London Docklands, 14-18 August 2014
A bid for the 72nd World Science Fiction Convention
Email: info@londonin2014.org  Twitter: @LondonIn2014

WHY LONDON?
We're excited by the opportunity to bring the Worldcon back to London after a gap of forty-nine years. London is the largest and most diverse city in Western Europe, and is home to the UK publishing and media industries. A London Worldcon will be a very special Worldcon, bringing together the best elements of numerous different SF and fannish traditions, and reaching out to new fans from all around the world.

SUPPORT THE BID
You can support us online at our website.
Pre-Supports are £12 / US$20
Friends are £60 / US$100
Young Friends are £30 / US$50
Young Friends must be born on or after 14 August 1988.

PROGRESS REPORT 4

"World Science Fiction Society", "WSFS", "World Science Fiction Convention", "Worldcon", "NASFiC", "Hugo Award", and the distinctive design of the Hugo Award Rocket are service marks of the World Science Fiction Society, an unincorporated literary society.
My, how the time is flying!

As I write this, we’re barely more than four months away from the start of Chicon 7. A couple of vital and fun pieces of the convention are already underway. You’ll find the Hugo ballot in this PR and the Hugo voter packet is available online. You will also find the site selection ballot for 2014 in this PR. This means that both of these processes are underway right now. I encourage you to participate in them. Even if you don’t think you can attend the 2014 event, the Supporting membership you’ll receive for voting will keep you connected to the community and let you continue to participate in all the Worldcon processes that year... bringing us in a wibbley-wobbley timey-wimey way right back to the Hugos and site selection, only in the future!

In the pages of this PR, you’ll find all kinds of wonderful information about the convention. If you’re anything like me, there will be at least a few things that get your blood racing and will make the waiting quite a bit harder. If the waiting is too difficult and you choose to build a TARDIS, please let me know, I could really use a friend with a TARDIS right now.

No TARDIS? Ah, well… I guess we all get to wait together. Here’s to seeing you all in Chicago!

Dave McCarty - Chairman
Chicon 7, the 70th Annual World Science Fiction Convention

Over the next several months, members of the Chicon 7 team will be at various conventions around the country. We hope you will stop by our table to find out what we’re planning, and perhaps volunteer to get involved.

We are planning to have a fan table at the following conventions (subject to change):
- Balticon May 25-28 Baltimore, MD
- Baycon May 25-28 Santa Clara, CA
- ConQuest May 25-27 Kansas City, MO
- Wiscon May 25-28 Madison, WI
- DucKon Jun 1-3 St. Charles, IL
- DeepSouthCon, June 15-17 Huntsville, AL
- Convergence Jul 5-8 Minneapolis, MN
- Westercon Jul 5-8, Seattle WA
- Readercon, Jul 12-15 Burlington, MA
- Confluence Jul 27-29 Pittsburgh, PA
- Cyphan Jul 27-29 Chicago, IL
- MuseCon, Aug 3-5 Chicago, IL

If you’re interested in helping out at our fan tables, drop us a line at ambassador@chicon.org and let us know the conventions that you will be attending.

Wait! What’s that you say? We’re not coming to your convention? And we should be there? There’s an easy way to solve that problem! Volunteer to be a Chicon 7 Ambassador! Ambassadors can help in several ways:

We’ll send you a t-shirt or ball cap that you can wear around your local convention, plus flyers and other giveaways.
Just spend some time at your convention walking around, giving people information, and talking up Chicon 7. Simple!
Take Chicon 7 flyers and other giveaways to local gaming, comic, or book stores. Help us connect to your local school, university, or library. Bring Chicon 7 information to your local SF / F book club or meet-up.

You can help spread the word about the awesome event that Chicon 7 will be! If you are interested, e-mail us at ambassador@chicon.org

See you around the world!
Chicon 7 under the stars!

Chicago is home to one of the best museum systems in the country, and for our first night, we’ll be taking one of them over! It is our great pleasure to announce that on Thursday, August 30, the Adler Planetarium will be hosting a reception (including hors d’oeuvres and a cash bar serving beer and wine) for members of the convention from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. The museum will be closed to the general public but open to members of Chicon 7.

The Adler Planetarium was the first modern planetarium in the Western Hemisphere and first opened to the public on May 12, 1930. The museum houses extensive exhibits on space science and has one of the world’s most important antique astronomical instrument collections on display. The Adler is a recognized leader in science education, with a focus on inspiring young minds to pursue careers in science. The museum sits on the extreme edge of Chicago’s “museum campus” and is in fact located on an artificial island.

