

WELCOME TO CHENGDU

Chengdu, since ancient times, has always contained strong fantasy culture. There is never a lack of myths and legends here, which are all science fiction genes buried deep in the history of this city. Nowadays, Chengdu has been honored as the sci-fi capital of China by fandom, and has been attracting a huge number of sci-fi culture companies.

Chengdu boasts quite a lot of impressive symbols of the sci-fi culture. Besides SFW, the time-honored sci-fi magazine, and the Galaxy Award, the most prestigious sci-fi prize in China, another symbol is the China (Chengdu) International Science Fiction Convention.

The 6th China (Chengdu) International Science Fiction Convention will be held in 2023. We sincerely invite you to join in this big party of Chinese fandom, and to see with your own eyes that Chengdu has more than panda.
