From the Chairman...

Welcome to the final Progress Report for the 1993 World Fantasy Convention. With less than six weeks to go, our committee is finalizing preparations for the best convention yet. Memberships are still available, but there may be none left at the door. Please register early.

If you have any suggestions, problems or questions, please contact us now. If you wait any longer, we may not be able to fulfill your requests. We will be as accommodating as possible, but late requests could make things very difficult.

DreamHaven Books is proud to announce it will host a reception/mass autographing on Wednesday, Oct. 27. If you will be in Minneapolis on the evening preceding the convention and would like to participate, please contact myself or Peder at the DreamHaven number. If you are a professional interested in doing a signing or a reading on any other day you are here, we would be quite pleased to make arrangements with you.

See you in Minneapolis.

Hotel and Travel Info

Our convention will be held at the beautiful Radisson Hotel South in Bloomington, Minnesota. This hotel has 575 guest rooms and more function space than this convention could use, not to mention well-stocked bars and the best hospitality space you can imagine. Only 10 miles from the airport, the Radisson South is easily accessible for out of towners.

Our room rates are: $75.00 for single or double occupancy; $85.00 for triple or quad. Numerous suites are available: $150.00 for parlour and one bedroom; $225.00 for parlour and two bedrooms. There are nearby hotels with both higher and lower single room rates for those with no desire to stay at the convention hotel, but we do not encourage their use and there is still plenty of space within our room block at the Radisson.

Remember that Northwest Airlines has granted a five percent discount from all regular and special excursion fares for convention attendees. This discount is available to those whose flights originate in Canada as well as the United States. Northwest has more flights to Minneapolis than any other airline, and we are sure you will find them to have a schedule to fit your needs.

We encourage you to use our official airline and travel agency, since the convention receives valuable benefits based on your participation. The discount should be available through your own travel agent if we can't lure your business away.

For reservations and further information:
contact Ladera Travel Service, Inc.,
at (800) 624-6679 from the U.S. except California, within California at (310) 640-0527, or by fax at (310) 322-9900.

There will be a banquet on Sunday afternoon. The price of the banquet will be $30.00 per meal. We hope everyone will choose to attend. There will be seating for those who wish to come in after the meal to watch the awards ceremony. When requesting tickets, please specify your menu choice from those listed below:

BEEF ENTREE

Steak Frederick

Broiled Filet Mignon with Green Vegetables in a Cream Sauce

VEGGIE ENTREE

Pasta Primavera

Pasta with Peppercorn Mushroom Sauce

CHICKEN ENTREE

Baked Stuffed Breast of Chicken

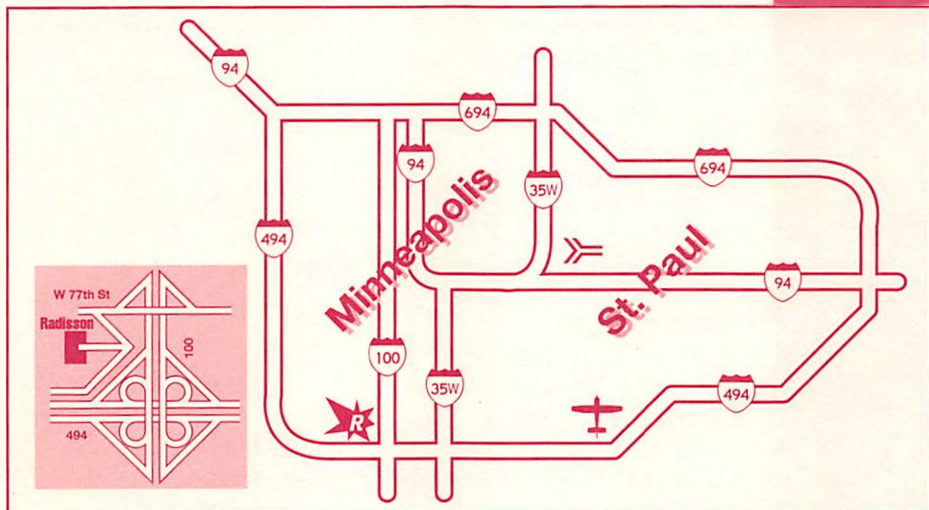

Boneless Breast of Chicken Stuffed with Smoked Gouda and Wild Rice

All Dinners are served with Salad, Fresh Vegetables, Potato, Rice or Pasta, Bread, Butter and Beverage.

Banquet tickets will continue to be available until 15-Oct-93 (postmark deadline, strictly enforced). We do not anticipate running out of space, but if we do your check will be returned. Banquet tickets probably will NOT be available at the convention.

Final Ballot for WFA 1992 Award Year

Membership and Hospitality Info

Membership in the World Fantasy Convention is limited to 750 paid, attending members. Because of this limit, sending in your registration does not guarantee membership. The rates are as follows:

Attending — $100
Supporting — $40
Child (12 or under) — $25

Memberships are transferable with written authorization from the original membership holder. This may be done either in advance by sending the authorization to the WFC P.O. box, or at the convention.

Somewhat to our surprise, we have not yet sold out our limit of 750 memberships. A precise statement of the position at the time this report went to press can be found with the membership list, but roughly speaking we have a couple of hundred memberships left. Accordingly, we will continue to accept memberships by mail until 15-Oct-93 (postmark deadline, strictly enforced). We will continue to send confirmation cards as we process memberships. If we are not sold out, we will sell memberships at the door.

The advantage to you in pre-registering is that the pre-registered lines at registration always move much faster than the at-the-door line. Also, because we pre-print name badges, you'll get a nicer badge than if you register at the door. Finally, we still expect to sell out before the con. Play it safe and pre-register.

If you have questions about memberships, please contact:
Beth Friedman — 874-7366

Hospitality is in Mr. C's and other rooms on the 22nd floor. We will be open from 6:00 PM Thursday until the end of the convention, and you will be able to find things to eat and drink at any time of the day or night. We will have bagels, pastries, fruit, and coffee in the morning, so stop in before your panel and fortify yourself. There will be a happy hour with mixed drinks from 6:00 to 8:00 PM and there will be hot food available at 7:30.

Friday and Sunday nights we will be having a juried music circle. If you are interested in playing, please write to us, ATTN Fred Levy Haskell. (If Fred has never heard you play, please mention someone who has, that he can contact).

Child pre-registration is $25. This allows you to use childcare Thursday evening, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. If you do not pre-register your child, we cannot guarantee space in childcare.

I'm not sure what the hours will be, but they will cover programming, dinner hours and the banquet. We will be accepting children from 6 months of age to 12 years. There will be toys and art supplies, sleeping space and, we hope, videos.

I would like parental input. I do not have children myself, and while I have worked with children for some time, I've discovered that parents are often a good source of ideas I wouldn't have thought of.
