We have on display rare books, letters, and other fantasy, horror, and sf-oriented items of importance. Also in this room will be display-only artwork and other exhibition items. The room will be open Friday from 1-6pm and Saturday 10am-6pm.

The convention has published an informational catalog of the rare items displayed in the room. One copy is being provided to each attendee to enhance your enjoyment of the display.

Depending on logistics being worked out, we may also display items being sold at the Rare Book Auction at 9pm on Saturday night.

RARE BOOK AUCTION

We are having a Rare Book Auction Saturday night at 9 pm. It will be conducted in the Mesquite Room (opposite the Mesquite Restaurant at the Doubletree).

A few items will be allowed to be entered for auction at the convention...please see Randal Rau, the Convention Chairman, for entry. We will try to arrange to have the items on display in the Rare Book Room prior to the auction. Otherwise, they will be displayed for a few minutes before the start of bidding.

We reserve the right to limit quantities and to judge the suitability of items submitted. The convention will charge 10% on items sold. There is no entry fee or charge on unsold items. ALL BIDDERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO PAY EITHER IN CASH, TRAVELLERS' CHECKS, OR CHECK WITH BANK GUARANTEE CARD AND PICTURE ID.

SHUTTLE SERVICE

The convention has had an unprecedented number of members reserve rooms, probably due to the unusually large number of professionals attending this year's WFC. Therefore, we have had to book rooms in other hotels.

Because of this we've paid for a van service to the Aztec Inn (which is next to The Lodge on the Desert) and Embassy Suites. It will make a continuous run servicing the Doubletree, Aztec Inn, and Embassy Suites during the following hours: Thursday 6pm-midnight; Friday and Saturday 9am-noon, 5pm-8pm, and midnight-3am; and Sunday 9am-noon, 5pm-8pm, and 10pm-midnight.

SECURITY

This is a literary fantasy convention for people who enjoy attending the Program. Therefore, there is no video program, almost no films, no masquerade, no wargaming, and generally little media emphasis. You'll see no hall costumes or weapons and very few people even wearing a teeshirt. In fact, some we've seen who started out wearing them quietly disappear and return wearing civvies shortly afterwards.

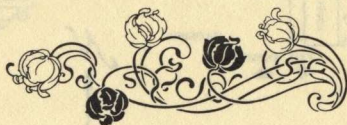

We wish to emphasize that MEMBERSHIPS ARE REVOCABLE WITH CAUSE AND WILL BE NON-REFUNDABLE. This is our way of saying that we reserve the right to ask those who cause serious problems to leave the convention. Fortunately, this is something we frankly don't expect to have to exercise.

HOSPITALITY SUITE

We will have the Suite open each night of the convention. Hours are 9pm-2am Thursday, 10pm-2am Friday, 9pm-2am Saturday (including a liquor-tasting at 9pm), and 9pm-midnight on Sunday.

The theme of the Suite will be Fantasy Holiday. We are offering the Suite (the Sandalwood Suite on the 9th floor) as a lounge for members and a convenient rendezvous. This is to help take pressure off the many room parties, which often get quite crowded.

Smoking will not be allowed in the main part of the Suite, but there will be a smoking-allowed room across the hall. The suite will be serving light snacks and beverages. Most important, THE DRINKING AGE FOR THE CONVENTION WILL BE 21 YEARS!

FUNCTION FACILITIES

All activities will be at the Doubletree Hotel.

DEALERS' ROOM will be the west half of the Grand Ballroom (accessed from the south side walkway).

ART SHOW is in the Boojum/Bonsai room, which is accessed from the south end of the hotel's interior.

