RiverCon VI

Louisville, Kentucky

Masquerade participants are urgently reminded to return their completed forms by 6:00 P.M. today. Masquerade pre-judging begins at 9:00 P.M. in the rear of the Archibald Room (behind the curtain). If you are going to be in the masquerade and wish to bid on an item in the art show, you can request specific items to be put up for auction during the first session. Please see the art show staff.

There will be filksinging in the King's Head Room following the masquerade and lasting until all voices have given out.

The hotel pool will remain open until 2:00 A.M. tonight. A life-guard will be on duty.

Marian Brown and Lynn Harris of the registration staff wish to announce that they spotted a 9.7 on a scale of 10 and also an interesting specimen in black leather.

Andrew J. Offutt's talk at 5:00 P.M. in the King's Head Room is titled "Covering Your Ass" or "How to Cover Up Your Mistakes in SF Writing."

Phyllis Eisenstein will be joining the panel for the Resnick Roast following the banquet.

EXPERT MIMEO SERVICES from Joint Venture Enterprises. Fanzines printed. Electrostencils cut. See Dick or Nicki Lynch in the huckster room for more information (we're at the table with the art prints). Adv't.

Volunteers are still needed for various staff jobs around the con. Especially needed are fans who are willing to work in the art show, hospitality suite, etc. during the banquet. Anyone interested in helping out should check in the headquarters room on the third floor (open 24 hours).

Registrar Sue Francis reports that as of 12:00 midnight, RiverCon VI had a total of 730 fans registered, with 668 actually in attendance.

Please pick up a copy of the RiverCon Feedback Form at the registration desk and fill it out. We need your input to make future RiverCons even better.