During the reception, Chicon 7 members will be free to take in the exhibits of the museum. The Grainger Sky Theater will be running the show “The Searcher” every 30 minutes during our reception. This show was written by Nick Sagan (son of astronomer Carl Sagan) and follows the story of a visitor from another galaxy as he searches for his lost civilization. It features stunning visualizations of the formation of our universe, the collision of galaxies, a spectacular supernova explosion and a supermassive black hole. Seating in the theater is limited, so there will be a $5 charge for admission to this performance. Tickets for the shows will be purchasable at the box office during our reception. In addition to all the incredible fun inside, the museum will be hosting (weather permitting) a sky-viewing session on its exterior deck. There will be telescopes and docents provided by the museum to show you the wonders waiting for you in the night sky.

There is museum campus parking available for those making use of their own vehicles. For those not driving, there will be shuttle buses running between the Adler and the Hyatt Regency all evening long.

Please join us for a magical evening!
Have you ever taken extra vacation days (or holiday as they say in other countries) when going to Worldcon? A few days before or a few days after to sightsee and enjoy the destination? Have you ever had trouble trying to find people who want to do the same thing? Well I have, and I decided to do something about it. I got a group together last year for Reno and we did some exploring that was so much fun that I decided that I wanted to provide something like that for people attending Chicon 7. The idea for a department called Vacation was born.

My idea for the Vacation department is to line up people who want to do events in (or near) Chicago and who would open up these events to other members of Chicon 7. Actually, the people who attend these events don’t even need to be members of Chicon 7 so if you have a friend that plans to join you in the city but who can’t make the convention, they are still welcome at these events. And also note that these events would be separate from Chicon 7 and all costs would be up to the individuals, but I want to have free events in addition to the events that may cost a fee.

Some events that are already being planned are:

1. A trip to the Bristol Renaissance Faire in Kenosha, WI, on Sunday, August 26. (http://www.renfair.com/bristol) This Ren Faire is a couple of hours north of Chicago and is a wonderful place. If enough people are willing to pay for vans or a bus to make it affordable, we will try to rent them, otherwise, carpooling is the plan. If we can get at least 15 people, then we can get discount tickets.

2. Can’t Stop the Serenity Charity event in Chicago on Saturday, September 8. (http://www.chicagolandbrowncoats.com) This event raises money for Equality Now and The House of the Good Shepherd. In addition to showing the movie Serenity, it has a costume contest, a charity auction, and possibly even an improv team performing an episode of Firefly. Maybe. You never know.

3. Outings to see the Chicago Cubs play at Wrigley Field. (http://chicago.cubs.mlb.com) The Cubs will be playing at home from August 24 through September 2. At this time, no specific days have been decided upon.

4. An outing to the Museum of Science and Industry. (http://www.msichicago.org) We are currently looking at Monday, August 27 so that we can also see the special “Mythbusters: The Explosive Exhibition” (which ends on September 3). This museum is a wonderland, seriously. I have spent hours and hours in this place and still don’t think I’ve seen everything.

5. A beer tasting. No date has been decided yet. A fan plans to find some nearby bars that have local brews on tap and do some tastings. There are quite a few microbreweries in Chicago – it’s been growing in the last few years.

And that’s the problem – there are so many things to do that one person or a few people just can’t line everything up. So that’s where you (yes, you), come in. We need people who are interested in arranging an event to step up and let us know. An event can be as simple as a dinner outing for 8 people to as complex as an outing like the Bristol one where money needs to be collected ahead of time and where vans or a bus might need to be rented.

If you are interested in running an event or if you just want more information about events being planned, send an email to vacation@chicon.org and we’ll get you set up.

I hope we hear from you. Chicon is going to be great!
I have known Rowena more than half my life, although my introduction to her was via her paintings: her strong, sensual women; her dragons as gorgeous as rare jewels; her imaginative, intellectually provocative scenarios. Who is she, I wondered. An adventuress? An explorer of fantastical worlds? A warrior battling the grimmer vicissitudes of life? She was that and more, as I discovered through the years of our friendship.

It was her suggestion that we go hiking in Chile’s Atacama Desert and climb one of its extinct volcanoes. She braved the ever thinning atmosphere to reach its 18,000 foot summit while I succumbed to intensifying altitude sickness at 15,000 feet. During a dark time in my life, she convinced me to take up skiing by insisting that one could not possibly ski and be depressed at the same time. Like a charming sprite in one of her paintings, she sat under a waterfall on an ice-cold day, assuring me that this bone-chilling madness certifiably boosted one’s endorphin level.

Finally, and quite unexpectedly, the notorious Saddam Hussein could be counted among her many admirers as a good number of her paintings were found hanging in his palace when it was captured by U.S. troops.
So you've read Old Man's War and Whatever, maybe even picked up The Rough Guide to Sci-Fi Movies just to prove you're a real fan. But don't get the idea that you know John Scalzi just because you've read what he claims to be his literary outpourings. You can't really know him unless you live with him. And I do.

No, I'm not his wife, nor his daughter, both of whom are amazingly fantastic people and you have to wonder how they put up with the massive furball of ego that is John Scalzi. I'm Ghlaghghhee, John Scalzi's long-suffering feline master, and it is now time to clear the air once and for all and reveal the truth about John Scalzi.