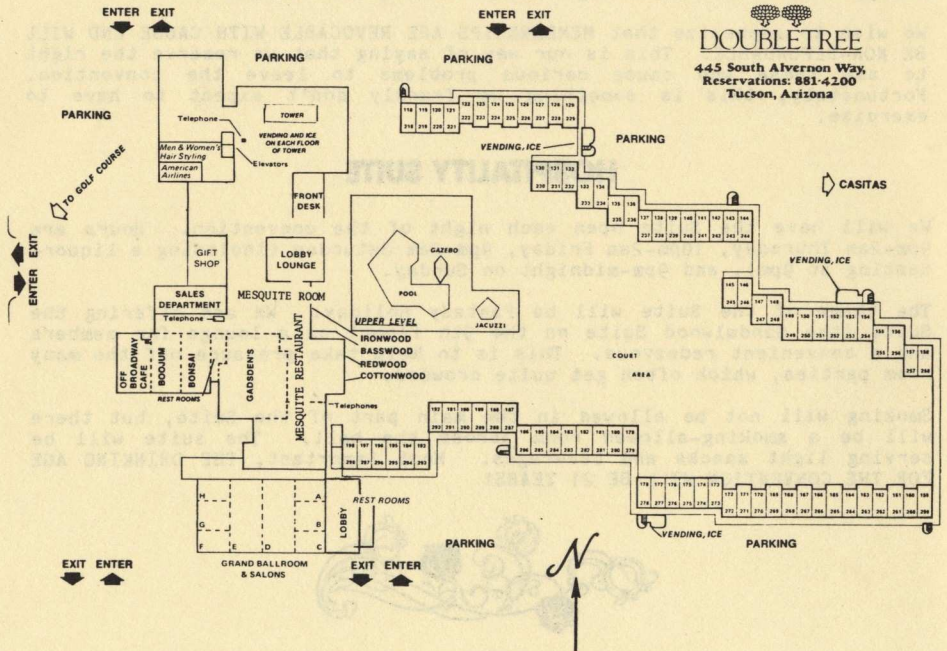

COTTONWOOD ROOM (Misc. Programming), CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS (Basswood Room), and RARE BOOK ROOM (Ironwood Room) are on the second floor at the south end of the hotel. Access is by stair (hotel has an elevator they can assist you with if you cannot use stairs) just outside of the Mesquite Restaurant.

PROGRAMMING is in the Grand Ballroom, sections A,B,C, and D. Rooms are accessed by the south walkway or from the Convention Lobby.

MESQUITE ROOM is across from the Mesquite Restaurant at the south end of the hotel's interior.

CONVENTION HOSPITALITY SUITE is in the Sandalwood Suite on the Ninth floor of the Tower section of the hotel, off the north end of the hotel lobby.

CONVENTION LOBBY is east of the Grand Ballroom. Daytime registration on Thursday and Friday, displays, tour information, information boards, and other general information is posted there.

RESTAURANTS

We've sampled the fare at the hotel's two restaurants, the Mesquite (fine dining) and Off-Broadway Cafe (good, but less-fine dining). The prices at the Cafe are reasonable (similar to Coco's). We can recommend both heartily, especially the Thresher Shark at the Mesquite. In addition, there are two lounges at the hotel (one off the Hotel Lobby and the other near the Art Show - Gadsden's).

Additionally, you might catch the convention's shuttle to The Lunt Avenue Marble Club (it's next door to the Aztec Inn, a half-mile north of the Doubletree). It's a mini-chain with quite good sandwiches, appetizers, and other college-crowd oriented food. But they don't check for a college id. For the really budget minded, there's a Circle K next door to the hotel.

MEMBERS

We will have available, posted on the convention's information center in the Convention Lobby, a complete list of convention members. A complete membership list, through the convention itself, will be published in Progress Report 4 after the convention.

THE NEXT PR

We will be printing a complete list of members, contributors to the Program Book Packet, thank you's, photos from our staff photographer, and a details of things that happened around the convention. We hope to mail it by November 30, 1985, depending on the condition of the committee!

OUR THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING ARTISTS

HOTEL

We managed to have the highest number of hotel rooms booked of any World Fantasy Convention to date. That's the good news. The bad news is that it's caused us to have some members booked at hotels outside of the Doubletree Hotel, the location of all convention functions. See TRANSPORTATION heading elsewhere in the Program Booklet.

If you have any problems with one of our hotels (The Doubletree, Aztec Inn, Lodge on the Desert, or Embassy Suites), please contact Bruce Farr - our Hotel Liason. He'll do his best to assist you. He can be contacted through the Convention Headquarters in the Basswood Room.

The Doubletree has arranged for 2pm checkout and for storage of your bags for those attending the Banquet and Awards Ceremony.

PROGRAM

Additional copies are for sale to members for $15.00 each. Only about 150 of the 1200-copy, limited edition are available. Please check at the Convention Registration desk on Thursday night to 9pm or Friday from 9am to 6pm, and the Convention Office in the Basswood Room at all other hours.

VOLUNTEERS

Like most conventions, we're looking for a few dozen good men (and women). Besides our undying gratitude, we're offering a membership refund for those who work at least 4 hours per day. Please contact either a Committee person or go to the Convention Office (Basswood Room).

BANQUET

As is traditional, the World Fantasy Awards will be presented during the banquet. No seating is available for non-ticket holders. The banquet is sold out as of the beginning of October at 300 tickets. If you did not specify your choice of entree, you will be getting Roast Pork Loin...if this is a problem for you (we mean a great problem), please let us know and we'll see if we can do a last-second switch. Leave a message at the convention office in the Basswood room along with how we can get in touch with you.

The banquet starts at 2pm, followed at 3pm with a few short speeches and announcements. The Awards will probably begin at 3:30pm and conclude by 4:30pm. A bar will be open until roughly 3:30pm.

If you paid for a banquet ticket, check the back of your membership badge. Your admission to the banquet is on the back of the badge along with your choice of entree (if other than Roast Pork Loin). The tickets are non-refundable and the seating is first-come, first-served. Non-Pork Loin diners will be given a card to mark their selection of Halibut or Vegetarian.

BABYSITTING

We have a babysitting co-op set up for the run of the convention. If you need to use the service, please contact the Convention Office (Basswood Room) to get into touch with Kim Farr. She is in charge of the service.

We will be having someone take care of the children during the Banquet/Awards Ceremony. Please contact us on arriving at the convention so we can set up the necessary details.
