

TROPICON II

P.O. Box 7194
Boca Raton, FL 33431

PRESS RELEASE
October 17, 1983

Excitement, adventure and fantasy - that's tropicon II - "The South Florida Science Fiction Convention" on December 2-4, 1983 at the Holiday Inn, Fort Lauderdale West, 5100 North State Road 7 (US 441 at Commercial Blvd). Features of this convention for Science Fiction "Fans" include Panel Discussions with authors and celebrities, an Art Show, a Buffet Banquet, Costumes, Films, Exhibits, Contests and Prizes.

The Guest of Honor will be Marion Zimmer Bradley, author of MISTS OF AVALON and creator of the adventure series - DARKOVER. David Kyle, publisher of GNOME PRESS, Science Fiction historian, author of several LENSMAN books and 1983 WORLD SCIENCE FICTION GUEST OF HONOR will be featured. Lee Hoffman, author of about twenty-five Science Fiction and Western novels will be a special guest.

The Banquet honoring Marion Zimmer Bradley will be a special event, capped by her Guest of Honor Speech. Tickets for this Poolside Buffet on Saturday Night are only $13.00. Please reserve your tickets by Thursday, December 1.

Advance registration in the convention is only $10.00 per person until October 30. Registration fees rise to $15.00 after October 30 and at the door. All advance registrants are eligible for a special drawing to win a book package valued at over $50.00.

For information about registration, banquet tickets, art show and Dealer's Room contact:

Tropicon II
P.O. Box 7194
Boca Raton
FL 33431