First of all, what you've read on Whatever, or in any of those books, or even on his film column over at AMC or Film Critic...I wrote those (and believe me, typing with claws ain't easy...it doesn't take long to scratch those letters off the keyboard. And purr-recognition software just hasn't come far enough). Don't get me wrong, the Tormentor does have a role in the creative process. In the morning, he'll come into my lair and loudly muse about what "he" plans on "writing" on any given day. Once I have my assignment for the day, he drinks himself into a Coke Zero® stupor, only coming out of it when the sun sets and he looks over my immortal prose.

Why do I put up with this, you ask? Let's just say the last time I failed to meet the Tormentor's quota, he discovered that you can do more with smoked breakfast meats than simply eat them (although why you would waste such a delicacy is beyond me).

So, what more is there to say about the Tormentor?

He's a loving father and husband who lives in the wilds of Ohio on a vast estate that allows for plenty of mousing.

He's curious, especially about those things that have an influence on him. When he was elected President of SFWA, the first thing he did was e-mail... every single person who did anything for the organization to find out what they were doing and what they were planning. Once he was convinced they knew what they were doing, and that he knew what the organization was involved with, he became much easier to live with.

He’s got opinions, too. And while some people might try to pigeonhole him, if you actually read his opinions (well, my description of his opinions, since we’ve already determined that I write everything you think the Tormentor has written), you’ll find them much more nuanced, even thoughtful, or at least as thoughtful as you can be when your brain is being supplied by a steady stream of Coke Zero® instead of blood.

The Tormentor is also a fan. He’s read science fiction and has even committed fan fiction, although he managed to convince the original author’s estate to let him release the book professionally, so look for Fuzzy Nation, a reimagining of H. Beam Piper’s Fuzzy stories, at a bookstore near you in May. (And yes, while the Tormentor’s agent gets a cut, I’ll be lucky to just get an extra serving of Fancy Feast®.)

Perhaps the greatest service he has done for science fiction fandom has been the Hugo Nominee packets. When my novel The Last Colony was nominated for the Hugo in 2008, he put together an electronic packet of four of the novels for the voters to read (it just happened that the non-included novel won). The following year, when my follow-up novel Zoe’s Tale was nominated and my collection of Whatever articles, Your Hate Mail Will Be Graded, was nominated (and won), the packet was expanded to include practically all the nominated works from the professional categories to the fan categories (and the Tormentor has one of those fan writer Hugo’s, too).

In fact, one of the other nominees in the fan writer category once commented that John Scalzi was so successful at so many things, he wanted to hate him, but Scalzi was just too nice. Of course, he didn’t know that I write everything that appears under Scalzi’s name. And, as far as I know, Scalzi has never tried to tape bacon to him.

For this one weekend in February, I have the run of Chateau Scalzi and you have the Tormentor in your grasp. Do with him as you like. Ply him with Coke Zero® and electronics. Make him dance the puppet’s dance of joy. Get to know the real John Scalzi, not the one who hides behind the sharpened paws of Ghlaghge. And that whole bacon-cat thing? Don’t do it. The tape is hard to get out of your fur and the bacon grease works its way down to the skin.

SPECIAL GUEST

SY LIEBERGOT

On April 14, 1970, Sy Liebergot was serving as EECOM (Environmental Engineer and Consumables Manager) for the Apollo 13 mission when he gave the order for the astronauts to “stir up [the] cryo tanks.” Almost immediately, the response “Okay, Houston. Hey, we’ve got a problem here” was relayed back to Earth as the oxygen tanks ruptured.

Apollo 13 never landed on the moon, but Liebergot and the team working with him at Mission Control managed to bring the astronauts around “the Moon and returning [them] safely to the Earth.” Liebergot would later say that the organization’s response to the potential catastrophe was “NASA’s finest hour.”

That mission was only a small part of Liebergot’s lengthy tenure at NASA, where he started in 1964 and served as EECOM from Apollo 8 through Apollo 15. He served in other roles for the final Apollo mission as well as the Skylab and Apollo-Soyuz missions. He would later be the Senior Project Engineer for the design of the Astronaut Neutral Buoyancy International Space Station Laboratory Trainers. Liebergot has used his long experience to educate and advocate on the importance of space exploration. He recently has published his autobiography, Apollo EECOM: Journey Of A Lifetime.
Memberships

Individual memberships are available for Adults, Young Adults, and Children. We also sell Family memberships which reduce the cost of attendance for families of two adults with two or more children or young adults.

The following table details the current membership rate. The base Family rate at this time is US $540. Note that these rates will expire on July 31, 2012.

Types of Membership

Attending: An Attending membership includes all publications, as well as voting and attending rights. If you voted in the 2012 Worldcon Site Selection election at Aussiecon 4 and you were a Friend of the Chicago in 2012 Worldcon bid, then you are automatically an Attending Member of Chicon 7 as a result of paying your voting fee.

