WORLD FANTASY CONVENTION 1996

THE MANY FACES OF FANTASY

The 1996 World Fantasy Convention will be held in the Chicago suburbs the weekend of October 31st - November 3rd 1996. During the past few years, World Fantasy Conventions have focused on fantasy fiction centering on a certain region or specific interest. Our theme in 1996 is that fantasy has many faces - from horror to humor to high fantasy - and ranges from short stories to epic novels. They are all part of fantasy fiction and deserve equal attention. Thus, our guest list reflects the wide diversity of the Many Faces of Fantasy. And our convention is a celebration of the wonderful diversity of the literature we all love.

If you've attended the World Fantasy Conventions held in Chicago in 1983 or 1990, you'll notice that many of the same people who hosted those successful shows are on this committee as well. We're planning to make this our best convention ever.

WFC ON THE INTERNET

The World Fantasy Convention is now on the World Wide Web! The huge site features information about the 1996 convention, the 1997 convention, and lots more interesting material about WFC in general. It features photos, lists of nominees and winners of the World Fantasy Awards, and much more.

The address of the web page is:

www.farrsite.com/wfc/index

Our apologies to everyone involved in the WFC site for not getting this address listed sooner.

The Interactive murder mystery that will take place at WFC this year also has a web page. On it, you'll find some clues about the mystery, background information, and other fun stuff. The address for this page is;

www.cyberconnect.com/jetstar/murder

If you're interested in learning more about Moebius Theater, the group that will be staging the Lovecraftian Murder Mystery, their internet address is:

www.cypberconnect.com/jetstar/moebius

MEMBERSHIP

Attending membership for the 1996 World Fantasy Convention is $100. Membership is limited to 850 people. As of October, 10, there are still memberships available.

You can charge your membership by phone through October 23. The Convention takes Master Card, Visa and American Express. To charge your membership by phone call 708-687-5765 (Please call between 11am and 8pm CST.) The convention will only accept mail memberships that arrive by October 23th, and payment must be by money order or credit card.

Memberships will be available at the door, but payment must be in cash, travelers check, or by credit card. We will not take checks for membership at the door.

Supporting membership is $25. This entitles you to all Progress Reports, the Convention Souvenir Book, and the Convention Program Book.

BANQUET

The World Fantasy Awards Banquet will take place on Sunday Afternoon, November 3rd at approximately 1:30 in the afternoon. Brian Lumley, our toastmaster, will preside over the festivities, and the 1996 World Fantasy Awards will be presented. A few banquet tickests are still available. Please call the convention phone number (as listed above) for more information about possible seating. It is highly unlikely that any banquet tickets will be available at the convention.

Because of the small number of people requesting Smoking seating at the banquet (less than 5% of the total number of people attending), the hotel has informed us that to comply with Illinois Clean Air Regulations, the entire banquet hall must be non-smoking. (i.e. there is no way possible for there to be a smoking section consisting of just one table - especially since a number of those people requesting smoking seats are sitting with specific publishers). Because of this, the hotel will set up a smoking area right outside the banquet hall for smokers wanting to have a cigarette during breaks in the program.

PROGRAMMING

The theme of the 1996 World Fantasy Convention is "The Many Faces of Fantasy." Our programming will thus highlight the incredible variety of subjects and themes in the genre. There will be two tracks of programming during the convention, starting with a few early-bird panels on Thursday night and concluding on Sunday morning. Some of the many topics that will be addressed include:

Is Dracula Dead?
Lions & Tigers & Bears, Oh My Epic Fantasy
Editors Turned Writers
That Is Not Dead...
Sex Sells: Erotica in Fantasy
The State of the Horror Field
The State of the Fantasy Field and many others. Approximately 40 hours of panels are scheduled, including interviews with Joe R. Lansdale and Katherine Kurtz. There will also be the traditional WFC autographing session on Friday night as well as a full track of readings and our unique interactive Lovecraftian Murder Mystery.

CAFE CTHULHU

Our reading track is proving to be immensely popular! All of our readings will be held at Cafe Cthulhu, where beverages are self-serve, but trips to the Twilight Zone are virtually guaranteed! Our cafe ambiance will feature coffee and soft-drinks by day, a cash bar at night. Small tables, checkered tablecloths and candle light will set the mood for an amazing series of readings.

