Program Notes

- “(CR)” denotes rooms in the Red Lion Columbia River (the non-party hotel); “(JB)” denotes rooms in the Red Lion Jantzen Beach (the party hotel).
- See the daily convention newsletter for last-minute schedule changes.
- Most program items are scheduled into 90-minute slots. However, they should last at most 75 minutes (1 hour 15 minutes), allowing 15 minutes for everyone to get to their next panel (which will be, of course, “In The Other Hotel”). Program Volunteers will remind each program item to stop at the 75-minute point.
- Program items that do not begin on a 90-minute boundary have their start time noted in parentheses after the item name in the schedule grids.
- Program items in the Wallowa Room (CR), noted “(Small Group),” will be limited to 14 people (including the person or people listed here). You must sign up for these items in the Office in advance.

Children at Westercon

Children must be accompanied by an adult in order to purchase a membership, and all children must be registered with the convention. Those five and under (and any other child whose parent requests it) will receive a hospital-type ID bracelet. This bracelet will list the parent’s (or responsible adult’s) name, and hotel room number (if applicable). At all times, these children must be under the supervision of an adult, or in the day care facility. If a young child is found unattended, that child will be delivered to the day care area, and the parent will be billed for the day care received. Children 5 and under will still be admitted free to the convention.

We recognize that many children in the 6 to 12 range are capable of independent activity. Therefore, as long as they are causing no problems, they do not have to be under adult supervision. However, if they are not capable of independence, then they must be under adult supervision, or in the day care facility, as above. Children 6-12 are admitted at half the adult price; ID bracelets are not required, but suggested.

Weapons Policy

In line with the standard practice at most major conventions, including recent Worldcons as well as most Portland conventions for the last several years, the carrying and wearing of weapons will not be permitted, except as part of a Masquerade contestant's costume, or as part of other designated events, and then only during the event, or in transit to and from the event. The use of a weapon as part of the Masquerade must be approved by the Masquerade Director prior to the event. Failure to do so is grounds for immediate expulsion from the convention.

The Convention committee defines as weapons any object designed to cause bodily harm, or any replica of such an object and any other object the Committee determines to be dangerous. However the committee reserves the right to amend this definition of a weapon, and the right to impound weapons for the duration of the convention.

Any weapons purchased in the Dealer's Room must be securely wrapped.

The committee realizes that most people who would like to carry and wear weapons are sensible and careful individuals. However, because of the present liability laws, the risk of weapons causing accident or distress, and to preserve relationships with convention hotels, we have had to adopt this policy. The safety of convention members has to be our overriding consideration.

Smoking Policy

In order to make the convention more enjoyable for everyone, there will be no smoking allowed in the indoor convention areas. Both Red Lion hotels have quite an open design, with many decks and balconies, and the pleasant summer weather will make it quite reasonable for smokers to step outside for a quick break.

Of course, smoking is still allowed in the bars, the smoking areas in the restaurants, and in private sleeping rooms. We just want to cut down on clouds of smoke being trapped in enclosed areas, and causing problems for non-smokers.

Gaming

Welcome to Westercon Gaming!

We have at Pettygroveted to schedule a variety of games, so, hopefully, there will be something for everyone. All role-playing games will have sign-up sheets. These will be posted in a visible and accessible location at least 4 hours prior to game time. Sign-up sheets for the early morning games will be posted the previous evening. For more complete information about game times, see the game schedule in this pocket program.

Trading-card gamers: out of consideration for other conventioners, we must ask that you try to restrict your activities to the scheduled times and places in the convention areas. No card selling will be allowed in the gaming areas. Trading is okay. We would also like to remind you all to use common sense with regard to the safety of your cards. Please, do not leave them unattended. Simple sensibility will save you all a lot of misery.

No Westercon gaming rooms may be used to run any game for a fee. (We are non-profit and want to stay that way.) Alcohol is not permitted in any gaming area, nor will smoking be allowed. There are designated areas for both of these. No lasertag, TAG or other assassin games are scheduled nor will they be allowed. Violation of these rules will probably result in loss of convention membership.