Supporting: A Supporting membership includes all of the rights and privileges of an Attending membership except the right to attend Chicon 7. You can always upgrade your membership from Supporting to Attending by paying the difference between the “New Supporting” and “New Attending” membership rates in force at the time of conversion. If you voted in the 2012 Worldcon Site Selection election at Aussiecon 4, you are automatically a Supporting member of Chicon 7 as a result of paying your voting fee.

Young Adult: A Young Adult (YA) Attending membership is identical to an Attending membership but it is only available to people aged 17 to 21 as of August 30, 2012. This class of membership carries the same rights as an Attending membership (see above) including voting rights and receiving all convention publications. Individuals in this age group can also be included in Family memberships (see below). YA memberships can be transferred only to people who also meet the YA age criteria.

Children and Kids-in-Tow: Child memberships are available for all children aged 16 or under as of August 30, 2012 and will include 8 hours of free professional child care for children aged 12 or under. Children aged 6 or under as of August 30, 2012 may alternatively be registered free of charge as Kids-in-Tow. Although there is no charge, we encourage you to register your Kids-in-Tow as it helps us to understand the number of young children who may be at the convention. Kid-in-Tow memberships do not include child care. Children and Kid-in-Tow memberships include admission to Chicon 7 under the supervision of an adult, but do not include publications or voting rights for the Hugo Awards or Worldcon Site Selection. Children may have Attending memberships (and thus have publications and voting rights) instead of Child or Kids-in-Tow memberships, but must still be supervised by an adult at all times.

Family Memberships: Family memberships can be purchased for 2 adults and 2 or more Children (aged 16 or under as of August 30, 2012) or Young Adults (see definition above). Children under 12 will receive the same number of hours of free child care as a separate Child membership. The current price for a Family membership is US $540, minus any applicable voting/supporter discount, and this price is good until July 31, 2012. Young Adult family members, aged 17 to 21 as of August 30, 2012 may be included in a Family membership for the additional cost of US $25 for each young adult. Please contact Registration if you want to purchase a Family membership.
SALES TO MEMBERS

Chicon 7 is pleased that Offworld Designs will be producing our T-shirts as well as providing other merchandise, such as hats, pins, and earrings. This merchandise is currently available on their website, and most will be available at the convention, but some really spiffy items will only be available via pre-order. Go to www.offworlddesigns.com and click on the Chicon 7 Store icon to see some of the items that are available. If you have any specific questions, e-mail us at merchandise@chicon.org.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Disability Services is here to help with the special needs of Chicon 7 members. If you, your family or your friends have any special needs, please contact us at disabilityservices@chicon.org. We will try our best to answer your questions or provide the services you need.

The Chicon Disability Services team is led by Cori Callicote and W.A. (Bill) Thomasson. They are looking forward to meeting all of you in Chicago and to helping you have a comfortable and enjoyable Worldcon. The address for all questions and requests is disabilityservices@chicon.org.

Disability Services will be located next to Registration in the Hyatt Regency Chicago – East Gold level.

Will Chicon 7 have mobility scooters available? Yes, we certainly will. The price will be $200 for the entire convention—including two days before the convention, if desired. This includes standard, heavy-duty, and transportable scooters at no additional charge. A regular scooter can hold up to 250 pounds. Manual wheelchairs will also be available at a charge of $125 for the entire convention.

If you’d like a scooter or wheelchair, please call Scootaround at 1-888-441-7575 to make your reservation in advance. Reservations must be made by August 15. Payment will be due when you pick up your scooter at the Chicon 7 Disability Services desk next to Registration. And yes, we plan to be available on Tuesday, August 28, and Wednesday, August 29, for those who arrive early. All scooters or wheelchairs rented through the convention will need to be turned in shortly after Closing Ceremonies on Monday,

September 3. Sorry, no extensions for after the convention. If you’d like a scooter for after the convention, you might be able to make private arrangements with Scootaround, but that will be independent of the convention’s arrangements and will be a separate charge.

We’re looking forward to seeing you.

VOLUNTEERS

Volunteering at a convention is the best way to meet new people and to get involved in the community. There are positions available in a lot of departments and we can find one that is just right for you, be it helping at Registration or checking badges at the Con Suite or helping with crowd management. There are many, many tasks that need to be done at the convention as well as before the convention even starts.

Those who volunteer at least 15 hours will be eligible for cool swag and prizes. Be sure to sign up at the Volunteer office at Chicon 7, or send an e-mail to volunteers@chicon.org to get on the volunteer list.

Please check out our volunteers page (https://chicon.org/volunteers.php) for more information.

INFO DESK

Chicon 7’s Info Desk will be located next to Registration in the Hyatt Regency Chicago – East Gold level. Thanks to our crack signage team, we’ll be easy to find. At the Info Desk you will find a smiling person, ready to help you find whatever you need to find. There will be program and event updates, daily zines, sign-ups for various activities, local maps, area and restaurant guides, bus schedules, and more. Are you looking for Chicago information pre-con? Let us know what you’re looking for at info@chicon.org. We are already looking at Laundromats, grocery and convenience stores, and more.