Authors have signed up for themes and our special reading program will let you know who will be appearing in the Swords & Sorcery story track, as well as Monster Mash, Magical Realism, Field of Dreams, Futuristic Fantasy, and others.

With three emcees, Cafe Cthulhu will open on Thursday afternoon, and run from early morning to the wee hours of each night, closing its doors late Sunday.

Due to the overwhelming response and requests for reading slots, we have not been able to schedule everyone who has requested a reading. But, Cafe Cthulhu will feature several Open Mic sessions, including Thursday and Sunday afternoon, and a late night Erotica Open Mike on Friday and/or Saturday.

Join us at Cafe Cthulhu - but beware the shadows that linger 'round the corner tables.

RARE BOOK AUCTION

Continuing a tradition started at the very first World Fantasy Convention, this year's convention will feature a rare book and ephemera auction. Members of the convention can place rare items from their collection in the auction to be held at the convention, with the convention taking a small percentage if the material sells. Due to time constraints, only a limited number of items will be offered in the auction. Items in the auction will most likely include rare books, original artwork, manuscripts and unusual ephemera. Running the auction will be well known collectors Dick Wald and Rusty Hevelin. The auction will be held Saturday night at the convention, and all material for bid will be on display during the weekend. Payment by cash, travelers checks, or charge card, checks by prior arrangement only.

The SFFWA will also be holding an auction at WFC.

BLUES CHICAGO!

Catch the Blues, Chicago style! when we visit the world famous Kingston Mines Blues Club. You must register in advance for this Thursday night expedition to the most popular Blues club in the city, hosted by convention co-chair, Tina Jens. The club is located in the heart of the trendy Lincoln Park neighborhood. You'll hear music on two stages, featuring J.W. Williams and Dion Payton, performing in the distinctive Chicago style.

Seating will be reserved for our group in one room, though you will be free to follow the music from stage to stage.

The bus will leave the Hyatt Regency Thursday night at 9:30 and deliver you to the doorstep of Kingston Mines. There will be two buses back to the hotel - one leaving at midnight, the last bus leaving at 2 am. (The Blues continue till 4 am.)

Transportation and club admission is included in the $20 per person package price. You will be responsible for your own drinks. There is a one-drink minimum per set.

To register, send your name and check (made payable to WFC) for $20 per person, to BLUES CHICAGO, Tina Jens, 2339 N. Commonwealth St, #4C, Chicago, IL 60614-3443. You can also charge this amount to Visa, MC or American Express. Please include name on card, card number and expiry date. You may also reserve a spot by email at t.jens@genie.com.

THE SHAMBLER OVER SCHAUMBURG

Strange is the night where black stars rise,
And strange moons circle the stars,
But stranger still is Lost Carcosa.

The gibbous moon shines strangely, Aldeberan is ascendant, and the other stars seem weirdly out of tune. Madmen gibber in their chains. Sensitive artists plummet from their gabled windows. Eldritch and unspeakable horrors stalk the streets of Schaumburg. And, of course, THE GEOMETRY IS ALL WRONG!!!!!!!!!!!!

In a long-sealed chamber at the Bibliotheque Nationale, a sealed box was recently discovered. In it was found a crown, a mask, and a robe; all yellow. Also found was a manuscript which proved to be an unexpurgated edition of "The King of Yellow," a play whose performance always has dire tragic results.

The World Fantasy Convention is proud to present the Miskatonic University Drama Club as they perform the first public staged reading of this peculiar and disturbing work.

We can only hope that nothing evil will happen.

BUT THAT WOULDN'T BE ANY FUN, WOULD IT?

Moebius Theater will be presenting a Lovecraftian murder mystery throughout the World Fantasy Convention, beginning with the Thursday night mixer and culminating with a staged reading of "The King in Yellow" on Saturday night. All of the guests of honor (and maybe a few more unlucky people) will meet their doom during the convention.

And on Saturday night, you will be asked the question, "Who is behind the murders of the guests of honor?" A name drawn from those who answered correctly will win two memberships to next year's World Fantasy Convention.

That is, if anybody survives.

The horrors have already begun. Please check the "Shambler Over Schaumburg" website at