A reminder: There will be a lot of people spending a lot of time in small enclosed spaces. Bad smells make bad impressions. So, take a little time to keep up personal hygiene. If problems arise, games will be interrupted and the room vacated to allow it to air out. So, remember, do your part to keep our games running smoothly.

Thank you.

Mary Olsen Karl Krehbiel

Magic Tournament Information

The Magic: The Gathering tournament at 3:00 PM Saturday will be a Type II Tournament. The list of restricted and banned cards will be posted for those who need to review it.

Important: Participants must be signed up and have their decks ready by 3:00 PM Saturday. Participants will sign in with their decks at that time. Decks will be checked by an impartial judge or assistant at that time.

Notice

Cry Havoc is here. Only their finals are scheduled in a gaming room. If you are interested, please look for their flyers for opening rounds.

Restaurant, Entertainment and Services Guide

by Pat MacAodha

edited by David Levine

Welcome to Portland's favorite Con Escape site: the Red Lion Jantzen Beach (AKA "The Other Hotel") and Red Lion Columbia River (AKA "The Other Hotel") on Hayden Island. These two hotels are within walking distance of the Jantzen Beach Shopping Center, which offers a variety of shops, restaurants, and a carousel. The only challenge to have access to all this is managing to cross the road without becoming somebody's hood ornament. (We recommend that adults accompany children—the kids are usually better at these things than grown-ups are.) An occasional walk or jog along the historic Columbia River is also a possibility for fitness enthusiasts.

The I-5 corridor provides a useful umbilical between Hayden Island, Vancouver, Portland and all points beyond. Vancouver is just over the Interstate Bridge to the north, and the bulk of Portland lies to the south. Heading into Portland, be sure to watch for the "City Center" exits, unless you fancy getting lost in North Portland, the West Hills, or one of our beautiful, scenic warehouse districts.

Downtown Portland is 7 miles south on I-5, accessible by both car and bus. If you are a "Con-or-nothing" type, you're stuck on Hayden Island, but if you need some away time, the metropolitan area features an excellent variety of food and entertainment possibilities. Exploring Portland, alone, can be an adventure worth the pursuit. (Even the warehouse district has its possibilities—Powell's City of Books, the bookstore with its own map, is in that vicinity.) Historic Fort Vancouver, once the site of the Hudson's Bay Company, is a great way to explore history up close and personal (I stole that part).

Remember to make reservations at any restaurant that is not a fast-food place, pizzeria, or Denny's clone. Large groups are welcome at any restaurant with enough notice, but descending en masse and without warning on a restaurant may cause the staff to be as enthused about serving you as they would be about entertaining a herd of Triffids. Reserve ahead. It can't hurt! There are a number of specialty restaurants in the area, and copies of the Oregonian's A&E (Arts & Entertainment) section and the Willamette Week restaurant guides will be available for your perusal at the Information Desk. Listings included here are just tip of the iceberg for local dining and entertainment. We offer a variety of suggestions that span the continuum from "plastic food" to fine dining. Enjoy!

Pedestrians: to cross I-5 and live to tell about it, go under the freeway between the two Red Lions' parking lots.

Red Lion Dining

If you are one of those who reserved your room here with a Visa or MasterCard, you can dine at any Red Lion restaurant and charge your food and drink to your room account. Also, if you want to dine at "The Other Hotel" or at the Red Lion Inn At The Quay (located just across the bridge in Vancouver), you can make restaurant reservations at your own hotel and reserve the hotel shuttle to take you back and forth. Please give the shuttle service at least one hour's notice if you plan to take advantage of these transportation options.

Red Lion Columbia River

Brickstones Bar — 240-4291

Mon–Fri 11:30 AM–midnight;

Sat–Sun 11:30 AM–1:30 AM

Food and drink available, sometimes handles overflow from Brickstones Restaurant. This place makes Callahan's Crosstime Saloon look like the Quiet Bar, and television is King. Skill in sign language will be a plus here, and the only way you'll be able to converse unless you are a shantyman or you like laryngitis.

