

RESTAURANT GUIDE

L.A.con IV Restaurant Guide Notes:

Getting to restaurants:

The distances given are for driving not walking, so nearby places may be easier to reach on foot than the estimates appear to indicate. There is a regularly running shuttle, the ART (Anaheim Resort Transit) which offers reasonably priced transportation. Tickets and various length passes are available in the Hilton and Marriott.

If you want the least problems parking and the broadest variety of foods from cheap and fast to casual fine dining, consider going to The Block, shown on the bottom right of the map or just a little further to the MainPlace Mall. Parking is free and access is easy provided you avoid the freeway construction around The Block. Coming from the convention it is best to exit the freeway for Chapman or State College streets. There are several restaurants in the outer parking areas. There is a Krispy Kreme drive through for those with a sweet tooth.

MainPlace Mall has several quality restaurants in and around it. The Green Parrot is reported to be one of Orange County's best. The best parking for getting to the Food Court is on the west side lot with the third stage rocket displayed between the lot and the Santa Ana Freeway.

Euclid at Katella is an area with many ethnic, middle eastern and southern Asian restaurants including many which are halal certified and at least one Pakistani vegetarian restaurant, the Village #93 on our list.

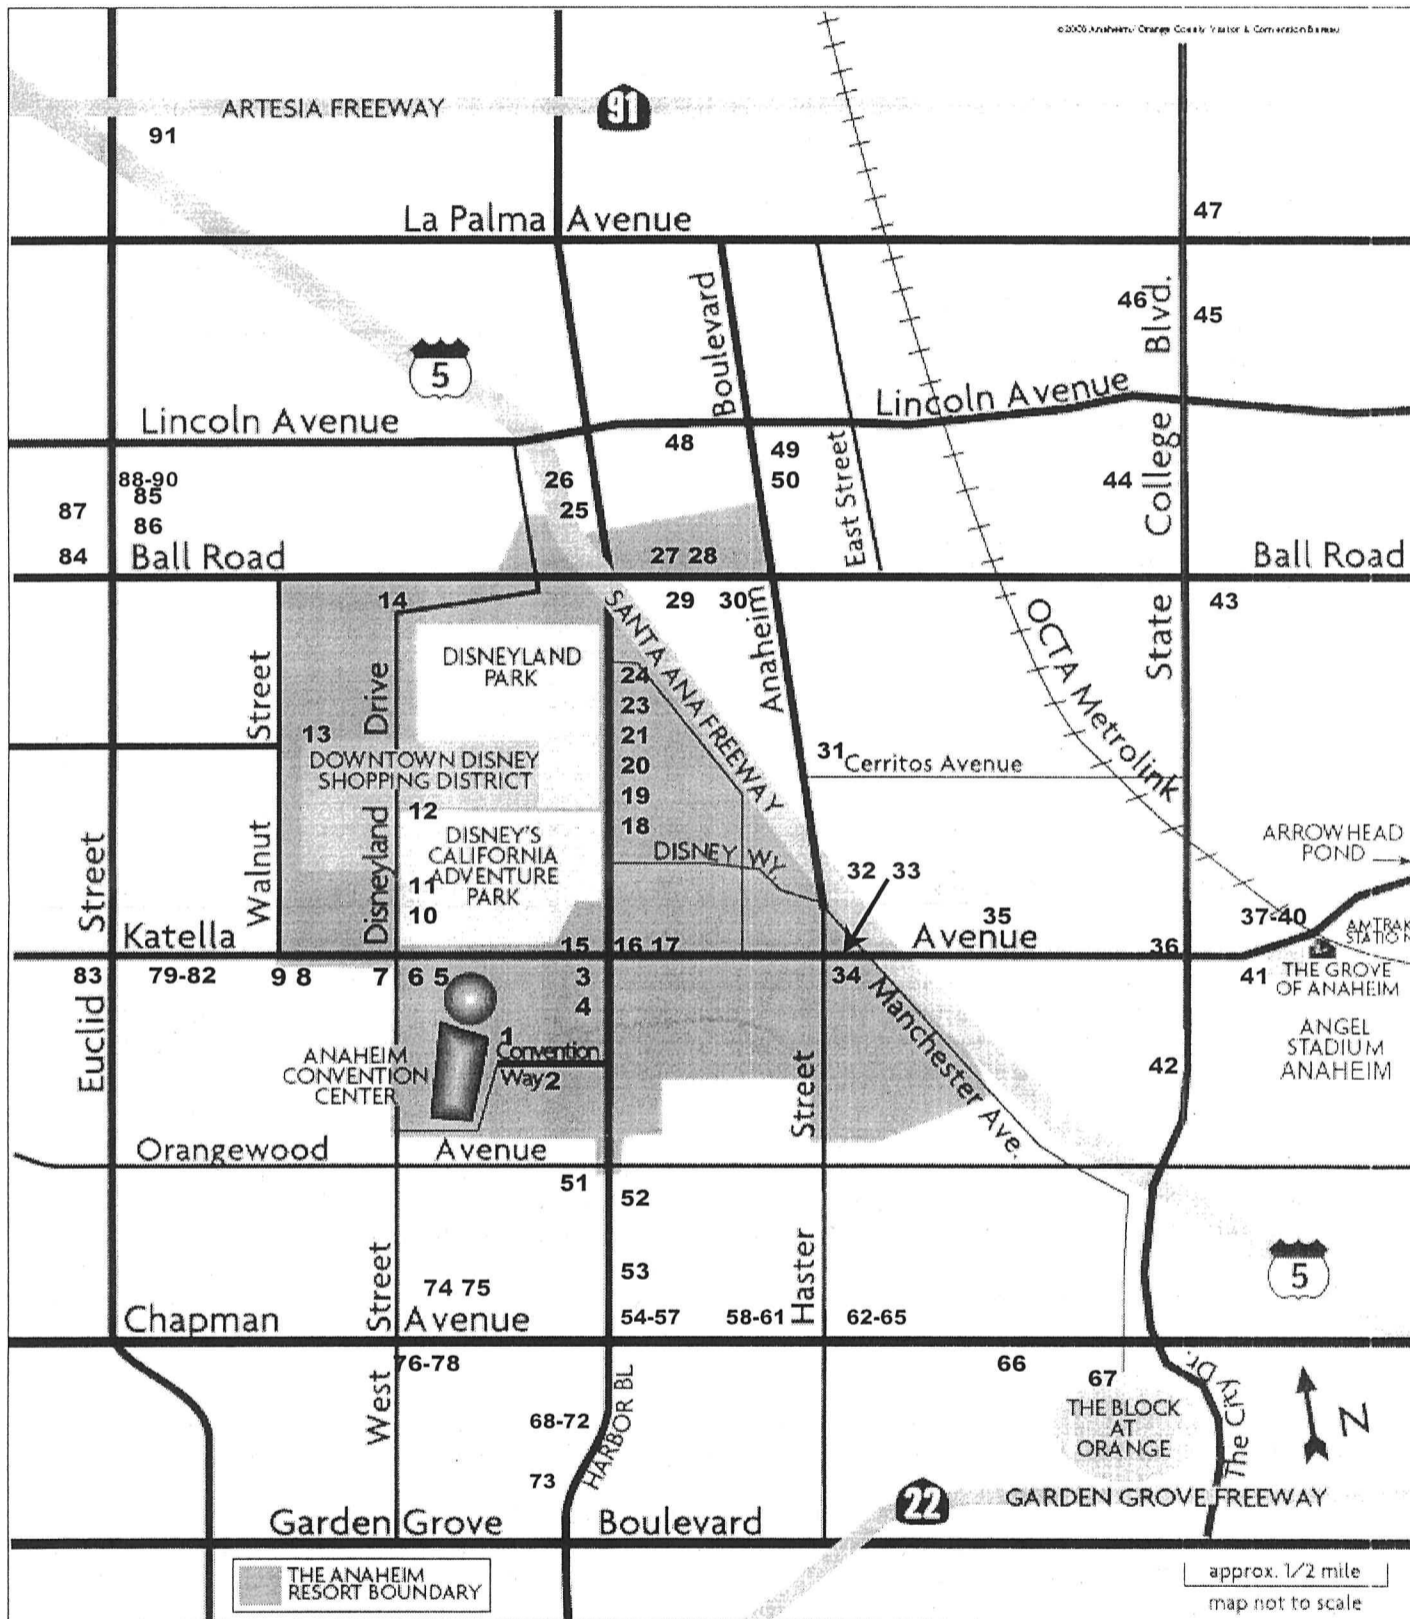

Getting Kosher food:

Unfortunately, this area doesn't have much to offer. The Hotels can get Kosher meals and have some frozen ones for those in a pinch. All the chef needs is a few days notice to get good fresh kosher food. There is a Kosher store in Tustin on Camino Real just off the 5 freeway a little past the 55 intersection. OC Kosher Market, 688 El Camino Real, Tustin (714) 838-3107 Su 8-4p, M-Th 9-7p F 8-2p Check with the hotel who may already have their menu available or call them and they'll fax a menu to the hotel..

Award Winners:

There are several restaurants on our list that are award winners granted by the Southern California Restaurant Writers. Granville's Steak House (#13a) in the Disneyland Hotel is an SCRW Golden Sceptre Award winner. So are #35, Mr. Stox, and #158, The White House. The White House serves Northern Italian dishes. Mamma Cozza's Italian Restaurant (#156) recently won the SCRW Herb Baus-Don Smith Award.