Chicon 7 Progress Report #4 was edited by Guy and Rose-Marie Lillian, under the supervision of Terrence Mittner and Steven Silver. We enjoyed the invaluable support of Geri Sullivan, Janice Gelb and many others. GHLIII Press Publication #1124.
Chicon 7 is thrilled to have chosen KiddieCorp (www.kiddiecorp.com) as the professional child care provider to Chicon 7. KiddieCorp has worked regularly with Worldcon in recent years—including in LA, Denver, Montreal and Reno—and have an excellent understanding of our needs and interests.

KiddieCorp’s service will be available to all children aged 12 or under as of the start of the convention. Child memberships costing $75 are available for all children in this age group, and include 8 hours of free child care. Additional hours are then chargeable at $10 per hour. Children who are members through a Family membership can also take advantage of the 8 hours of free child care. Children under 6 can alternatively attend the convention as Kids-in-Tow without paying a membership fee, but will not receive any free child care and will therefore need to pay the $10 per hour charge for all child care hours that they use.

Please note that your children must be registered with the convention (whether with Child/Family memberships or as Kids-in-Tow) before they can be booked into the KiddieCorp service.

The child care service will be located in the Hyatt Regency West Tower, Silver Level. It will be available during the hours listed below. We have included an evening service on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday to enable parents to attend the parties as well as Masquerade and/or Hugo Award Ceremony. Please note that children can receive a maximum of 10 hours child care on any single day.

Child care capacity is limited and we urge parents to book all child care hours in advance where possible, so we can ensure adequate staffing and service.

Full details of the service arrangements and how to book will be published on our website during May 2012. We anticipate that booking will be available online as well as by post, and that KiddieCorp will accept bookings directly from Chicon 7 members. Places will be limited and allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, so please book in plenty of time.

If you have any questions about the child care service, please contact Lisa Garrison-Ragsdale, Child Care Liaison, at childcare@chicon.org.

POSSIBLE KiddieCorp Children’s Activities

KiddieCorp will be offering a wide variety of activities tailored to different age ranges from babies through to 12 year olds. The exact program will be designed for us, but may typically include:

Artist Alley—Beaded jewelry, fun paper bag hats, colorful collages, and more—including the child’s very own hand puppet to take home.

Adrenaline Rush—Group games such as Simon Says, Relay Races, Duck-Duck-Goose, and Red Light Green Light, plus playing in fun children’s tents or going through the obstacle course.

Peaceful Play Land—Relaxation in a quieter area, with books for all ages and story time throughout the day. There will also be tea sets and play food for the children who like to play grocery store or house.

Construction Zone—An area dedicated to blocks and Lego, plus a Play-Doh sculpting station.

Tiny Tikes for Infants and Toddlers—The youngest children will be surrounded by tactile toys to stimulate fun and learning. There will be soft building blocks, stacking toys and activity centers, plus various ride-ons and toddler books and regular sing-a-longs with favorite nursery rhymes. To help the kids stay on their napping schedule, we will do our best to have everyone settle down for a rest a couple of times throughout each day.
ChiKidz is our program for children aged 6 through 12 and their parents. We want to excite and educate, while also allowing a space for children to be creative, socialize, and benefit from many of the aspects that adults regularly enjoy at conventions. The program will reflect the themes and subjects of Chicon 7, but in a way that is suited to children.

We will have talks, workshops, fun and games, learning and exploring, a convention space dedicated to them. Of course, some items will need parents along to help, like when the kids need help with tools, pouring chemicals, building spaceships out of Lego, crafting regular stuff or Nerf guns to look Steampunk, and also making light sabres. We'll be learning to play role-playing games, and listening to authors and guests, as well.

With Story Musgrave (a NASA astronaut) as a Chicon 7 GoH, kids are going to be able to hear him talk about his experiences in space and ask him questions.

And that's not all, but we don't want to give all of our secrets away yet!

There will still be our static activities stationed around the kids' area such as classic video games, new ones to drive us bonkers, slot car tracks, craft materials and Lego to play with.

We will have our programme online. It will also have information for parents, and our policies, for you to read. Check out https://chicon.org/chikidz.php.

We are also looking for volunteers to help with our activities, and we would also appreciate some older kids to help out with role-playing, building, helping us to herd, etc. Please contact us at chikids@chicon.org if that interests you.

Finally, if anyone has unwanted/unused Lego floating around their houses, we need all the Lego we can get our hands on! Contact us at the above e-mail address if you can help!
The designer for Chicon 7’s Hugo base has been chosen!