Brickstones Restaurant — 240-4567

*Lunch: Mon–Fri 11:30 AM–2 PM; Dinner:
Sun–Thu 5–10 PM; Sat–Sun Brunch: 8:00
AM–1:30 PM; Dinner 5–11 PM*

Slower during peak service hours, can flow over into the Quiet Bar or Brickstones Bar. Pricy, but good food. (Or see Red Lion Jantzen Beach or Inn At The Quay).

Quiet Bar — 283-2111, ext. 4627

Usually open Friday and Saturday 8 PM–midnight. (If there are special hours to accommodate the Con, we'll tell you in the Daily Zine.)

Meals can be ordered here, minus the TV mania, but if you're not a fire-breathing dragon, bring your gas mask and goggles; maybe a telescope will be useful for finding the party you promised to meet.

Coffee Garden — 283-2111, ext. 4412

Usual hours 6 AM–midnight—unless they change their minds.

The Coffee Garden is a Red Lion institution, and the best place to be able to find the party you agreed to meet. The hours are pretty good, but for even later or earlier rendezvous, Denny's is open 24 hours. The Coffee Garden has the best prices of any of the Red Lion restaurants, and a fair variety. Vegetarian is available.

Sayler's Old Country Kitchen — 10519 SE Stark, Portland; 252-4171
Home of the 72-oz. steak, and all kinds of steaks, chicken and seafood besides. Go with a Portlander if you don't want to get lost, but don't miss the opportunity. This is one place where you can't reserve and will have to wait in line. It's worth the wait!

Sylvia's — 5115 NE Sandy Blvd., Portland; 288-6828
Outstanding Italian food in Portland's Hollywood District. Veal Scaloppine alla Benissimo!!, Canneloni, Chicken Cacciatore and more. Ummm! Reservations please.

Mummy's — 622 SW Columbia, Portland;

Middle Eastern food in a "verry interesting" setting. Who knows, Lon Chaney's ghost may join you for dinner here. All kidding aside, the food is excellent. Call for reservations.

Trader Vic's — 309 SW Broadway in the Benson Hotel, Portland; 295-4130

Excellent food, outstanding service, Polynesian ambiance, but no hula dancers. TV's is still one of Portland's finest. Call for reservations.

Bush Garden — 900 SW Morrison, Portland;
226-7181

Fine Japanese cuisine, not for the limited pocketbook. Reserve early to get a private dining area, and remember to take off your shoes. One of the restaurant guide producer's personal favorites for over 20 years. Bush Garden offers elegant dining in an elegant atmosphere.

I have to stop here. There are so many excellent restaurants, and only a limited space in the pocket guide. Come back to Portland again, Westerconners. We promise to regale you with even more wonderful choices.

“Historic” Hawthorne District

Portland's answer to Greenwich Village, though more sanitized and yuppified. Food (lots of variety), served in restaurants and cafes that blend in with the semi-Victorian/immigrant atmosphere of the neighborhood; lots of speciality shops offering everything you never imagined you wanted for your cat, dog, bird, bike, garden, bath, etc. Art galleries, magical shops and Espresso to the 4th power. If it's unusual and it can't be found in the Hawthorne District, it's not worth finding (according to the “natives”)! Take I-5 to the Morrison Bridge exit, go east to SE 7th, turn left onto Hawthorne and go east, young (or old) fan. The best part of the Hawthorne District starts at about 30th and goes up the hill to about 52nd avenue.

“Murder Served Hot” at the Portland Inn, 1414 SW 6th at Clay; 524-4366; by advance reservation.

Every weekend.

Dinner with a murder mystery—and the murderer may be sitting beside you!

Powell's City of Books — 1005 W Burnside; 228-4651

One of the biggest bookstores in the world, and known around the world. Contains the Anne Hughes Reading Room, a coffee shop where you can enjoy espresso, regular coffee, tea, seltzers, sandwiches, soup and a yummy selection of pastries from local Portland bakeries while checking out that stack of books you found on the sale table in the Rose Room. Many of Portland's literati have been spotted rubbing elbows with the rest of us at Powell's.

Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI) — 1945 SE Water Ave. at Clay St.; 797-4000 (current exhibit; Sky Theater; Submarine Tour; Laser Light Show). 9:30 AM–5:30 PM; Thu–Fri, 9:30 AM–9 PM
