Introduction

Welcome to the 1996 World Fantasy Convention. Here are a few facts to help you enjoy your time at the convention.

Registration. The registration area will be open on Thursday from noon till 7PM, Friday from 8:30AM till 7PM, Saturday from 9AM till 4PM, and Sunday from noon till 1PM. If you need to contact the WFC convention staff during the day, please come to the registration area for assistance.

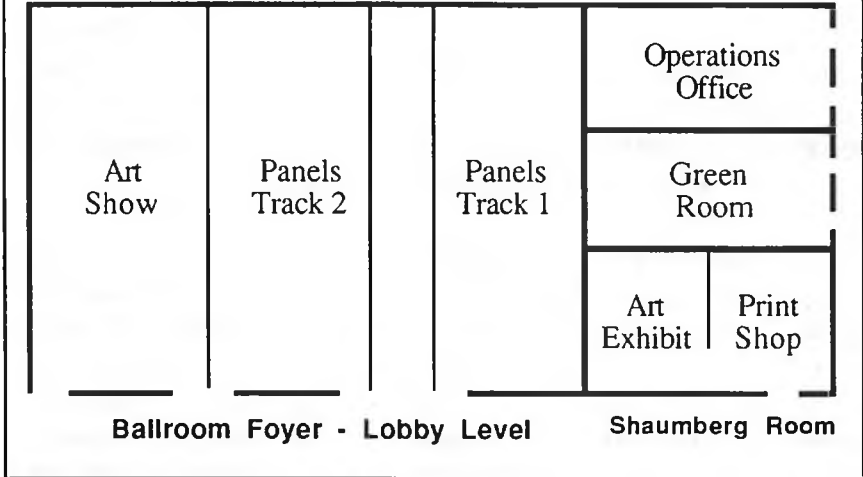

Guidelines for Guests: The World Fantasy Convention has always had a well deserved reputation for the professional, dignified and businesslike conduct among it's guests. We certainly do not want to break with tradition, so as in years past, we ask that you abide by the following guidelines: No hall costumes or uniforms. No weapons, either modern or medieval. Please respect the No Smoking signs where they are posted. (Illinois law restricts smoking in public places to designated areas only). If you are going to drink, you must be of legal age (21) to do so. (The Hotel Bar's last call is at 1:30AM and it closes at 2:00AM).

Attractions at WFC 1996: The main schedule of events will feature dual-track programming, with interviews and panel discussions. A separate reading track - "Cafe Cthulhu" - will be in the nameless room behind the Hotel Bar. An Interactive Mystery - "The Shadow over Schaumburg" - will be featured Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at any and all locations in the Convention. (Any deceased persons should be assumed to be a part of the play). Thursday night will feature a Blues Trip to the heart of the Chicago Music Scene and Sunday will be highlighted by the presentation of the 1996 World Fantasy Awards.

The Art Show will be in the Regency Ballroom area, and there is a separate Art Exhibit and Print shop in the Schaumburg Room on the main floor. The Dealers Room is located on the lower level in the Mayoral Ballroom.

Moebius Theater and the World Fantasy Convention will present an interactive Lovecraftian murder mystery throughout the convention, beginning at the Thursday night mixer and ending Saturday night with a performance of the recently unearthed unexpurgated translation of The King in Yellow. Cosmic Horror will stalk the convention bringing eldritch doom upon many, including all the guests of honor. Grab your Elder Signs and please do the following if you wish to survive and keep your sanity:

- 1) Check the Shadow over Schaumburg bulletin board (located in the hallway outside the Regency Ballroom) a few times each day. All the information you need to solve the mystery will be posted at the bulletin board.
- 2) Attend the Thursday night mixer and opening ceremonies.
- 3) Check the bulletin board to find out when and where scenes will take place.
- 4) Be observant. Things will be happening all around you.
- 5) Get involved in the improvisational fun. But if you interact with the characters, please remember THE GOLDEN RULE OF IMPROV: be supportive, don't deny.
- 6) If you are killed, stay dead until the scene ends and you are told what to do.
- 7) To make things a little more interesting - you will be able to vote Saturday night on who you think the murderer is. Those who correctly pick the murderer will be eligible for a drawing that will award a pair of free memberships for next year's World Fantasy Convention.
- 8) Have fun, trust no one, and pl... Hold it! There's something oozing out of the disk drive slot. Ohmigod! It's &J^&^)(&H#f©§.....

ABOUT MOEBUIS THEATER

Celebrating its twentieth anniversary this year, Moebius Theater is a comedy troupe specializing in science fiction, fantasy, horror and the possibilities that lurk on the fringe of reality. Since its formation in 1976, Moebius has played conventions (including three World Science Fiction Conventions), clubs, colleges and special events with sketch comedy show, plays (including the world premiere of the complete English translation of Karl Capek's R.U.R.) and other forms of entertainment. Moebius members have studied theater, improvisation, music and other related skills at the Players Workshop of the Second City, Northwestern University, the University of Illinois, Illinois Wesleyan University, the Bristol Renaissance Faire and various Chicago area bars. Their website is at www.cyberconnect.com/jetstar/mmoebius
No shoggoths were harmed in the creation of this production.