Deb Kosiba is a Chicago area artist, and has been making things since forever. In her professional life, she has designed toys for McDonald’s, makeup cases for Caboodles, trade show booths and graphics, and seasonal giftware including candy, plush, and ceramics. She is currently the Model Shop Manager for Kolcraft Inc., where she builds prototypes of bouncers, high chairs, strollers, and potty seats. Her fannish life is no less diverse. Over the last 20 years or so, she has run Art Shows across the Midwest, chaired Capricon twice, started up the Artist’s Alley at WindyCon, and designed several convention web sites. However, you will most often find her creating flyers and wrangling with program books in Publications. She is currently involved with WindyCon, Chicago’s oldest science fiction convention.

With whatever time she has left, she creates art. Over the decades she has shown art in countless Art Shows, in every medium imaginable. Most recently though, she has been working in stained glass. She and her husband Phoenix took classes together four years ago, and it has been a driving passion ever since.

This is her third time designing and building the Hugo bases. The first time was in 2005 for Interaction in Glasgow, and then the following year for L.A.con IV in Los Angeles.

CONTESTS

Chicon 7 is hosting a Student Writing Contest. Please see https://chicon.org/student-contest.php for details.

Chicon 7 is also running a contest to finish a Mike Resnick story. Mike’s opening for the story appeared in PR 3 and the story fragment and details of the contest can be found at the Chicon 7 website at https://chicon.org/resnick-contest.php.

SPOT THE SPACESHIP

Many members spotted the spaceship in PR#3—on the back of a tee shirt in Kurt Erichsen’s drawing on page 4. A drawing was held to select the winner, and Kevin Miller topped it! He gets preferred seating at either the Masquerade or the Hugo Award ceremony at Chicon 7—his choice!

No special contest this time—everyone who spots the spaceship will enjoy a wonderful time at Chicon 7! We’ll even give you a hint: here it is!
72nd World Science Fiction Convention—2014 Site Selection Ballot

Everyone who votes will become a Supporting Member of the selected 72nd Worldcon

Rules (Please read carefully):

To be eligible to vote, you must be a living, natural person and either an Attending, Young Adult, or Supporting Member of Chicon 7. Ballots cast for memberships held by non-natural persons, such as “Guest of” memberships, clubs, toys, etc., may only be voted as No Preference.

If you are not a member of Chicon 7 and want to vote by mail, you may become an Attending, Young Adult, or Supporting Member by filling out the form on the reverse side of this ballot and sending a separate check for the appropriate fee made out to “Chicon 7.” You may, if you prefer, charge your Chicon 7 membership to one of the major credit cards listed overleaf. Do not mail cash.

You must include the Site Selection Advance Supporting Membership (Voting) fee of $40.00 US. This payment automatically makes you a Supporting Member of the 2014 Worldcon. Make checks payable to “72nd Worldcon.” You may, if you want, charge your Site Selection fee to one of the major credit cards listed overleaf. Do not mail cash.

You may cast your ballot by mail or in person at Chicon 7. Mail your ballot to Site Selection at the address listed below.

Voting: Site Selection ballots are tallied by preferential balloting procedures. The winner is the first bid to receive a majority of those ballots expressing a preference. This means that you should indicate your favorite selection with a “1,” your next favorite with a “2,” and so on. If you mark an “X” with no other marks, that will count as a “1” for that bid and no other preferences.

Mailing Instructions

1. Mark your vote and fill in the membership and payment details on the other side of this sheet.

2. After filling out both sides of the ballot, fold the ballot along the dashed line below then tape the fold shut at the solid line, in order to conceal your vote from casual viewing prior to the ballot count.

3. Include your name and address on your ballot. You must sign your ballot. In addition to being used to validate the ballot, we will provide the voter’s name and address to the winning bid so that they know who their members are.

4. Mail the ballot and any payment necessary to Site Selection at the address listed on this side of this sheet. You may authorize someone else to deliver your ballot to the convention for you.

The deadline for receipt of mail-in ballots is August 11, 2012. Voting at the convention will end at 6 PM CDT on Saturday, September 1, 2012.

For the full details of the rules, see Article 4 of the WSFS Constitution. If you have any questions regarding this ballot or the application of Article 4 to the selection of the 72nd Worldcon, contact us at the address below or at siteselection@chicon.org.

Write-in
In order to win, a Write-in bid must file the required paperwork with Chicon 7 before the close of voting.

---

No Preference
Equivalent to an abstention or blank ballot, a vote for No Preference means that when it becomes your highest remaining choice, you don’t care which bid wins. We will not count any choices numbered after this choice.

---

None of the Above
A vote for None of the Above indicates that you are opposed to all of the bids. If None of the Above wins, the WSFS Business Meeting at Chicon 7 will select the site.

Eligibility to Vote

You may vote in the 2012 Hugo Awards and John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer if you are an Attending, Young Adult, or Supporting member of Chicon 7. Please complete the eligibility section on the previous page and do not forget to sign the ballot.

