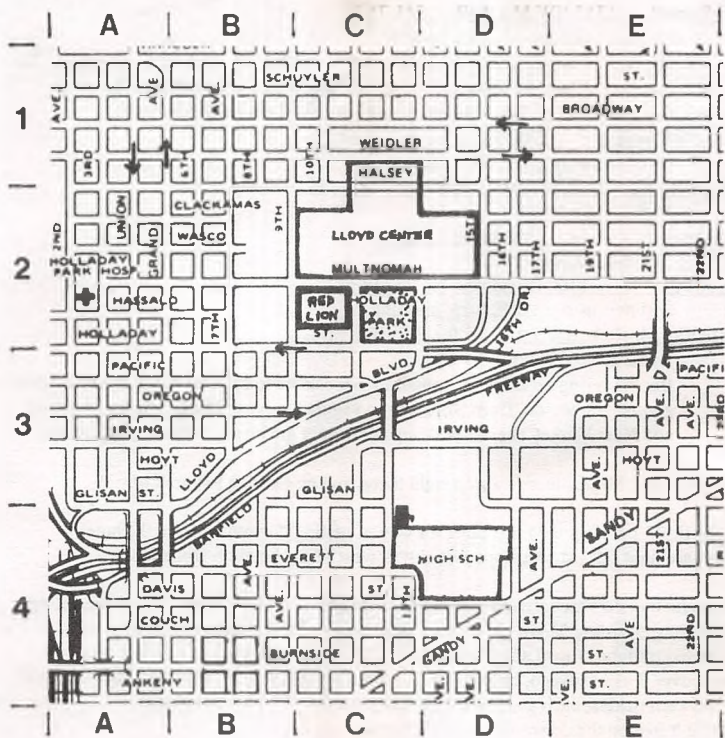

Take MAX - there's a stop right there, and no parking to speak of.

Light Rail - possibly the most pleasant way of getting downtown from the hotel.

There are light rail (MAX) stops just east & west of the hotel on Holladay.

Fares and transfers are interchangeable with the bus. Buy fares from the machine at the stop before boarding MAX. Minimum cash fare is 85c; that gets you 90 min. of unlimited train/bus travel anywhere within 2 zones. (i.e. anywhere this side of Vancouver, Lake Oswego, or 90th.) Other options: $2.50 goes anywhere for 24 hours. $5 buys ten tickets, each good one hour/one zone (OryCon to downtown). Or ride it free on the downtown side of the river!

Weekends, MAX runs roughly every 15-30 minutes from 6am- midnight. There are schedules in Hospitality (also bus map and book of bus schedules -- for viewing only!)
