NOTES FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK

An amazing thing has happened. We're close to selling out! As of the end of April we had registered over 600 members. We anticipate being completely sold out by the beginning of summer. By all accounts this is a record, no other World Fantasy Convention has sold out so fast and so soon.

Why has this happened? We'd like to think that it has to do with the fact that we have extraordinary guests of honor, which we do; and that the convention is being held in Lovecraft country, which of course it is; but I think something else is happening too. I think that the fine tradition and reputation that the World Fantasy Convention has in the field has contributed to our success. Our thanks go out to the past conventions for the great tradition they've established and perpetuated.

If you haven't registered yet, or know of someone who hasn't, please advise them to do so soon because we are limited to 750 members.

We have included hotel registration cards for our primary hotel with this report. Please send it back to the Biltmore as soon as possible. We have also included information on our back-up hotel, the Holiday Inn, which is a 'short' Rhode Island block away.

Banquet information and a response card have also been included in this report. Due to the traditionally limited space at these we suggest you register early if you plan on attending.

Your cancelled check is your membership verification. Should you need further confirmation or verification please write to us at the convention PO box as we will be glad to help.

Premiering Publications at the WFC?

In our next progress report we'd like to help you announce the new publications which will be premiered at the convention. If you are interested please write to us and list the publisher, type of book or magazine, author(s) and artist(s) featured and list price. Please address your letters to the convention PO box, attention New Books.

Program Book Packets

All of the estimated 900 members of the convention will receive Program Book Packets. These will include magazines, books, posters, book flats and other promotional material furnished by publishers. This is an excellent way to promote both authors and imprints. The number of items donated doesn't have to total 900 and may be composed of several titles.

The next progress report will feature our programming report and will include our 'What to do in Providence' section along with any information updates that become necessary.

There is no ad space available for the progress reports. This is the last progress report before the program book goes to press. All ads for the program book must be in our hands by the end of July. Please note the requirements and price list for ads. There is only limited ad space available in the program booklet so we suggest you reserve your space early.

PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

We invite interested writers, artists, editors, publishers or other professionals who are interested in participating in the Program to drop us a line. If there is anything you're just dying to talk about, or anything you hope you don't have to talk about; please let us know. Our program committee is well-read, but they are human. If you don't know any of them personally and you want a spot on the program, please introduce yourself by letter.

VOLUNTEERS

Always welcome. We will be offering membership rebates on an hours-worked basis. If you are interested, please let us know.

THE DEALERS ROOM IS SOLD OUT.
THE ART SHOW IS TOTALLY BOOKED
THE CONVENTION IS 80% SOLD OUT

THE BANQUET

The banquet will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m., at which time the 1986 World Fantasy Awards will be presented. Our toastmaster will be Doug Winter.

The menu for the banquet is:

Fresh Fruit Cup

Biltmore Salad

Roast Top Round of Beef or Chicken KIEV

Potato and Fresh Vegetable

Baked Alaska

Coffee, Tea, Decaffeinated Coffee, or Milk

The price for the banquet is $22 US. per person. Seating is limited, we have room for 350, and we must know in advance if you plan to attend. Please use the enclosed form to make your reservations and to indicate your choice of entree. The tickets will be distributed at the convention registration desk.

Should you have special dietary requirements please write and let us know how we may help. Please address all enquiries about the menu to the convention address in care of Mary Booth.

AD RATES

Program Book ad rates are as follows:

Full page - $200

Half page - $120

Quarter page - $75

Inside covers - $250

The format will be 7" by 10" for a full page ad. All ads must be camera ready.

Half-tones should be 125-250 lines.

MEMBERSHIP RATES

Limited to 750 members

$45 Full membership

$20 Supporting membership

These are the rates currently in force and supercede any other published rates with the receipt of this progress report. There will be no memberships sold at the door.

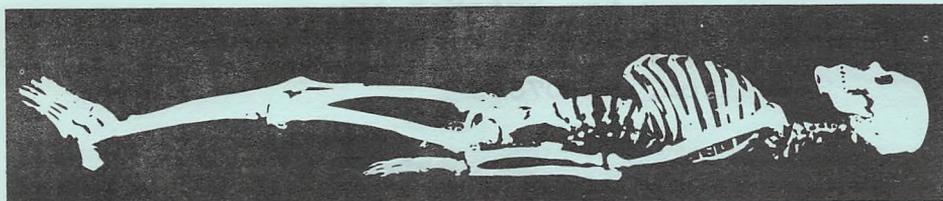

Supporting memberships are available until October 15, 1986 at $20. Supporting members receive all publications of the World Fantasy Convention.

Because we expect to sell out by the beginning of the summer we will not be able to convert any supporting memberships purchased after August 1, 1986 to full memberships.

Any supporting member who has purchased their membership before that date may convert to full membership at any time.

SECURITY

The World Fantasy Conventions have established a reputation as a literary fantasy convention for people who enjoy programming. Therefore there is no video program, almost no film, no masquerading, no wargaming and generally little media emphasis. You will also see no hall costumes or weapons. We wish to emphasize the "THE CONVENTION RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REVOKE MEMBERSHIPS WITH CAUSE AND THAT SUCH MEMBERSHIPS ARE NOT REFUNDABLE."

HOTEL

The Biltmore Hotel is located in the heart of Providence. The hotel has offered us special convention rates starting at $65.00 per single and $75.00 per double. There are deluxe rooms available at $85.00. These rates are available from October 30 - November 3, 1986. Check in time is 3 pm.

You may call the convention hotel directly. Their number is (401) 421-0700. Please let them know if you will be a late arrival so that they will hold your room.

Due to the size of the convention anyone who needs to rent a suite must contact our chairman Bob Plante. Please write to him at the convention address.

Our back up hotel is the Holiday Inn. Their telephone number is (401) 831-3900. They are offering a double room for $62.

WORLD FANTASY AWARDS

The judges for the 1986 World Fantasy Awards are:

Robert A. Collins
Ellen Datlow
Dean R. Koontz
Patricia McKilip
T.M. Wright

All ballots for the World Fantasy Awards must be postmarked by June 25, 1986. If you haven't submitted yours it is still not too late. Ballots were sent with the first progress report.

Please send all ballots to:

Mr. Pete Pautz
PO Box H
Wheaton, NJ 07885

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

The convention is happy to announce that American Airlines has been chosen as our Official Carrier. American has offered a 40% discount from their regular coach fare with no minimum length of stay requirement if tickets are purchased at least 14 days prior to departure. They are also offering 3000 bonus miles for convention members who sign up for their Frequent Flyer program and an additional 2000 bonus miles for those members who travel within 60 days of receiving their advantage numbers. American will work through your travel agent or you can call directly at 1-800-433-1790. The World Fantasy Convention Identification Number is S3620.

The hotel is about ten miles from Green Airport and is serviced by a free shuttle. Logan International (Boston) is about 45 minutes away. Bus service from Logan to Providence leaves on the hour ($10).

The bus station is located across the street from the hotel, and the train station is two blocks away.

Providence is located off a major interstate highway (I95). The Biltmore is in the heart of the downtown district.