How to Vote

This ballot uses a modified version of the Alternate Vote System, sometimes known as the Instant Runoff Ballot. To vote, mark your choices in each category in order of preference: “1” for first place, “2” for second place, and so on. You are not required to rank all the nominees in any category, and we recommend that you not vote in any category in which you are not familiar with a majority of the nominees. If you decide not to vote in a given category, leave it blank. Note that “No Award” is not an abstention, but a vote that none of the nominees should be given the award in question. When the ballots are counted, all the first place votes will be tabulated. If no nominee receives half or more of the votes, the nominee with the fewest first place votes is eliminated, and its votes are transferred to the nominees marked “2” on those ballots. This process of elimination continues until one nominee receives half or more of the votes, at which point it becomes the winner (unless the votes are outnumbered by “No Award” votes, under specific conditions described in Section 3.11 of the WSFS Constitution).

A few tips which may help you in voting:

1. Please keep in mind that second and further preferences play no part in the voting unless and until your first choice is eliminated. This is not a point system where the second choices of many voters can overwhelm the first choice of a few voters. We suggest that after marking your first choice, you proceed by imagining that it has disappeared from the ballot, and placing your “2” by the remaining nominee you most prefer, and so on. This mimics the way the ballots are actually counted. Thus, even if your heart is set on one nominee, don’t hesitate to give “2” (and other) rankings to other nominees you also consider worthy of the award.

2. Nevertheless, if your top choices are eliminated early, your lower preferences could be the tie-breaker between the remaining nominees, so choose all your preferences carefully! No matter how much you dislike a nominee, if you rank it, the vote will be counted if all of your previous choices are eliminated. We recommend that you rank a nominee that you do not consider worthy of the award below “No Award” if you rank it at all.

RITUALS OF THE CHICAGO CONS

STEVEN H SILVER

One of the rituals of Chicago fandom, as well as other places, is the honoring of past fans. Windycon honors the memory of Lewis Grant, Jr., with an award given out for the fan-voted Best in Show at the Art Show. The award was first presented at the first Windycon in 1974 and was given out until the mid 80s. For several years it was not presented until it was reestablished in 2002 at Windycon XXIX. Lewis Grant, Jr., was a Chicago fan who died at the 1966 Wilcon, hosted by Jon and Joni Stopa.

When Phil Foglio worked on Capricon in the early years, he was upset that programming never used any of his suggestions. Then he realized that since he was in charge of publications, he had all the power and Phineas Taylor B Programming was born, named in honor of P.T. Barnum who famously said, "There's a sucker born every minute." Phil began to insert fictitious panels into the printed schedule to amuse himself and catch the unaware. These joke panels, held in equally fictitious rooms, are generally staffed by a fictitious character, a dead person, and someone who is not attending the convention. While most attendees know to look for them, occasionally someone is caught trying to find the Lake Wobegon room. And there was the year these panels escaped onto the website and someone came to the con looking for the panel on kinship in the novels of Lois Bujold.

Capricon also presents the Bob Award. This award is presented to a non-management hotel employee who goes out of their way to provide excellent service to the convention and ensure that things run as smoothly as possible. The winner of the award receives a cash prize as well as a letter of commendation, which is sent to the hotel’s manager.

STANDING EXHIBITS

Chicon 7 has set aside 30,000 square feet of the Riverside Center Exhibit Hall, conveniently located right next to the Dealers’ Room, for Standing Exhibits. This is where you’ll find the Fan Lounge, which will include a bar and snack area, as well as the Site Selection voting area and the Fan Tables.

In addition to the traditional exhibits we’ve arranged a few extras for your enjoyment. Currently we’ve got:

- Fan and Pro Portrait Galleries
- Worldcon Heritage Exhibit
- Guest of Honor Exhibits
- NASA
- Chaos Machine
- Battletech Pods
- Classic Video Games
- History of Fandom in Chicago
- Fannish History

We still have space available and we are open to any and all suggestions for ways to fill it. If you have an idea or, better yet, have something you think we’d be interested in using, let us know. We’re also looking for volunteers to help organize the various exhibits, assist in setting them up, or generally keeping things running smoothly. If you fit into any of these categories, get in touch with our Standing Exhibits Grand Poobah, Brendan Lonehawk.

FILK

Chicon has a rich history of great filk programs. Chicon 7 will satisfy you with lively themed and open filks, a wide range of concerts, and daily sing-alongs. New this year: Open Filk will have a room for tuning and a room just for jamming. Plus you will have enough time to see other parts of the convention and even get some food. Contact us at filk@chicon.org, especially if you’re a performer and new to Worldcons.

http://chicon.org
ARTIST SHOWCASE

Chicon 7 is putting together an online Artist Showcase and an associated commemorative print publication to introduce all of the exhibiting artists to our members. Each artist’s entry will have a photo, a short bio, a sample of their art, and links to any websites, blogs, etc. they wish to share.

If you are an artist showing at Chicon 7, we would be delighted to receive your bio, photo, and sample artwork so that we can complete your page in the Showcase. This is designed to help raise the profile of all the artists and hence to increase your sales! Full instructions on the materials we need, and how to submit them, can be found at the bottom of this section.

