

Art Show

Art show space is sold on a per piece basis. There is a hanging fee of 50¢ per piece and a 10% commission on every piece sold. There will be a locked showcase available for small pieces. Mail-in art is accepted and should be sent to

WisCon 11 Art Show
Care of: 20th Century Books
108 King Street
Madison, WI 53703

Artist check-in will be open from 12 noon to 6 PM on Friday, and from 9 AM to 12 noon on Saturday.

Art Auction

A special item to be auctioned at Wiscon 11 is the original manuscript for Suzette Haden Elgin's novel, Native Tongue. A sequel, The Judas Rose, is scheduled for February from DAW. We expect the usual high quality of artwork at WisCon, from artists all over the country.

Huckster Room

A limited number of 8 foot dealer's tables are available for $25 each, with a limit of 2 per vendor. Table fees do not include convention registration. Include table fees with your WisCon registration.

Masquerade

There will be the ever popular WisCon Masquerade, held on Saturday afternoon, hosted by the urbane and witty Greg Rihn. Register to compete at the door.

Programming

In keeping with the tradition of fine feminist programming at WisCon, we will have numerous panels including: an interview with Avedon Carol, Films of Frank Capra, Use of ShapeChangers in Contemporary Fantasy, CyberPunks in Space, Men in SF (What Do They Want?), Women Writers You Probably Should Be Reading, and many more!

Film Program

We have an exciting lineup of films this year, including the original version of Cat People, directed by Jacques Tourneur in 1942. Also scheduled are 2010, Night of the Comet, The Hunger, Quest for Fire, and The Secret of NIMH. There will be a video room with an equally fine selection for your viewing pleasure.

Dessert Function and Guest of Honor Reception

The popular dessert function is back from last year, with your tastes in mind. New and improved desserts as well as coffee, tea, and milk. Speeches by Guests of Honor, Connie Willis and Avedon Carol. Order your ticket now, with your WisCon registration.