If you supplied this information to Renovation and would like to re-use it or would prefer to not be in the Showcase, just send an email to art@chicon.org and let us know.

To create the showcase, we would like to receive the following from each exhibiting artist:

1. A biography. This needs to be no more than 150 words per artist for the printed publication, but we have room for up to 300 words on the website.
2. A digital photo of yourself, for use on the website.
3. A sample image of your artwork at 300 dpi to provide sufficient resolution, and in TIFF, EPS, or JPG format. The chosen artwork does not have to be a piece that you will be exhibiting at Chicon 7 but should be representative of your portfolio.
4. Please make sure you specify the title and any associated credits to accompany this image.
5. Details of any personal website, blog, etc. that you would like us to link to from our website (you can specify more than one).

Please e-mail these materials to art@chicon.org as soon as convenient. (We can handle attachments of up to 10 MB. We look forward to hearing from you, to completing your page in the Showcase, and helping you to have a great time at Chicon 7!

ARTIST FAIRE

It’s more than an artist alley, but less than a dealer’s table, so we’re calling it the Artist Faire. There will be some 6’x30” tables in the Art Show room available for use by attending artists.

Artists must have at least one half-panel or one half-table in the Art Show; they cannot just get an Artist Faire table. Each table will have 2 chairs and 2 pieces of 2’x7’ grid-wall (attached in a shallow v) for a sign or display of art. Artists may sell their work from these tables, demonstrate their techniques, show their portfolios, arrange commissions, or just talk to whoever wanders by. If you want to do active art other than sketching, painting, or sculpture, please ask first.

Artist Faire tables are free and no commission is charged on sales. The artists will be responsible for collecting and remitting their own sales tax to the state of Illinois for sales made at the table.

Information will be given to the state just like in the Dealers’ Room. There will not be electrical power available at these tables, but there is WiFi in all of our function space, so WiFi-enabled and most cell-service based credit card machines will work in the room. Time slots will be:

<tr>
<th>Friday</th>
<th>Saturday</th>
<th>Sunday</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10 a.m. - noon</td>
<td>10 a.m. - noon</td>
<td>10 a.m. - noon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>noon - 2 p.m.</td>
<td>noon - 2 p.m.</td>
<td>(closed 1-3 p.m.)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 - 4 p.m.</td>
<td>2 - 4 p.m.</td>
<td>3 - 5 p.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 - 6 p.m.</td>
<td>4 - 6 p.m.</td>
<td>5 - 7 p.m.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These time slots will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis for the first time slot. Each artist may request one or two time slots. We will assign tables for all first time slots first, then if any are left, we will hand out second time slots, again on a first-come basis. We feel this will give the most number of artists a chance to participate.
Klingons at Chicon 7

Lawrence Schoen

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Klingon Language Institute (aka qep'a' wa'imaH HutDich) will run from Monday morning on August 27 through late evening Wednesday, August 29.

Once again, we'll be splitting the conference into two parts:
Part One will be the usual blend of fellowship, curse warfare, singing, story-telling, and assorted language challenges as we've enjoyed for the past eighteen years, and will run from Monday through Tuesday.

Part Two will begin on Wednesday morning, and is aimed at Chicon 7 members who have arrived in town a day early and want to get their Klingon on. All day Wednesday we'll have various introductory lessons and explanations intended for newbies, beginners, and visitors dressed in Federation pajamas (or other noncombatants). Klingon grammarians will be on hand to help newcomers (not to be confused with linguistic “fresh meat!”) learn the basics of Klingon and use it to chat, sing, play games, and insult one another.

$20 Registration is required to attend all three days, but Chicon 7 members can join us at any time on Wednesday absolutely free!

More details may be found at http://www.speakklingon.info

Writer's Workshop

Oz Drummond Rich Chuedyk Traci Castleberry

We're gearing up for the workshops and looking forward to reading some promising new fiction! By the time this progress report comes out, we should have a web page up with details and contact info if you have further questions.

The workshops are two hours long and should be held at least twice a day, in the morning and in the early afternoon. Depending on how many sections we have, your workshop section could be on any day of the convention, so please plan accordingly. Everything depends on when we can schedule the section leaders. Each section will have two leaders and three submissions. We try to match the submissions to the leaders, another reason to keep your Worldcon plans flexible. You'll also be expected to read and critique the other two manuscripts in your section ahead of time and provide your comments during the workshop. All workshops are closed to outsiders to protect the writer's work and the process.

We'll begin taking requests for a workshop slot in July, some time after the Fourth of July. Timing will depend on getting our list of leaders in order, so be sure to check the website. An announcement will also go out on various social media when we're ready. Our slots are filled in about seven days every year, so don't delay asking for one. It's a bummer when we have to turn people away because they didn't make their request in time.

Hope to see your submission!
